TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS OREGON-O. A. C. OVER LAKE VILLAGES NECK AND NECK

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 23.—A tidal wave along 25 miles of the American shoreline struck Lake Ontario today, causing heavy damage to one village and summer resorts. No loss of life was reported.

The wave rolled in some places more than 150 feet inshore, carrying wreckage and small boats with it. At Bear Creek, a fishing village, the outgoing wave sucked the creek dry and carried with it the fleet of fishermen.

The wave followed several electrical storms last night and early today on Lake Ontario. Some thought the phenomenon might have been caused by an earth tremor in the lake bed. Summerville and Charlotte, coast guardmen, reported that the wave carried wreckage and small boats far inshore.

EARTH TREMOR FELT SODAS POINT, N. Y., May 23.—(By the Associated Press)—A tidal wave of unknown origin swept inshore from Lake Ontario today, damaging several cottages and bathhouses near the beach and adding between 15 and 20 feet of new soil to a sand bar at Crescent Beach.

Simultaneous with the wave, residents here believed they felt a slight earthquake.

The lake disturbance occurred between 7 and 7:20 o'clock this morning, according to bathhouse attendants but for more than an hour fluctuations of several feet in the height of the water were noted. At the time disturbance was most marked there was but a light breeze, precluding observers said, any possibility that the wave was swept in by heavy winds.

The force of the wave here was shown in the moving of a large cottage near the shore and extensive damage to several other cottages.

Co-operation of Farmers Assured

The cooperation of farmers along the road between Creswell and the Coast Fork was assured yesterday in the proposed widening of the present thoroughfare, were completed with little difficulty, it was announced.

The road improvements are contemplated with county bond money and are included in the supervisors' program for this summer. Later, a new bridge will be erected across the Coast Fork opposite Creswell, according to the supervisors, when funds are more available. Creswell residents are forced to use the bridge about a mile up stream from the present proposed bridge site.

SALMON HATCHERY PRODUCTION LARGE

An unusual sight awaits the visitor at the state salmon hatchery on Gate creek just off the McKenzie highway according to Orlo Hendershott of the Hendershott gun store.

There are five ponds literally alive with small salmon literally alive with small salmon hatched last Christmas reports Hendershott, who described each pond as being a "seething mass of healthy fish."

The water for the ponds is taken from Gate creek and run by gravity to them. A water-break was built on the creek to prevent driftwood from clogging the ponds.

Fifty thousand of the "fingerlings" as small trout and salmon are called, have been marked on the tail or fins and 150,000 more will be marked before they are released.

"The hatchery is only 50 miles from Eugene," said Hendershott, "and stands about 400 yards from the highway. It is worth anybody's time to go and inspect it and is just a nice afternoon's ride from Eugene."

Eugene Initiates Agency From Iowa

A parade through the business district, and special window displays, today announced the establishment of Eugene as the southern distribution point for the Automatic Electric Washer company of Newton, Iowa. The Wetherbee Powers furniture company will be local agent.

C. J. Reid of Newton, west states representative of the company, arrived from Portland with H. J. Holt, northwest sales manager and Cleve Preston, southern Oregon sales manager to conduct the initial opening sale of the machines.

Southern Oregon warehouse headquarters will be also made at Eugene, according to Mr. Reid, under the supervision of Mr. Preston, who will move his family to this city.

Horse Drawn Truck First Used by Local Fire Department

In 1907 a single horse-drawn chemical combination truck constituted the apparatus of the Eugene fire department. Today there are five big motor trucks, including two chemical combination, one triple combination pumper, one pumper and a city service truck, carrying a 40-gallon chemical tank and 27 feet of ladders. In thirty seconds the apparatus and men can be out in the street, and in three and a half minutes they can reach any part of the town except the Kincaid addition, which takes about five minutes to reach, providing they are not held up by traffic. Five university men sleep in the fire house at night, and with the seven men of the regular force, are available for night duty.

Previous to 1907 there was a volunteer force, and hose carts were located in various parts of the town.

The first gas truck was bought in 1913—a Knott truck, which with the horse-drawn apparatus and six paid men made up the force until 1915, when the horses were discarded, and the chemical apparatus was taken off the truck and installed on two Buicks. The next addition was made in 1920 when two Franco-American fire trucks were installed and one of the old Buicks was discarded. Last November the pumper and city service trucks were bought. The bonds for these are to be voted upon in June.

"No water has been used to put out a fire this year," said Chief Nussbaum. "Ninety-five per cent of all the fires are put out with chemicals."

Editorial

This ad is run as an experiment, to see if Saturday advertising will produce results.

I have always been prejudiced against the evening paper for Saturday advertising, but on other days the evening paper has always brought better results than the morning paper.

We are more than pleased with Guard advertising since opening this store, but this is our first Saturday ad, and if it "does the business" you'll find us in the Saturday paper hereafter.

We are willing to try it once, but we'll not be back on Saturdays unless this ad brings us an extra $500.00 in business, so if you want Stanley Specials for Monday and Tuesday, do your part and buy from this ad.

We are going the limit, and giving you prices that will not be repeated. If you want them come Monday or Tuesday.

Yours truly, GEO. C. STANLEY

P. S. A postscript and an editorial is a good deal for one ad, but I want you to understand this thing thoroughly. When I see this ad must bring $500.00 worth of business I mean it must increase the business done last Monday and Tuesday by that amount. That means you have got to buy liberally if you are going to give us business enough so we can make prices like the above. If you want sensational prices that take the windings from the other fellow we'll give them to you, but you've got to do your part.

Yours very truly, GEO. C. STANLEY
