Darrow, against whom there was said to have been some hesitancy expressed at accepting his services for defense because of his alleged unchristian views, countered in this fashion: "I am not an infidel. I am not an atheist. When it comes to the position of knowing whether there is a God, I am ignorant. I don't know. I suppose an atheist is one who be-

Club Leaders to Attend Conference

Invitations have gone out to local boys' and girls' club leaders of Lane county to attend the annual training school this year at Oregon Agricultural college, announced Arnold D. Culler, county club leader. The invitations were issued by H. C. Seymour, state club leader. During the first week of the course there will be two hours devoted to local leaders' training. The second week, through cooperation of Mrs. Jessie McComb state home demonstration leader, a club program will be given for the women and which will be of interest to all local leaders in attendance. In case the leader may not be able to come for the full time, attendance for one or more days would prove valuable, says Mr. Seymour.
