

CITY NEWS

(Continued from page one)

had were week-end guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. David Link. Mrs. Minnie C. Carter of Albany and sister of Mrs. Link also spent the week-end at the Link home.

Drill Period Stated—To prepare for the annual national camp which will be held at Medford this month an extra drill period will be started for the three local companies, according to announcement today. Tomorrow evening at the drill period packs and other equipment will be issued to the men and the officers are calling for a full attendance in order to have everything in readiness to pull out for the south on the special train leaving here Saturday evening June 11 at 10:45 o'clock.

McKenzie Fish Biting—The fish were biting on the McKenzie over the week-end, and J. S. Durrell and George W. Bates, of Portland, declare their annual outing a huge success. Both Saturday and Sunday were spent on the river in company with Ike Newman, local sportsman. Saturday was a day of "big ones," they say, and one struggling rainbow measured 19 inches from stem to stern. No big boys were landed yesterday, but the medium sized trout were plentiful. It is reported.

Leave for Florida—Mr. and Mrs. Wesley L. Matlock of Goshen, and Lee Matlock, their son, are leaving this week by automobile for a trans-continental trip to Miami, Florida, where they have ranch property. Their property is a bequest, it is stated, and was originally in the everglades. It has since been reclaimed.

Plans 25 Houses—Plans to construct a bungalow court of 25 houses on a tract of 25 lots in the northwest part of Eugene are being made by William Kereker, contractor, according to A. J. Micky of the Berger realty company. The property is located at Grand and Polk streets, north of the Southern Pacific tracks.

Grades Being Listed—The grades of the several hundred children who took the eighth grade examinations recently are being listed and the cards sent out to the pupils, according to Arnold Collier, assistant county superintendent of schools. It is expected that the last of the cards will probably be completed for mailing this evening, Mr. Collier states.

Radio Talk Planned—A radio talk by L. J. Allen, assistant state club leader, will be held tomorrow evening from station KGW of the Oregonian at Portland, according to announcement today of Arnold Collier, Lane county club leader. All boys and girls clubs of the county are invited to tune in on the Portland station to hear the talk on club work.

Liquor Possessor Jailed—John Korpke who was arrested in an intoxicated condition here last week and charged with the transportation of liquor was fined $20 and given 30 days in jail when he appeared for a hearing this morning before Judge Harold J. Wells in justice court.

Bridge Work Progresses—Material for the erection of the new Shurtzberg span to be built by the county crews near London is being moved to the scene of operations, according to Clinton Hurd, county commissioner. Work on the building of the bridge will soon be under way, it is reported.

Released From Jail—William Briggs, who has completed serving a 60-day sentence on a liquor charge has paid his fine of $100 and has been released. Ole Elber has completed serving 30 days and paid his fine of $300 and has been released. This was also a liquor charge.

Stock to Be Shipped—A variety of sheep and hogs will be shipped to the North Portland stock yards for sale by the Lane County Cooperative Shipping association tomorrow, according to announcement today of W. A. Ayres, secretary. The shipment will be in charge of J. H. Foster.

Marriage Licenses Issued—The first day of June started off with two marriage licenses up to late this afternoon. The licenses were for Peter C. Tofthol and Virgie M. Gray, both of Eugene City, and William R. Abbey of Eugene and Blanche L. Powell of Wendling.

Road Work Progresses—Charles Cold, road patrolman in Southern Lane county was a visitor here today and reports that the improvement of the route along the Stillaw from Wildcat creek is progressing and that in about two weeks it will be ready for traffic.

Here From Mapleton—W. W. Austin, principal of the school at Mapleton, accompanied by his son Virgil was here today, the school at Mapleton having been closed for the year last Friday. Mr. Austin will spend the vacation period staying in western Oregon counties.

Visits at Albany—Mr. W. E. Parrish, clerk at Oregon Electric railway, has gone to Albany to transact business. Mr. Parrish was formerly with the Oregon Electric at Albany but moved to Eugene for the convenience of his family attending the university.

