Tea of Thursday is Last of Year for Faculty Women

University women were particularly interested this week in the faculty tea which was a large event of Thursday afternoon in Alumni hall. Throughout the school year the women of the campus have held these teas monthly to create a greater acquaintance and friendship. Thursday was the last for the present year. For this occasion a large number of guests were invited as the last tea is guest day for the women sponsoring it.

A very interesting musical program was given. Mrs. Aurora Potter Underwood being in charge.

Mrs. Raymond Wheeler and Mrs. Sam Bass Warner were chairmen of the committee for the afternoon and were assisted by Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Dean Walker, Mrs. Marian Watts, Mrs. Earl Widmer, Mrs. W. R. H. Wilson, Mrs. Roger Williams, Mrs. Louis Wood, Mrs. Harry B. Young, Mrs. F. G. Young, Mrs. N. H. Zane.

Mrs. Holly Moore Linsberger entertained for a charming affair at her home Wednesday evening, honoring Mrs. W. W. Moore, and Mrs. Carrie Matlock, of Pendleton, who is visiting in Eugene as the guest of Mrs. Nellie Matlock Sweet peas in varied shades were attractively used about the rooms. There were four tables of bridge. Mrs. Carrie Matlock arrived this week.

Quantities of the various wild flowers now in bloom combined with peonies and blue lupin made a striking decorative setting for the annual spring luncheon Monday by the Home Science club at the attractive new home of Mrs. David Graham. The flowers were used throughout the reception of the guests. The luncheon was the last of the present club year for the organization, and one-half of the membership entertained for the other half. Mrs. Fred E. Smith was chairman of the committee for the afternoon and other members of the committee were Mrs. A. P. Rapp, Mrs. W. P. Fell, Mrs. L. P. Hubbs, Mrs. Claud D. Rorer, Miss Elma Hendricks, Mrs. Flora Livermore, Mrs. David Graham, Mrs. E. J. Frazer, Mrs. George Schaefer, Mrs. J. H. Gilbert, and Mrs. Frank Jenkins.

Dinner and Bridge Party Sponsored By Teacup Club

Teacup club members shared in the pleasure of an eventful party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Benson, at 1215 Commercial street. The party was a dinner and bridge for their husbands.

Purple wild larkspur and scotch broom made a rich color scheme for the centerpiece at the six small tables used where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hobbs, Mrs. Winifred Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Findtner, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Immel, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Stickle, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Starbuck, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Roome.

The Teacup club is to have two more meetings before adjourning until the fall month.

Mrs. Jack Benefield entertained for Chi Omega Alumnae association members at her home Tuesday evening. Miss Henriette Guay was elected president for the coming year. For the meeting in June Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass will be hostess.

Mrs. Charles O. Wilson was a gracious hostess for one of the very interesting meetings of the year for the Matrons' guild auxiliary of the Central Presbyterian church on Wednesday at her home on Emerald Heights, Springfield. Fifty members were present to enjoy together the pleasurable afternoon. Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen presented an interesting lesson on the occasion on Bible study. Mrs. Wilson used rhododendrons and blue lupin as an effective decorative scheme about the rooms. Assisting her in entertaining were Mrs. G. W. Hobson, Mrs. J. W. McArthur, Mrs. Judy Esterly, Mrs. Clara Fitch, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon, Mrs. J. M. Miller, Mrs. Eric W. Allen.

Mrs. Arthur Morris entertained informally with a luncheon and golf party Wednesday for Mrs. M. M. Tuft who is soon to leave for Portland. A luncheon was given at the home of Mrs. Morris. A large bouquet of dutch iris centered the table and miniature golfers marked places for eight intimate friends of the guest of honor. After the luncheon the party motored to the country club for an afternoon of golf.

Mrs. F. G. Young entertained members of Tourist club at her home on Monday evening of this week.

Mrs. J. K. Pratt is entertaining with a luncheon the coming Friday as an affair to honor Mrs. M. M. Tuft.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Wilson of Springfield have entertained as guests this week, Mrs. M. J. Wilson, Mrs. Wilson's mother, and their son, Charles Kenneth Wilson, both of Salem.

Mrs. Lynn S. McCready is to entertain with a luncheon Tuesday to honor Mrs. M. M. Tuft, who is leaving soon for Portland to make her home.

An especially interesting meeting on Monday will be that of Domestic Art club. It is to be at the Anchorage with Mrs. Alfred Powers and Mrs. Dan Clark entertaining. At this time there will be election of officers for the new club year. The subject for Monday's study will be on "Period Furniture."

Mrs. Guy Lytle was hostess for an attractive luncheon at the Anchorage yesterday, entertaining as guests the members of the Friday Bridge club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Miner of Eugene are spending the week-end in Salem as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cockerline of Corvallis are week-end visitors in Eugene as guests at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cockerline.

TO BOB OR NOT TO BOB IS THE QUESTION

Lila Gilmore

By NEA Service

CHICAGO, May 16.—To bob or not to bob—that is the question that still puzzles the minds of thousands of American girls.

Is the bobbed-haired girl prettier than the one with unshorn tresses?

To help settle these questions, a jury of Chicago artists will be called upon to perform the difficult task of selecting from among hundreds of girls the prettiest girl with the prettiest bobbed hair and the prettiest girl with the prettiest long hair. The contest will be held April 16-18 under the direction of the hairdressers of Illinois.

These two girls then will go to California in September to compete with girls from all over the country in a contest which will decide whether bobbed or unbobbed hair is essential to real beauty and whether the fashionable hairdresser for the next season is to be short or long.

