

'TOY-MAKER' TO BE GIVEN BY E. H. S.

One of the outstanding theatrical events of the year for Eugene is the annual high school play, and this year an exceptionally good vehicle has been chosen for presentation at the Heilig Thursday, May 28. The Toy-Maker, dealing as it does with toys and dolls, yet intensely human in its appeal, is declared an ideal play for people of high school age. In fact, some critics claim that no one out of his or her teens should be allowed a part, because an adult may not easily lose the proper perspective.

The Toy-maker is the best loved man in Nuremberg. His son, David, loves Heeta, the daughter of the mayor, the toy-maker's employer. The love-affair suit is opposed by the girl's father so an agreement is planned by the sergeant and the poet, which is frustrated by the mayor who discharges the toy-maker. The arrival of the stranger provides means for a happy end.

DOZEN TO ATTEND O. A. C. CLUB MEET

More than a dozen boys and girls from the various clubs of Lane county, will make the trip to Corvallis for the club workers' summer school session, it is indicated by inquiries, reports the county club leader. The session will start June 15 and end June 27. The course is open to any club leader who wants to attend.

All prize winners at the Oregon state fair last year, have earned their trips and will have all expenses paid, and the estimated cost to other young folks will be $15 for room and board for the two weeks.

Girls are asked to bring all necessary toilet articles, enough clothing for two weeks including cotton dresses suitable for school wear, a party dress, heavy coat for cool days and evenings and any of the following, if they wish: Swimming suit, bloomers and shoes for gymnasium, and tennis racquet. They should also bring all bedding they will need, blankets or sheets, combs and pillows. Beds and mattresses are furnished.

Boys will bring toilet articles, a pair of overalls or coveralls, regular clothes for other class work, and swimming suit, baseball gloves, tennis racquet and shoes. They also should bring bedding.

Dr. Bartle Elected Head of Lions Club

Dr. P. J. Bartle was today elected president of the Lions club of this city at the annual election of the organization. J. H. McKinley was elected secretary, and Dr. E. V. Stivers, C. R. McKee, and Dr. John Hesse were chosen board of directors for the coming year.

The coming convention at Longview was discussed at the meeting, and several members are planning to attend the district meetings there. Several delegates will be sent, it is announced, and the convention is expected to be one of the best ever held in the northwest.

Assault is Charge Against Father, son

A double fracas is alleged to have taken place yesterday at the G. C. Moir garage, 342 Olive street, and as a result J. S. Stuchens swore out a complaint against A. L. Terrill, charging him with disorderly conduct, and G. C. Moir swore out a similar complaint against Glen Terrill. The two men were arraigned before Judge George A. Gilmore, of the local police court, and pleaded not guilty. They will be tried tomorrow at 1:30.

The two defendants, A. L. Terrill and his son Glen, entered the garage and assaulted Moir and Stephens with their fists, the complaint alleges.

Teacher Exams to Be Given June 10

Semi-annual teachers' examinations will be held in the county court room in Eugene beginning Wednesday, June 10, at 9 o'clock, and lasting the remainder of the week, it was announced today at the county school superintendent's office.

Teachers desiring schedules showing the time when each subject will be given can have them by applying to the superintendent.

Dates have also been set for the uniform eighth grade examinations in districts where pupils have completed requirements and who have applied for questions. These will be held Thursday and Friday, June 11 and 12.

This examination, it is stated, is especially given for pupils who were conditioned in the many examinations to work off conditioned subjects. Questions for conditioned pupils will be sent, without application, to the chairman of the district.

CHURCH MAY SPLIT OVER FAITH POLICY

It concerned entirely the licensing of Henry P. VanDusen, New York, who did not either affirm or deny acceptance of the theory of the virgin birth.

Eight points are listed and the principal contention is that under the church law the Presbytery itself is the only judge of the qualification of a minister.

The holding of the commission, which became the judgment of the assembly by its adoption, violates the confession of faith itself, the protest asserts.

Signers of the protest included Commissioners from many sections of the country. Represented were Presbyteries and synods in New Jersey, Montana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, St. Louis, Ohio and Iowa.

The following chapter of the confession was quoted in substantiation: "The requiring of an implicit faith and an absolute and blind obedience is to destroy liberty and conscience and reason also."

"By requiring such absolute conformity," the protest said, "it restores those Roman Catholic theories of ecclesiastical authority which it was the very purpose of Presbyterian protestantism to overthrow."

Four Auto Crashes Reported in day

Two Fords collided this morning at Thirteenth avenue east and High street. A car driven by John McGunn, 1090 Third avenue west, struck the Ford coupe belonging to B. D. Dorson, of the First National bank, and tipped it over on the curbing. No blame was fixed for the accident. A passenger in Dorson's car was slightly injured. It was stated.

P. W. Buckman, 2211 Alder street collided this morning with a truck of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association, this morning, and a feeder on each was damaged.

Clem Cummings, of motor route A, reported that his car was in an accident on the Pacific highway north of the city.

Mrs. Pearl Headley, 245 Sixth avenue east reported an accident on Seventh avenue west, between Madison and Jefferson streets.