Goes to Corvallis—Raymond Howell has gone on a few day's vacation to Corvallis where he attended the military tournament. Mr. Howell is warehouse foreman at the Oregon Electric railway. He is also planning on an extended eastern tour this summer.

Committees To Be Named—Two more rednet control committees are to be named by the county. J. A. Herbert and Ed Young, both of Route 3, Junction City, will probably be appointed today, according to members of the county board.

Headquarters For Official Boy Scout Uniforms and Equipment For Lane County Complete stocks now ready.

McMorrans & Washburne Store FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

Eugene's Largest and Finest Showing of Trunks, Bags, Suitcases, Overnight Cases, Hat Boxes, Etc. Exclusive Eugene agents for "Indestructo" luggage

346 Men's and Young Men's Suits in a Mighty Stock-Reducing Sale!

Men's clothing and furnishing section open every morning at 8 o'clock

McMorrans & Washburne Store FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

Be sure to see the Special Window Displays of these Suits at $28

$28

Every suit in this entire lot taken from the Regular M. & W. stocks

346 Suits Tremendously Valued—and the Reason

When we say 346 suits tremendously valued at $28 you ought to be interested. Briefly: they haven't sold to our expectations. Thousands of dollars invested in this department which is not keeping up with our turnover pace so we MUST reduce these immense clothing stocks immediately! The time is right—the clothing is right—the price is right! 364 suits at $28! They'll be the talk of the town!

No Baits--No Strings of Any Kind Attached to This Sale. See These Extra Worth While Attractions in Our Windows-- Judge for Yourself if There Has Been Anything Like Them in the Last Few Years for $28.

Included in this wonderful sale are

Kuppenheimer, Frat and Styleplus Clothes Positive $35, $40 and $45 Values

Single and double breasted models—English, Semi-English and Conservative Styles

A remarkably fine choice of woollens such as: TWEEDS, HARD AND SOFT FINISHED WORSTEDS CASSIMERES HERRINGBONES SERGES

A satisfying choice in every size and color: GREYS TANS FAWN POWDER BLUE BROWN NAVY

REMARKABLY OVER VALUED AND UNDERPRICED AT $28

PLEASE NOTE: On account of the extremely low sale price of these suits, a small charge must be made for alterations.

home of Mrs. Ward, it was announced today.

Judge at Portlano—Judge G. F. Skippworth of the Lane county circuit court has left for Portland where he will hear cases in the Multnomah county court for a few days. Judge Tucker of Multnomah county is here to hear cases this week.

Return to Michigan—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kibby of Detroit, Mich., who have been visiting Mr. Kibby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kibby, 921 Eleventh avenue west, for the last two weeks, have returned to their home in Detroit.

Drunk; Fined $25—W. P. Whitten, arrested by night officers Saturday on a charge of drunkenness, pleaded guilty this morning before Judge George A. Gilmore in municipal court. He received a fine of $25, which he paid.

Here for Vacation—Miss Daisy Gaudin of Portland is visiting at her home in Eugene on a brief vacation. Miss Agnes Helander and Miss Gladys Willis, recently of Washington, D. C., accompanied Miss Gaudin to Eugene for the week-end.

Ray Rice Arrested—Charged with vagrancy, Ray Rice was arrested Saturday night and given lodging over the week-end in the city jail. He was charged with going from house to house, asking for food.

Returns to Portland—Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Day, Miss Grace Hunter and Alf Walker returned Sunday from a hunting trip up the south fork of the McKenzie river.

Here from North Dakota—Herbert McLean of Petersburg, N. D., is a visitor here at the home of his sister, Mrs. G. M. Sprague.

Oil Leases Filled—R. A. Wallis today filed four oil leases on Lane county property at the office of the county clerk.

Visits in Corvallis—Edward L. Kimball spent Saturday with friends in Corvallis.

