PROPERTY LOSS OF STORMS BLAST BIG

DENVER, Colo., May 22.—A trail of debris, 75 miles long, remained in northeastern Colorado today as a remnant of the big storm which swept over the state Sunday. The storm was reported killing three persons and causing thousands of dollars damage to property.

At Boulder, Loren H. Bennett, a carpenter, was killed when a roof on which he was working was blown away by a mass of rocks. Two others working on the roof escaped with serious injuries. A boy of five was drowned in a small lake at Berland when the wind overturned a boat in which he and a companion were playing. A seven year old girl was crushed to death at Plattville when an outbuilding was destroyed.

Most of the property loss was to small buildings and to telephone and telegraph lines. The girls lasted for nearly an hour in some places. At Fort Collins it assumed the force of a tornado, but no great damage was reported there.

ST. LOUIS, May 22.—One man was reported killed and considerable property damage done by a severe storm which struck towns in Hamilton and Saline counties, in southern Illinois last night, according to word received here today.

Menre advised said that the storm leveled 18 houses in Harrisburg, Ill., and causing considerable other damage. One man is said to have been killed at McLeansboro. Wire communications to the area have been disrupted.

McKenzie Highway To be in Fair Shape Soon, is Report

The road between Nimrod and Blue river is still pretty rough in spots, but a few days of good weather, will put it in fairly good condition, said Nelson E. Mauff, supervisor of Illinois last night, according to word received here today.

A party of road men made a trip up to the snow line and then loked up to Scott lake in search of a quarry for rock for the road work this summer, said Mr. Mauff.

Telephone and trail work in the Cascade National forest is now going ahead rapidly, says Mr. Mauff, and Smith L. Taylor, in charge of this work, is sending out pack mules to
