Mr. Shanbough is working toward his bachelor's degree.

R. O. T. C. to Cease—All work in the university R. O. T. C. department will terminate with the graduation parade on Thursday afternoon. Such examinations as are being given will be completed by that time and no plans have been made for the participation of the R. O. T. C. unit in Memorial day exercises. Advanced students in the department, and band men will be required to turn in all equipment on Friday and Saturday, May 29 and 30, according to Captain Frank L. Collin, executive officer of the department.

Lease Extended—Dean Earl Kilpatrick, head of the university extension division and now on leave of absence to carry on reconstruction work for the Red Cross in the tornado stricken section of the Mississippi valley, has had his leave extended that he may continue his work. It is under the southwest division of the Red Cross with headquarters in St. Louis that Dean Kilpatrick is working. Recent communications from him show that he has been working out of Murphysboro, Ill.

Company Gets Record—The headquarters company of the local national guard maintained the highest average in the entire north-west area in point of attendance. It is announced by Lieutenant J. C. Koop, company commander. The company has an average of 94.8 per cent for the first three months of this year. The state of Oregon also lead all states in this area, with an average of 76.5.

Ashland is Debate Champion—The Ashland high school debating team won the state championship last night by defeating the Milton-Freewater team in the final state match at Villard Hall. The winners debated the negative of the question, "Resolved, that the referendum is a desirable feature of representative government." Bernard Joy and Marion Leach debated for Ashland, and Roy Herndon and Chester Babecek represented the losers.

Radio Demonstration Planned—A demonstration of various phases of radio will be given at the next meeting of the Eugene branch of the Pacific Northwest Radio Trades association. It was announced following the meeting last night. The association also states that it will welcome any word of trouble with radio sets, and will give assistance whenever desired to operators.

Picnic Planned—The patrons of the Parent-Teacher association of Patterson school are to give a picnic, honoring the teachers of the school, Thursday at Hendricks park. Those without cars will leave from the school at 5:30 o'clock. Every child is to be accompanied by its parents, and all are asked to bring well filled baskets, and ice cream and coffee will be furnished at the picnic.

Divorce Suits Filed—Four suits for divorce were filed with the circuit court yesterday. Betty M. Claridge seeks a divorce from Victor Claridge; Samuel Mc-show results achieved by my students and prove my method is right!

The method of teaching concertos, the recognized greatest compositions written for the violin, to beginners, which has been followed by the Pacific Conservatory of Music is a method also followed by Louis Spohr.

In his first book—The American Revised Edition Concertos are a part of the instructions in the first year's work. Alberto Bachmann's interpretation of such concertos as Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Tchaikovsky and Paganini have been endorsed by Eugene Ysaie considered the greatest living violinist.

This fact alone bears out the method followed by the Pacific Conservatory and we have proven time and time again by the actual performance of many of our students that concertos can be successfully mastered by students in the first year's work.