AIR STUNTS WILL FEATURE TOURNEY

Tickets sold in Eugene to the annual military tournament of Oregon Agricultural college May 30 indicate this city will have the biggest representation of any town outside of Corvallis in the Willamette valley declared Captain T. C. McCormack of Corvallis, who was in the city today making arrangements for the ticket sale here.

"Because of so much interest in Eugene in airplane stunts, the ticket sale has jumped here," said Captain McCormack. "We have been threatened with an injunction to prevent us from allowing a man to make the spectacular parachute jump from an airplane at a height of 5000 feet."

"This is the same feat successfully performed by two army sergeants at Dayton, Ohio, recently. Our performance will fall 1000 feet before opening his parachute. Lieutenant Oakley G. Kelley, well known to Eugene people, will be in charge of nine army planes. In addition to the parachute jump the aerial squadron will put on a stunt flying exhibition. A smoke screen will be dropped from the air and an exhibition of bombing given."

The serpentine dance originated and performed by Baron Riechthofen, famous German aviator, and his flying circus while flying on the western front and behind allied lines will be duplicated by Lieutenant Kelley and his squadron, according to Captain McCormack.

'The Last Laugh' Most Unusual of Films, at McDonald

By E. D. Y.

It takes a daring young theater manager to book a picture like "The Last Laugh." The picture is flawless, it is a marvelous presentation of a human heart-torn soul—but there is no half-way mark—people must like it or hate it. Should they hate it the first day, the picture would die—should they like it, it would be acclaimed the greatest theme and drama to date ever presented.

Did Eugene like it the first day? Well, the McDonald theater was packed last night, the second night of showing.

Emil Janning is the picture. It is his mind that is at work, it is his train of thought that is presented. No subtitles are used, none are needed. The action is so vividly carried out, every flicker of light is so carefully timed, that one is caught in a strange gripping spell.

The picture is the keenest psychological study ever presented.

Only one picture ever made can compare it—"The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari"—a much too little appreciated masterpiece. Such pictures die—not only depict striking visualizations—they are the very thoughts of one seeing them. To those unable to orient themselves the picture is unspeakable boredom—to those who come under its spell it is marvelous.

Eugene is fortunate in having this masterpiece for three days, for it is truly a history-making film. Many, many will not like it, but others will remember as long as they live.

The theme is a terrible warning to all who are getting along the road of life—to those who feel secure—to those who are blinding themselves to the rush of time. The ending of the picture is perhaps unfortunate, for few who grow old in the harness have a bag of gold flung at them.

"The Last Laugh" is without doubt the greatest picture made to date.

LEGION PLANS BIG SESSION TOMORROW

One of the most important meetings of the year is scheduled for the American legion tomorrow night at the chamber of commerce, it is announced. The new commander, William Page, who was recently elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Kenneth Able, will be officially installed, and will take charge of the legion affairs.

The biggest order of business will be the election of six delegates and six alternates to the state legion convention, to be held at Prineville June 25, 26 and 27. A large number of Eugene members are expected to attend the sessions, in addition to the regular delegates, it is said.

The legion endorsement drive will also be discussed, and a part of the session will be a "pop" meeting to rouse interest in the drive on this week. Reports on the progress of the work will be given at this time also.

The complete program for memorial day will also be worked out, states George Love, in charge of memorial day arrangements, and the part the legion will play in the ceremonies will be designated. The plans are practically completed, and a whole-hearted response has been found for the affair May 30.

The business session will be followed by a supper, during which an auction of all merchandise left over from the "Night in Paris" event, will be auctioned off. Several rare bargains await purchasers, it is said, and a neat sum is expected to be realized from the sale.

Coming 45 Miles For Club Session

Mrs. Winnie Wagner, who for four years has been a leader in boys' and girls' club work, will come 45 miles to Eugene Friday to attend the meeting of the Lane County Local Club Leaders' association at Santa Clara, it is announced by Arnold D. Collier, county club leader.

Mrs. Wagner has been leading a sewing and home-making club at Do-rena, and probably will be the person from the farthest distant point to attend the session.

DIPLOMAT SUSPENDED
 BURLIN, May 27.—(AP)—Diplomat Albert Elbert has been suspended from his post as attaché to the consulate general at Milan, Italy, pending disciplinary proceedings. It is stated that while a guest at an Italian hotel on May 13, he wrote on the pavement "In your comfortable hotel we have made president of Germany."

Editorial

Advertising in the Saturday Guard brings results.

That Dollar Day ad brought hundreds to the store, and from as far as Cottage Grove.

We will continue using the Saturday paper for Monday specials.

Our sales Monday were $905.51, and Tuesday's sales were $937.55.

We gained over each day of last week a total of $296.73.

For the two days last week we used 89 inches of advertising, and for the same days this week we used 92 inches, and we must give the Saturday paper credit for the greater portion of the increased business.

Just continue reading our ads in The Guard and we will surely reduce your living costs.

Yours truly,
 GEO. C. STANLEY.
