Ross, secretary; Mrs. Stanley Stevenson, treasurer.

Following the election of officers Mrs. F. L. Stetson presented a most interesting paper on period furniture. For the last meeting of this year the club is planning a picnic supper to be given at "Eglar's," in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ingalls in College Crest. At this occasion members of the club are to entertain their husbands.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Charles Hardy entertained for a pleasant affair having as guests the members of Bide-a-Wee club. The hostess asked as special guests for the afternoon Mrs. L. D. S. Wade, Mrs. G. E. Lehman, and Mrs. J. W. Hobbs. Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck is to entertain the club in two weeks.

Members of Monday Book club are to meet Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. L. Ingalls, one half of the club members being hostesses for the meeting. At this time members of the club will give reports and reviews of the books they have read during the past year. Mrs. J. O. Holt having charge of the discussion.

Completion of the study of the play, "Hamlet," and installation ceremonies for new officers made up the program for the meeting of the Eugene Shakespeare club in the chamber of commerce rooms Monday afternoon. The session was the last of the present club year, activities to be resumed October 5 at which time the study of "Cymbeline" will be taken up under the direction of Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff. The new officers installed Monday were Mrs. Lettie Mowrey, president; Mrs. L. D. S. Wade, vice-president; Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett, secretary; Mrs. E. B. Parks, treasurer. Mrs. Mowrey appointed as the social committee for the coming year, Mrs. Frederick G. Jennings, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. Carl G. Washburne. Mrs. Jewett read a communication from the Shakespeare club of Portland inviting the Eugene organization to affiliate with the international Shakespeare organization.

Mrs. Amos Wilkins entertained members of Wednesday Bridge club at her home this week, inviting as additional guests for the afternoon, Mrs. Alberta McMurphy, and Mrs. Will Yoran. Quantities of rhododendrons were attractively used as decorations for the occasion.

For one of the most enjoyable afternoons of the year members of the Eugene Daughters of the Nile club motored to Cottage Grove Wednesday afternoon to be guests of the Cottage Grove members at a picnic luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Roy Short. Hostesses were Mrs. Short, Mrs. Karl M. and Mrs. M. A. Basted. Immense bunches of rhododendrons were used as decorations about the rooms for the afternoon. The guests were blindfolded and led to the basement and told to pretend they were walking over moss and under the trees of a picnic woods. Then when the blindfolds were taken off the guests found themselves in a lower of maple and huckleberry of Scotch broom, and huckleberry, with the luncheon fixed in baskets at small tables for four. After lunch the party went upstairs for the business session. Reports and plans of the committee supervising the club's sewing for the crippled children's hospital in Portland were given at the meeting. Twenty Eugene women attended the meeting. On the third Wednesday in June the club will meet with Mrs. Wayne Green, Mrs. Ray Glass, Mrs. J. S. Maglady and Mrs. E. E. Hillbrand as the hostesses.

Mrs. C. L. Teshner left yesterday for various cities in the east where she will spend the summer. She will spend most of the time visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hermance McAnall, of Davenport, Iowa. Mrs. Teshner will also visit in Denver, Chicago, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, coming back to Eugene early in the fall.

Miss Georgiana Gerlinger of Portland was a visitor in Eugene this week, returning to her home from Berkeley where she has been in the University of California for the past year.

Mrs. W. J. Clemens, sister of J. R. Bell of Eugene, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Clemens of Berkeley, were guests this week at the Bell home. They were visiting to Washington to visit.

Sans Souci club members shared in the pleasures of an eventful afternoon Wednesday as the guests of Mrs. John Seaver. Additional guests were Mrs. Frank R. Wetherbee, Mrs. Seth Lackway, Mrs. J. H. Koke.

Eugene society is welcoming back Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bown (Margaret Fell) who recently returned from El Paso, Texas. They have taken up their residence in the Tawno-Kerr apartments.

Oregon club girls have issued cards for a tea to be given next Friday in Alumni hall, honoring Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon and Mrs. Robert W. Watt, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hammond (Ester Fell) returned the first part of the week to their home in Medford after a visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fell of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Warner of Oregon City were visitors this week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Seaver.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Giffen were hosts for a picnic supper on the banks of the Willamette Wednesday evening, entertaining as guests a number of students.

HINTS UPON HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL

Hot Water and Lemon Instead of Breakfast

A COCKTAIL of hot water and lemon juice is my substitute for breakfast and it keeps me in excellent condition, too.