Tax Ruling Made—WASHINGTON, June 1.—States cannot validly collect interest taxes upon gross estates, but entirely located within their borders, the supreme court ruled today.

Ashtland, Ore., spent the week-end with Mrs. Stevens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rich, 1533 Agate street, Eugene, Ore.

Goes to Portland—Charles M. Emery, president of the Lane County O. A. C. club, spent Saturday in Corvallis, where he attended the annual military tournament.

Bounty Is Collected—J. W. Fountain of Waterville collected the county bounty on a coyote at the office of the county clerk today.

Home Is Sold—John W. Byrnes has sold his home at 1161 Jefferson street to T. M. Erickson who has operated a farm north of Eugene.

Here for Trial—Lewis Kietzing, of the Oregon Law Enforcement league, is here as a witness in the Edmondson trial which was started today in circuit court.

Here from Vancouver—Miss Hanna Lee of Vancouver, Wash., was a guest at the home of Mrs. C. K. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Little Gillstrap, over the week-end.

Here from California—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chubbie and daughter, Miss Edith, of Escudido, Cal., are visiting at the home of S. W. Johnson on south Willamette street.

Returns from Hunt—Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Day, Miss Grace Hunter and Alf Walker returned Sunday from a hunting trip up the south fork of the McKenzie river.

Here from North Dakota—Herbert McLean of Petersburg, N. D., is a visitor here at the home of his sister, Mrs. G. M. Sprague.

Oil Leases Filled—R. A. Wallis today filed four oil leases on Lane county property at the office of the county clerk.

Visits in Corvallis—Edward L. Kimball spent Saturday with friends in Corvallis.

STILL OPERATOR IS TAKEN WITH PLANT

Charged with possession of a still and mash and also a small amount of beer, Derius Koch, 22, was arrested Sunday morning near his alleged still plant at North by Sheriff Frank E. Taylor and Van Svarverud, chief deputy. The still was watched for some time by the county officers before the owner made an appearance. A small amount of first run liquor was found as it is reported by the county officials that Koch had just sold his product made recently.

Man Confined for Highway Damages

On a charge of driving a tractor over the Pacific highway without

A CHILD IN PAIN runs to Mother for relief. So do the grown-ups. Mothers, just a few drops of CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY is a little sweetened water instantly relieves pain in the stomach and bowels, cramp, colic, weakening diarrhoea and those stomach aches and pains so inseparable from the years of childhood. Keep it always in your home.

5% FARM LOANS PAY UP TO 10 YEARS. FEDERAL COMMISSION INSURANCE PRIVILEGE. COMMERCIAL MORTGAGE SECURITIES CO. PORTLAND. F. J. BERGER 18 5th Ave. West

Chamber Enrolls Twenty Members

Twenty new members will be enrolled in the Eugene chamber of commerce at the monthly meeting of the board of directors scheduled for this week, according to announcement today of E. Eugene Chadwick, secretary. Other matters of business will also be taken up by the board, it is announced. The following are the new members signed up during the past month by the weekly membership committee: Chester M. Lawrence, Geo. H. Mul-

MR. SABIN NAMED

SALJEM, Ore., June 1.—Governor Pierce today reappointed R. L. Sabin of Portland as a member of the Multnomah county tax supervising and conservation commission.

FACTORY GIRL ONE OF THE 98

Will Answer Letters from Women asking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lititz, Pa. — "I was very nervous and suffered for a long time with pains in my back and side. I was employed in a factory and for about three months I did not work at all. There were two women who told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I didn't believe what they told me at first, but at last I tried it. It has taken my pains away and my nervousness. I am glad to say that I am one of the 98 out of 100 that it has helped. I recommend it when I can, as I know it is good for women's troubles. I will answer any letter that any woman writes to me. I know the Vegetable Compound has helped me and hope it will help others." — Mrs. CHARLES R. SHUR, R. F. D. 2, Lititz, Pa.

