CRESWELL

CRESWELL, May 21.—(Special)—The funeral of the late Earl D. Moxley was held from the Schwaner chapel Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. A large assemblage of friends and neighbors attended their sympathy and interest with beautiful flowers adorning a beautiful casket. Rev. William Lantz of Eugene, Sunday school missionary of Willamette Presbytery, officiated. He read some appropriate selections of scripture and gave a sermon full of hope and comfort. He spoke of the deceased's conversation about two years ago and attested that he died in the faith. He told of a painter who was asked to paint a picture of Alexander the great; he refused for a long time; then finally consented. It appeared that in a war Alexander the great had received a wound over his eye, leaving a scar. The painter did not want to paint the scar, but he found a natural position of Alexander in that he was in the habit of holding his finger over the scar and meditating. He consented to picture him that way. The minister argued that the finger of criticism be used to cover up the scar. He said there were three crises in life; birth, the new birth and death. Our hope of life after death was in Christ's resurrection. Everything pointed to the resurrection; nature in her fullness proved it. The Bible proved it. All life taught it.

A quartet consisting of Mrs. C. H. Sedgwick, Mrs. F. L. Kirby, H. C. Trivillion and C. H. Sedgwick accompanied by Mrs. H. C. Trivillion sang three songs: "Jesus, Blessed Jesus," "Asleep in Jesus," and "No Dying There"; the pallbearers were J. E. Hurley, Arthur Kerr, H. D. Waite, J. Schwaner, George O'Neal and Charles Sutton. The interment was in the Creswell cemetery. The arrangements were in charge of R. A. Schwaner, undertaker.

Among the outside visitors who attended the funeral of Earl Moxley Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Waite of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen of Cottage Grove.