Before I start by daily dozen, I squeeze the juice of a lemon and distribute it equally between two large glasses of water as hot as I can stand to drink it. I drink both glassesful, and take nothing more until lunch.

have found that breakfast is quite an unnecessary meal that tends to consume considerable time, and also to add to one's weight.

The hot water takes the place of a stimulant, such as coffee or tea, and keeps one from feeling faint or undernourished.

church, Rev. Frank Fay Eddy officiating. Mrs. DeMerritt has been attending the University of Oregon this year and was a junior in the school of sociology. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dell of Athens, and is a member of Gamma Phi Beta, and affiliated with the honor society of Kwama. Mr. DeMerritt is a former university student, majoring in the school of law, but has been in Marshfield since the fall term. He is a member of Chi Psi. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. DeMerritt left for Marshfield where they will make their home.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church entertained Tuesday afternoon at the church parlors with a most delightful program and silver tea. About forty were guests for the afternoon. Dr. Kimball Young of the university faculty was the speaker, weaving a fascinating history around Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland," the humor, imagination, and pathos, with psychology as its background proved to be novel. He used lantern slides with the lecture. During the social hour, Mrs. E. Judkins and Mrs. J. W. Soderstrom presided at the tea table, assisted by members of the alliance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Swan were hosts for an attractive dinner and bridge party at their home Wednesday evening. A centerpiece of roses was used at the table where covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Lackway, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parks, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Swan. Honors at bridge were received by Mr. Laraway and Mrs. Hollenbeck.

Miss Inez King returned at mid-week from Corvallis where she had been spending the past month as a vacation visiting at her home there.

Mrs. Sherwood Burr Hostess at Bridge Party Wednesday

Bouquets of huge red poppies made a very bright and colorful setting for a delightfully informal afternoon bridge party for which Mrs. Sherwood Burr was hostess at her home Wednesday. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Guy Pyle.

Mrs. Burr asked as her guests for this occasion, Mrs. M. C. Harris, Mrs. C. N. Johnston, Mrs. Vern Scooter, Mrs. G. Houghton, Mrs. Sherman Lovell of Astoria, Mrs. Price Spear, Mrs. F. E. By MARIAN LOWRY

ALL are college folk this week-end as townspeople and university students unite to celebrate the annual festivities of junior week-end. While the two-day program is supposedly for student life there's scarcely an event missed by Eugeneans, from the tug-of-war, to the campus luncheon, the many athletic meets to that greatest of all functions, the canoe fete, which is the traditional, long-remembered affair, that is so distinctly Oregon's.

And of course tonight there is the junior prom, that is looked forward to for months as the climax of the university's social year. It is to be given in the armory, and included in the list of patrons and partners for the evening are a large number of Eugene and out-of-town students.

Small luncheon parties made this week a lively one with several informal teas and afternoons of bridge coming occasionally to variate the monopoly that luncheon seem to have.

Several announced their plans this week for trips to eastern cities and places of interest abroad, while other news gathered for the week told of the coming of numerous out-of-town visitors.

Society is awaiting with interest the two parties for which Mrs. F. L. Stetson and Mrs. Harl Douglas are to entertain the coming week. Mrs. Harold Grady and Mrs. George McGill are to be hostesses for a luncheon Wednesday, and on Friday Oregon club girls are sponsoring a social in Alumni hall in compliment to their partners.

So, May rushes on, with scarcely one busy week past than another arrives.

At noon tomorrow Miss Eva Pease and William Duncworth are to be married at the home of the former. Rev. Allen Eason of the First Christian church of Albany officiating. Only members of the families of the couple will attend the event. Miss Pease has been honored with several affairs this spring preceding her wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fay returned the first of the week from Monmouth to where they had gone with Mr. and Mrs. Gage Christopher who visited at the Edly home the past week. Mr. Christopher gave a recital at the Normal school at Monmouth Monday. While there Mrs. Edly visited with a sister, Mrs. Fred W. O'Rourke.

Mrs. Lynn S. McCready was hostess for a delightful afternoon Tuesday entertaining with a luncheon at her home and a golf party later at the country club. Mrs. M. M. Tuft being the guest of honor for the afternoon. A large cluster of Spanish iris, delphinium, and columbine was the centerpiece at the attractive table where covers were laid for twelve, and bouquets of the flowers were used about the rooms. Miss Elma Hendricks and Mrs. Kenneth Ables assisted the hostess.

Miss Peggy Skene of Oregon City and Miss Hermine King of Portland are spending the week-end in Eugene as the guests of Miss S. L. Skene.

Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holden and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stevenson will be hosts for a party at the home of the former, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Morton M. Tuft.

Miss Frances Pierce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Pierce of this city, is to present her junior organ recital Tuesday evening in the music auditorium of the University of Oregon.

school of music, at eight o'clock. She will be assisted by Frank Jon, tenor. Miss Pierce is a Eugene girl, and is a talented pianist and organist. She has played for Eugene churches for several years, and is organist at the First Church of Christ, Scientist. She is also accompanist for the Eugene Oratorio society which recently presented the oratorio, "Creation." Miss Pierce is a junior in the University of Oregon, a member of Gamma Phi Beta, and a member of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's national music fraternity. Her recital is open to the public.

Canoe Fete Incentive For Dinner Party At Anchorage

The Anchorage tea-house was the scene for a congenial gathering of Eugene folk last evening when members of Tillamook club entertained their husbands at an informal host dinner party. The affair was especially planned that the party might see the canoe fete of the university junior week-end.

Those present for this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Wetherbee, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Fields, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tiffany, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman V. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kuykendall, Mrs. Myrtle Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stevenson.

The University of Oregon chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, women's national music fraternity, has issued five hundred invitations for a tea to be given Wednesday, May 27, in Alumni hall between the hours of three o'clock and six o'clock. The tea is being given for the benefit of the scholarship fund maintained by the organization for two worthy women in the university school of music. A program is to be given as follows: Miss Alma Lawrence, pianist, Nocturne, Op. 22, No. 1, Chopin; Badinage, Victor Herbert; Danes Du Delibes; Debussy; Spinning song, Mendelssohn; Lotus Land, Cyril Scott; Serenade D'Arlequin, Sganarelle, Edward Schmitt. Miss Nina Warnock, violinist-Varcantonne, Tenth-Kreisler; Schenck-Tantelle, Wieniawski; Prædilectum, Bach-Kreisler; Valse-Bloch; Drigo; And; Humoresque-Kœppling; Recensio, Schubert; Nocturne, Chopin; Saranate; Waltz, Chopin-Mozzelli. The scholarship will be granted in either piano, voice or violin, the award to be made in the form of a loan covering a year's study of one lesson a week and the faculty will operate with Mu Phi Epsilon by giving the scholarship holders a second lesson weekly gratis. By this method the organization hopes to assist two worthy students in continuing their work at the university. Girls who have received these scholarships are to be hostesses at the tea Wednesday is the last day applications for the scholarships will be accepted.

Mrs. M. S. Wallis was hostess for a lovely luncheon at her home Thursday afternoon, entertaining in honor of Mrs. A. B. Scott of Portland, and Mrs. Carrie Matlock of Pendleton. Bridge was played during the afternoon hours.

Miss S. E. Skene entertained with a delightful affair at her home Wednesday evening, presiding at five tables of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Scott planned to leave today for Portland to their home after spending the week in Eugene.

Mrs. George B. McGill Mrs. Harold Grady Give Luncheon

An interesting mid-week affair was the bridge luncheon given on Wednesday by Mrs. George B. McGill and Mrs. Harold Grady in the home of Mrs. Marton M. Tuft at the home of Mrs. McGill. Pink roses decorated the small tables used, while poppies flashed in contrast to the pink flowers about the rooms.

Guests bidden for the afternoon were Mrs. Tuft, Mrs. George B. McGill, Mrs. Frederick G. Sticks, Mrs. Albert Roomer, Mrs. Loy Rowling, Mrs. L. B. Sigwart, Mrs. A. B. Rapp, Mrs. Wilson H. Coffey, Mrs. Arthur Morris, Mrs. Kenneth Ables, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mrs. J. K. Pratt.

Mrs. O. F. Stafford and Mrs. O. E. Potter were hostesses for a very pretty dinner party at the home of the former Tuesday evening, honoring Mrs. Harold Grady in the home of Mrs. Marton M. Tuft. A large bouquet of columbine centered the table where covers were laid for Mrs. Ella Stearns, Miss Margaret Morrison, Miss Bernice Davies, Miss Georgia Shipley, Miss Aladine Scroggin, Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Stafford.

Mrs. C. L. Teshner left yesterday for various cities in the east where she will spend the summer. She will spend most of the time visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hermance McAnall, of Davenport, Iowa. Mrs. Teshner will also visit in Denver, Chicago, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin, coming back to Eugene early in the fall.