Of the hundreds of girls entered in the Chicago contest only one out of every six still wears her hair long. Three of the most attractive contestants are shown above.

Mrs. Gertrude Talbot

for the occasion. The table was attractively decked, a huge bouquet of sweet peas and forget-me-nots being used as the centerpiece with pink candles. The party was given as a sort of farewell to Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Tuft, members of the club, who are soon to leave to make their home in Portland, and members of the N. U. A. presented them with a token.

Mrs. J. P. Gerot entertained at a pleasurable party at her home Tuesday evening, bidding as her guests the members of the degree staff of the Rebekah lodge. Thirty were invited for the occasion. Assisting Mrs. Gerot were Mrs. Anna Defoe, Miss Alice Gerot, and Miss Wilhelmina Gerot. Branches of dogwood were used about the rooms. VACATION stew—the recipe varies with the individual wants but there are more or less general ingredients and methods: One realization of the time of year; one large desire to go; one-half uncertainty where to go; one-fourth advice from others; one-eighth anxiety and apprehension of disappointment. Cover with a few weeks of planning and thinking, and simmer gently until uncertainty and anxiety have thoroughly disseminated. Add sufficient time and money to adequately cover the needs and hold vigorously. Serve with pleasant memories for the remainder of the year.

The size of portions served, of course, will differ with individuals as will the taste, but every one is out for a share. And thus it will be from now, though it is just mid-May, until early autumn, a continuous talking and planning of vacation.

A host of club workers ceased their activities for the summer this week and joined with the increasing crowd who await the events which only summer brings.

The luncheon, that very popular, truly spring-time function, has found great favor this week and many interesting notes were given.

Much of the present entertaining is being for Mrs. M. M. Tuft who leaves soon with Mr. Tuft to make their home in Portland. A half dozen or more affairs are planned for the coming week to honor Mrs. Tuft, who will be greatly missed in social and club interests of Eugene.

Outstanding among general city events is the oratorio, "The Creation," which is being presented for the second time this evening in the Methodist Episcopal church by the Eugene Oratorio society. Eugeneans have awaited this occasion for many weeks, and are welcoming it as truly the greatest musical achievement of the year.

Mrs. A. L. Ingalls and Mrs. John R. Bell entertained for one of the delightful job afternoons of the year which members of Monday Book club enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Ingalls Monday afternoon. Quantities of the wild rose made a stunning centerpiece for the luncheon table.

Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp and Mrs. A. L. Ingalls have been chosen by the Book club to represent it at the convention of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs at Marshfield June 1, 2, and 3, with Mrs. J. S. Magidley as alternate.

Mrs. Eric W. Allen Entertains at Luncheon

Mrs. Eric W. Allen was hostess for an attractive affair at the Anchorage Tuesday, entertaining with a luncheon in compliment to Miss Carolyn Allen who was a guest at the Allen home the past week.

California poppies were arranged for a clever centerpiece at the table where covers were placed for Miss Allen, Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher, Mrs. John Howard, Mrs. Rudolph H. Ernst, Mrs. Colin V. Dymant, Mrs. George Walter C. Barnes, Mrs. A. H. Schreff, Mrs. Dean H. Walker, Mrs. Virginia, Mrs. Judy Esterly, Mrs. Clara Fitch, Miss Gertrude Talbot, Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon, Mrs. J. M. Miller, Mrs. Eric W. Allen.

Luncheon Given in Compliment to Mrs. Benson

A smart mid-spring function for society was the large luncheon for which Mrs. Betsy Hill girls entertained at their chapter home Tuesday in compliment to their house mother, Mrs. F. W. Beason. More than forty were given invitation to the affair.

The event was a very colorful one, and the decorations and favors artistic. Small tables were used, the guests being seated in congenial groups about ten tables. Masses of wild roses were fixed as centerpieces with dainty place-cards done in harmonizing tones.

The guest list included Mrs. L. H. Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Coleman, Mrs. George Fitch, Mrs. Elizabeth Prescott, Mrs. Seth Laraway, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. A. L. Ingalls, Mrs. L. P. Hibbs, Mrs. Bruce J. Giffen, Mrs. J. M. Shelley, Mrs. Herbert O. van, Mrs. A. P. Sether, Mrs. A. F. Hupp, Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Mrs. George DeBar, Mrs. Dugald Campbell, Mrs. F. M. Carter, Mrs. John R. Bell, Mrs. George Hiddle, of Grants Pass, Mrs. F. M. Wilkins, Mrs. Claud D. Rorer, Mrs. W. P. Fell, Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mrs. Idaho Campbell, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. A. H. McDonald, Miss Amy Dunn, Mrs. Virginia July Esterly, Mrs. W. P. Jewett, Mrs. Harold Crossland, Mrs. Jennie Shoemaker, Mrs. Lettie Mowrey, Mrs. Harriet S. Wright, Mrs. Lucy Perkins, Mrs. Henry W. Augustine, Mrs. Lucy Abrams, Mrs. Mildred Giffen, Mrs. L. E. Woodring, Mrs. Beatrice Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Katherine Yerex, Mrs. Grace Russell, Miss Edna Porter, Mrs. Ella Stearns, Mrs. S. N. Boyer, Mrs. Gertrude Talbot, Mrs. J. W. Kaye, Mrs. Sue Radollet, Miss Fanny McCamant, Mrs. Inez Miller, Mrs. J. J. Lange.

The many friends of Mrs. Edna Gordon will be glad to know that she is rapidly improving from her recent illness, and is expected to return the first of the week from Portland where she has been to the home of her sister, Mrs. A. T. Cockerline.
