Here's Star Speller

Marie Mason, 13, of Omaha, Neb., won first prize in a spelling bee held at the University High school on Saturday afternoon and evening, May 16.

The Phi Delta Kappa spring term conference was held at the school of education and the College Side Inn Saturday afternoon and evening, May 16.

Mr. Spencer, head of the mathematics at U. H. S., is president of the conference and Mr. Benjamin was secretary. About forty superior students and teachers outside of the city were present at the afternoon meeting and the banquet at the College Side Inn. The program was arranged by F. C. Wooten who is the head of the department of history and social sciences at the University High school. Papers were delivered by Oscar Richards of the biology department of the university, J. O. McLaughlin of the Corvallis schools and A. L. Hamilton, principal of the Newberg high school.

When you're sad and lonely
And the long hours drag by,
When all is dark and dreary
In your heart a yearning cry—
A friend!

When nothing's bright and cheery
And the grim world presses on,
You pray a bit of sunshine
Then comes from out the dawn—
A friend!

A Friend
When you're sad and lonely
And the long hours drag by,
When all is dark and dreary
In your heart a yearning cry—
A friend!

U. H. S. Girls Win Game
The 9th and 10th grade girls class won a basketball game from the University freshmen class by a score of 15 to 1. Each class put out their first team. The freshmen class was ahead at the end of the first inning but after that the U. H. S. girls led. The battery for the 9th and 10th grade was: Mae Ellis and Hazel Yenne.

The second team played two innings but no score was kept. The battery was Clara Maltman and Louise Pierce.

Hike Planned for Tuesday
The long deferred but often planned hike of the nine o'clock biology class will be taken next Tuesday afternoon immediately after school. That is, if it will not rain. Old Jupiter (Jupiter) seems determined that the biology class shall not have any specimens but the members of the class hope that it will rain and let them go Tuesday.

Upperclassmen Win Game
The 11th and 12th grade girls class won a basketball game from the lower classes' second team last Wednesday by a score of 11 to 10. The upper classmen were in the lead during the first inning so they did not finish their last bats.

The battery for the 11th and 12th grade was: Esther Morley, pitcher; Marjorie Landrum, catcher. Ninth and tenth graders: Edna Johnson, pitcher; Lillian Reed, pitcher.

It is believed that the annual track meet will be dispensed with this year as the school has permitted no regular practice. The last day of gym will probably be used for a picnic for all the gym classes.

Reviews Begin
The French classes have nearly finished the years work and will soon begin the reviews for finals. Mrs. Pattee, along with this work, while others are learning French poems.

Reading Class Writes Book
The 11th grade reading class composed of students who would have

Statistics and gave a very vivid but brief story of his own life from the time he was 15 years of age to the present date. He believes that the world needs more religion, as he was speaking from experience, he stated his facts very forcefully.

Mr. Kennedy's Own Life
Mr. Kennedy was born in prison 25 years and was a drug fiend in the most advanced stage but he declared that he has been cured of the habit. In the course of his speech he warned the students against the habit, giving his own life as an example.

Girl Reserves Elect Officers
The Girl Reserves elected officers on Monday, May 18, for the coming school year. The newly elected officers are: Margaret Edmondson, president; Jessie Winchell, vice-president; Mary Klemm, secretary; Estelle Johnson, treasurer.

Year Book to Appear Thursday
The Eugeneian, the year book of the student body, will be out Thursday, May 28. This year Koke-Tiffany company is printing it and the engraving was done by Hicks-Chatton engraving company of Portland. The book is bound with a brown composition leather cover and is larger than the preceding Eugeneian.

proved upon and will contain the prize winning stories and poems and also those receiving honorable mention.

Yell Leaders Needed
New yell leaders are wanted! In assembly Wednesday morning only two applicants appeared, namely: Max Robinson, at present assistant yell leader, and Russell Sewart. Very few and no demonstration of their ability to fill the position of yell leader were given before the students by these contestants.

This spring Ralph Newman, who has successfully acted as yell leader for three years, will graduate, and the student body wishes a peppy leader to fill his place for the coming year.

Seniors Join Chautauque Circuit
Ed Thurston and Lammie Baird, seniors, left Wednesday afternoon, May 20, for Philadelphia, where they will travel with the chautauque all summer and return in the fall for school. Ed will act as cashier for the chautauque and Lammie as property man.

Seniors Plan Luncheon
The senior luncheon will be given at the Anchorage June 3. The decorations will be carried out in the senior colors, gray and blue, and the class flowers. Announcements will be furnished during the afternoon.

The committee in charge of the luncheon is Ruth Hudson, Daye Marshall, Bertha Bushnell and Claire Curtis. The price will be 55 cents per plate.

