

BERRY PRICES HIGH IN PORTLAND MART

PORTLAND, Ore., May 25.—The usual heavy Monday receipts came in the early berry market, but prices were high because the berry stock selling up to $2.50 a crate. The bulk of the fruit went at $3.00 to $3.25 a crate with some small berries selling at $2.50 and $2.75.

With the strawberry harvest now in full swing, it looks like good prices will rule through the season. Growers and jobbers are busy with operations and this week and growers are more or less independent of buyers on the early market.

Home canning will also start the latter part of this week, although the amount of fruit put up this year will be curbed to some extent by the high prices.

The crop is large in spite of the early fall, due to the increased acreage, and the quality of the fruit is excellent this year.
