OLD POTATOES ARE BECOMING SCARCE

Less Than Two Weeks Supply on Hand in Portland Storage

PORTLAND, Ore., June 2.—Last season's potatoes are becoming scarce. In Portland approximately ten cars of Oregon grown and twenty-five to thirty cars of Yakima valley products are in storage. This is less than two weeks supply for this city. Oregon potatoes are out of growers' hands and are under command of speculators.

The potato market is very firm. Yakima potatoes are selling at $3 to $3.25 a hundred f. o. b. Portland to wholesalers. In the past two weeks 20 cars of Minnesota and Wisconsin potatoes have been received in Portland by local dealers. Arrival of these eastern potatoes have kept the local market from advancing 50c to $1 the past week.

Apparently strawberries reached the peak of supply yesterday. One means of clearing the glut in the Portland market was the forwarding of a carload to Montana points. Commencing Wednesday berries will show strength and declining supplies, producers and wholesalers declare.

Today berries are around 50c a case higher than yesterday. Prices now range from $1.75 to $2.25 a case. Demand locally is expected to continue heavy through the next few days.

INVESTORS! LISTEN TO THIS!
I have 986 acres just 1 mile east of Pleasant Hill high school, and 14 miles from Eugene. There is ten to twelve million feet of 2nd growth fir timber, and many thousands of cords of old growth fir wood. At present there is one sawmill cutting on the place that is turning in from $100 to $150 per month. There will be two or three more cutting before the summer is over. Also am selling considerable wood stumpage and having some wood cut to sell. This land is worth $10 per acre for grazing purposes after timber is off. Several springs on the place furnish plenty water. I need to raise some money and will sell for $15,000. I will take half the value in clear property.

ATTENTION! BUILDERS OF HOMES!
It is easy today to sell small improved close in acreage. But there is practically none for sale at reasonable prices. I have the largest body of improved acreage near Eugene. I can sell you tracts from 5 to 50 acres on good roads. Electric lights available and only 3-4 mile of city limits for $300 per acre and up. I can give good terms, procure your building loans, and when you want to sell them, get you larger down payments than you are getting on your city property. Be the first in the field; there will be hundreds of new people wanting homes from 1 to 5 acres this summer. Help fill their demands.