Faculty Will Picnic
A faculty picnic will be given Tuesday, May 26, at Coburg bridge. C. C. Stone, president of the committee in charge of the picnic, appointed the following committees: refreshment, M. G. Ganev, entertainment, A. L. Beck, Mrs. Debe, and Miss Baker; transportation, R. T. Hill, Mrs. Carille, and Mrs. Harwood; financial, C. C. Stone, Miss Harris, and Miss Knapp.

Student Expenses Estimated
Data on what percent of the students in E. H. S. earn or partially earn their way through high school were taken on Thursday during roll period when each student filled out a blank answering various questions concerning the per cent of their expenses that they earn, the type of work they do, whether they work in school hours or not, and the amount they earn during the summer. The data are being compiled by Forrest Owens, history instructor.

Camp Cookery Clubs at Coast
The camp cookery club of the Eugene High school are spending the week-end at the coast and at the mouth of the Siuslaw river. The party left Eugene Friday at four o'clock, driving to Mapleton that evening and camping there for the night. At ten o'clock Saturday morning they started down the river by boat. And at 2 p. m. they reached the coast line, a distance of thirty miles from Mapleton.

Camp will be held on the ocean beach Saturday night and at noon Sunday the party starts on their journey homeward.

Miss Thurston, J. G. Swan, and Martin Johnson, all teachers of the school, will accompany the party, also Arnold Collier, Lane county club leader.

Special Luncheons Served
Special luncheons for the faculty have been given during the past week by the advanced domestic science classes under the supervision of Mrs. Marion Harwood. Eight teachers were served each hour. One of the domestic science class rooms being used in place of the regular faculty lunch room. The menus were planned and meals prepared and served by the girls themselves, with the small charge of 25c per plate. The tables were artistically decorated, and all-day sucklers robed in bright tissue paper making little dolls served as very ingenious place cards for the occasion.

Kiwanis Club Invited
The members of the Kiwanis club numbering about sixty, will be entertained at a luncheon to be given by the Home Science club during the noon hour of Monday, May 25.

Quartets Visit Springfield
Both quartets from Eugene High school went to Coburg last Monday and put on a short entertainment for the benefit of Coburg High school. Springfield was visited Wednesday noon at which time the boys' quartet was especially well received. At present the girls' quartet are preparing themselves for both commencement and the baccalaureate exercises.

Seniors Conduct Ticket Sale
A senior class meeting was held Wednesday morning to plan for the sale of tickets to the senior play, "The Toyman," to be given at the Heilig theater, May 28. Each senior signed up for five tickets to be sold if possible about the city. If a full house is achieved, the seniors will clear approximately $125.00 not deducting play expenses.

Scrap-Book Club to Elect
Members of the Scrap-Book club, which is sponsored by Mrs. Ruth Rugh of the English department, will elect their new members for next year at an early meeting. Any member who is absent from three consecutive meetings will be dropped from membership. This was a decision passed by members of the club at their last meeting, which was held at the country home of Elizabeth Knowles, a member of the club who lives at Hanson Drive on the River Road, last Tuesday.

Members of the club read selections from their scrap books during the evening. The hostess served strawberry shortcake, which according to the members, truly "capped the climax."

Miss Hazel Fishwood of the art department will demonstrate the binding of scrap books at the next meeting of the club which will be held next week.

Eugene Names on Honor Roll
Eugene High school has been mentioned on the 1924-25 national honor roll of typewriting students and instructors. This honor roll, which is sent to all high schools and business colleges in the United States, names Elsie Bruseau, a student in the commercial department, as a first class typist with a speed of 47 words per minute. Miss Hazel Stone, typewriting instructor in E. H. S., under whom Miss Bruseau has worked, was also named on this roll. As a whole, the typewriting classes have been unusually successful this year. Our typing team won honorable mention in the statewide typewriting contest and one member of the team won third place in the junior division of the contest for speed. In the month of April, over thirty students won certificates and medals for speed and accuracy in typewriting. The successful typists and their respective number of words per minute is as follows:

Royal Typewriter
Lincoln Constance 43, Agnes Stalsberg 34, Frances Chenoweth 54, Orville Houston 42, Roy Graham 45, Belle Hartwig 45, Orma Slattery 36, Chester Edits 31, Florence Elliott 44, Underwood Typewriter.

Color Values Studied
The art classes, under Miss Hazel Fishwood, are working on color values. Their problem is to make a decorative landscape design, which they will work out in five values of any one color.

Her first year classes have finished a cut paper alphabet made from squares and have started working on nature studies with recent outlines. The entire department plans to visit the art exhibit at the university in the near future.