Two Fined $25

Paul Drum, an employe of the city, was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness by night police. This morning he appeared in city court, pleaded guilty to the charge, and was fined $25 by Judge George A. Gilmore. Glenn Stevens also admitted a similar offense and was fined $25.

FEDERATION TO MEET

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 1.—Marshfield is today humming with preparations for the hundreds of delegates and visitors to the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Oregon federation of women's clubs which opens tonight with a reception and continues until Thursday night.

Chamber Enrolls Twenty Members

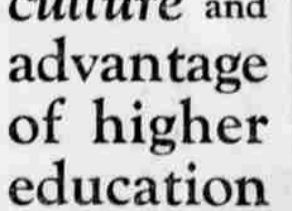

Twenty new members will be enrolled in the Eugene chamber of commerce at the monthly meeting of the board of directors scheduled for this week, according to announcement today of E. Eugene Chadwick, secretary. Other matters of business will also be taken up by the board, it is announced. The following are the new members signed up during the past month by the weekly membership committee: Chester M. Lawrence, Geo. H. Mul-

MR. SABIN NAMED

SALJEM, Ore., June 1.—Governor Pierce today reappointed R. L. Sabin of Portland as a member of the Multnomah county tax supervising and conservation commission.

FACTORY GIRL ONE OF THE 98

Will Answer Letters from Women asking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Two Fined $25

Paul Drum, an employe of the city, was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness by night police. This morning he appeared in city court, pleaded guilty to the charge, and was fined $25 by Judge George A. Gilmore. Glenn Stevens also admitted a similar offense and was fined $25.

FEDERATION TO MEET

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 1.—Marshfield is today humming with preparations for the hundreds of delegates and visitors to the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Oregon federation of women's clubs which opens tonight with a reception and continues until Thursday night.

Chamber Enrolls Twenty Members

Twenty new members will be enrolled in the Eugene chamber of commerce at the monthly meeting of the board of directors scheduled for this week, according to announcement today of E. Eugene Chadwick, secretary. Other matters of business will also be taken up by the board, it is announced. The following are the new members signed up during the past month by the weekly membership committee: Chester M. Lawrence, Geo. H. Mul-

MR. SABIN NAMED

SALJEM, Ore., June 1.—Governor Pierce today reappointed R. L. Sabin of Portland as a member of the Multnomah county tax supervising and conservation commission.

FACTORY GIRL ONE OF THE 98

Will Answer Letters from Women asking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Two Fined $25

Paul Drum, an employe of the city, was arrested Saturday night on a charge of drunkenness by night police. This morning he appeared in city court, pleaded guilty to the charge, and was fined $25 by Judge George A. Gilmore. Glenn Stevens also admitted a similar offense and was fined $25.

FEDERATION TO MEET

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 1.—Marshfield is today humming with preparations for the hundreds of delegates and visitors to the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Oregon federation of women's clubs which opens tonight with a reception and continues until Thursday night.

Chamber Enrolls Twenty Members

Twenty new members will be enrolled in the Eugene chamber of commerce at the monthly meeting of the board of directors scheduled for this week, according to announcement today of E. Eugene Chadwick, secretary. Other matters of business will also be taken up by the board, it is announced. The following are the new members signed up during the past month by the weekly membership committee: Chester M. Lawrence, Geo. H. Mul-

MR. SABIN NAMED

SALJEM, Ore., June 1.—Governor Pierce today reappointed R. L. Sabin of Portland as a member of the Multnomah county tax supervising and conservation commission.

FACTORY GIRL ONE OF THE 98

Will Answer Letters from Women asking about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Will she have the culture and advantage of higher education Put Winter Things Away Clean There can be no better investment in conservation than high quality dry cleaning of everything you'll be putting away soon till the next season of cold weather. What a satisfaction it will be to realize that the hazard of moths is lessened, that everything is as sanitary as science can make it. Telephone 220 when you are ready OregonLife City Cleaners W. E. NAYLOR, Proprietor If We Clean It, It's CLEAN