Athenians Elect Twelve

A group of the twelve new members who were recently elected to the Athenian society was made in assembly May 20 by the president of the club, Victor Phelps. As the names of the new members were read, they took their places in a reserved section of the old members of the club. Those elected to membership were: Margaret Edmondson, Doreen Milligan, Marion Zuercher, Phyllis Lehman, Philip Gatch, Theresa Young, Mary Klemm, Lincoln Constance, Donald Sheythe, Mary McDonald, Herschel Honey and Justin McDonald.

Honor Pennant Awarded

Room 202, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Rugh, has the distinction of being the first roll room in Eugene High school to receive the honor pennant. The roll room has been able to keep the banner more than one year of six weeks.

The banner is given by the national society of this school to the roll room having the highest average for a period of six weeks.

Room 202 is composed of Constance girls and Miss Doris Helen Johnson is intendant.

When presenting the banner at assembly last Wednesday, D. J. Jones, principal, expressed his regret that he had not been able to see the banner during the school term.

Alpha Chapter Initiates Twenty

Initiation of the new members of the Alpha chapter of the Kappa Kappa Gamma society was held in the high school Tuesday evening, May 19. The following were formally initiated into the society: Theresa Young, Mary Klemm, Editha Williams, Virginia Reed, Elizabeth Williams, Thelma, Mary Klemm, Bernice Phelps, Lincoln Constance, Karl Klemm, Margaret Edmondson, Ivan Hall, Harold King, Don Campbell, Herschel Honey, Blanche Holcomb, Ethel Thoyne, Cecile Mayberry, Donald Sheythe and Marion Zuercher.

The decorations and refreshments were carried out very effectively in a color scheme of blue and yellow, the colors of the club. The committees in charge of the initiation were: refreshments, Dorothy Knowles, Evadne Hurst, Alice Brown; entertainment, Mildred McDermott, Melba Mc Donald; decoration, Elizabeth Morse, Daye Marshall, Herbert Wheeler, Victor Phelps.

Mother and Daughter Banquet Held
The high school Girl Reserves held a Mother and Daughter banquet at the Christian church last Wednesday night, May 13.

The room was cleverly decorated in blue triangles with white candles and many white flowers. The girls all wore the school uniform.

The following eight girls received Girl Reserve rings, which is the highest honor a girl may receive in the club: Jennie Winchell, Pauline Winchell, Kathryn Winchell, Elizabeth Morse, Kathryn Soole, Ruth Lord, Margaret Edmondson, all Eugene high school students, and Marjorie Landrum, a University high student.

A surprise ring was awarded to Mrs. Ruth Addison, general advisor of the Eugene groups.

An interesting program was provided as follows: Janna Glenn, toast to mothers; Mrs. George Harley, toast to daughters; P. E. Christensen gave a talk on "What Girl Reserves Mean to a High School"; Miss Ruth Magnuson, secretary of Y. W. C. A. in Eugene, talked on "Ideals of Girl Reserves."

Enrollment near 1000
The total enrollment of Eugene high school for this year is 997 students. The total days attendance for last month was 15,310.5, the total days absence, 1,621, the per cent of attendance being 93.9. The total number of tardies was 455 and the number of students with a perfect record being neither late nor absent, was 300. If four more students enrolled the total number in the high school would exceed the one thousand mark.

Tri-Y Guests of M-Y
The members of the Tri Y club were the guests of the M-Y club at a banquet held at the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday, May 20. The purpose of the joint meeting of the two organizations was to create a better understanding between the two groups and to enable greater cooperation for future work. An earnest discussion under the leadership of W. P. Walters, adviser of the M-Y club, was carried on by the members of the clubs, concerning their ideals, purposes, and mutual problems, in the hope of having greater success in solving these by the united efforts of the two groups.

The members of the Tri Y club who attended were Margaret Edmondson, Theresa Young, Dorothy Hallin, Rose Gottlieb, Kathryn Soole, Pauline Winchell, Jessie Winchell, Pauline Lehman, Fredith Seiverson, Shirley Hinton, Pauline Hammett, Melba McDonald, Elizabeth Morse, Elsie Everett. The girls were accompanied by their club adviser, Miss Emma Chase, Mrs. Ruth Addison, and Miss Florence Magnuson, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. at the University of Oregon.

Speaks to Students
There were 4,000,000 drug addicts in the United States and the number is increasing at the rate of 1000 per day, said Ted Kennedy, evangelist and ex-drug addict in a speech delivered to the high school students in assembly Wednesday morning, warning against the drug evil. Mr. Kennedy read some startling
