

CITY NEWS

(Continued from page one)

Inspection of state traffic officers who are in charge of district number 1, comprising Lane, Marion, Polk, Linn, Washington and Lincoln counties is here. They are to look over the field in Lane, Oregon, to see if traffic officers on the state force, has been assigned to the Lane county district for duty and to make his headquarters in Eugene.

Severest Flanery states. A. E. Shortis, formerly traffic officer in the city of Eugene and now on the state force, has started duty in Lane county with headquarters at Grants Pass.

Work Moving Rapidly—Construction work on the new bank of the Bank of Commerce at the site of the former Castle theater is progressing rapidly, although the work is obscured from Willamette street by scaffolding in front. The concrete to the building has been completely remodeled, the lower part being built in pressed brick, with columns of terra cotta, and terra cotta ornaments. The exterior of the building is nearly finished, with the exception of installing the plate glass windows, and work will go ahead immediately towards finishing up the interior. Concrete blocks, laid the entire length of the building, provide an entirely new foundation, and a large roomy concrete room in the rear is a fireproof vault.

Property Sales Reported—W. H. Oswald of Los Angeles has purchased the 10-acre tract of land in College Crest owned by J. Henderson, it is announced by L. E. Hodges, local realtor. Other deals reported are as follows: Theodore G. Nelson has bought the property of Roy Swenson, also in College Crest, and has purchased it. Clark B. Huston has purchased the property of T. A. Hurd at Twenty-second and University street, and expects to build soon. E. M. Cox has contracted to buy the George M. Jettensbacher's place at 501 Clark street. Sherman Young, Nineteenth and Grand, has sold his place to F. F. Knight who will take possession some time next month.

Mountain Climbs Planned—A mountain climb of the Middle Sister is planned by 16 local boys and four leaders, starting today under direction of E. E. Holdeman, "Y" physical education director. Those making the trip are Ralph Hallin, Roy Rubenstein, Clifford Horner, John Newman, Gordon Goodness, John Eberhart, Gilbert Sprague, Mike Marlette, George Todd, Dick Jones, Alon Griggs, George Platt and David Lare, Glenn Bessonette, Delbert Addison and Claude Carter. The party left at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Cue Artists Compete—Claude Schmeier in high point man in the straight rail billiard tourney being conducted by W. R. (Oaks) Wallace this week, with a run of 27 points, and in three-cushion billiards with a run of six. Ivan Wheeler and A. Cooley are tied in straight pool with a run of 41, while M. Canfield is high point man in snooker with a score of 100. Mr. Canfield made 212 in the grand opening snooker contest last week. Prizes for the winners are being offered by Mr. Wallace.

Animal Blocks Traffic—A remarkably small black animal, said to be a cross between an Australian bear and a Belgian dog, blocked traffic on Eleventh avenue this morning when its owner, Harry Garland, was taking it for a stroll. The little animal will appear on the Helix parade program this evening. "It sits like a bear, but barks like a dog," Mr. Garland says. "Really, it is the queerest little animal I ever saw." Those who viewed the actions of the little "Rieskie" agreed with him.

Florence Building Burned—Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Brynd building at Florence Monday night, doing damage estimated at $2000. Firemen did good work in saving adjoining frame building, it is stated. The Brynd structure housed the Brynd confectionery downstairs, and the dental office of Dr. William Tatum and two apartments on the upper floor. Nothing was saved from the upper floor.

Donna Man Dies—Mrs. W. Davis, 63, died at her home near Donna last night. Besides his widow, Mrs. Emma Davis, he leaves a daughter, Arleza, and a sister, Mrs. Z. P. Stradtmeyer of Eugene. He has lived on the farm where he died for the last 40 years. Veitch chapel is making funeral arrangements.

Appeal Time Extended—An order from Judge J. C. Kendall was filed today in circuit court here extending the time for the filing of the bill of exceptions by Carl Leaska recently convicted here. The time has been extended to July 13 on the appeal that is being made to the supreme court by Manning and Harvey and D. E. Long, Portland attorneys, representing Leaska.

Leaving for Portland—Capt. and Mrs. Lamar Boese and children Virginia and Lamar Jr., are leaving for Portland tomorrow to make their home. Capt. Boese will practice law in Portland commencing in September. During the summer he will be on active duty at the Citizens' Military Training camp and Reserve Officers' camp.

Funeral Plans Made—Funeral services for the late George R. Gilmore were to be held this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Veitch chapel, it is announced. Rev. E. Dunham, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be in charge of the services, and interment will be in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Forest Plans Made—C. R. Lockard, junior forester of the Cascade national forest, is working with F. H. Cleator, recreation engineer of the district forest office, in making up the proposed recreation map of resources in the McKenzie district.

Railroad Men Here—A. W. Shoemaker, commercial agent for the Missouri Pacific railroad, was a business visitor in Eugene today at the district office of the Southern Pacific railroad.

Former Student Here—J. K. Robinson, graduate of the University of Oregon with the class of 1916, is here on a business visit from his home at Portland where he is in the insurance business.

Dr. Simons Leaves—Dr. John Simons, of 404 McMoran and Washburne building, left yesterday for Lewiston, Wash., where he will attend a bi-state convention of osteopathic practitioners for Oregon and Washington. Dr. Simons intends to return home next Sunday.

New Firm Formed—The Battle Creek Lumber company of Crow filed articles of incorporation in the county clerk's office yesterday, with a capital stock of $12000. Incorporators are Perry A. Main, Max Main, Aida Carpenter and George Carpenter.

Physician Commissioned—Dr. Delbert Starnard, who has been commissioned as a captain in the national guard, attached to the 180th infantry medical unit, will go with the guard troops to the annual summer encampment near Medford this weekend.

Funeral Announced—Funeral services for the late Marjorie Davis will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Veitch undertaking chapel. Rev. Jerome Workman of Marcola will be in charge, and interment will be made in the Marcola cemetery.

Licenses Issued—Nathan J. Ward of Springfield and Nettie, native of Eugene were granted marriage license at the county clerk's office yesterday. Charles L. Gregory and Thelma Chenoweth, both of Oakridge were also licensed to wed.

Leaves for Portland—Pearly Green, master of the blue lodge of Masons, has left for Portland to attend grand lodge and lay plans for the new Masonic temple here before the grand master.

Goes to Everett—J. M. Williams left today for Everett, Wash., where he will visit his son, William G. Williams, for a few days. Mrs. Vernon Williams, his daughter-in-law, also will make the trip, and bring back her little son.

P. A. Boatman Here—P. A. Boatman, formerly with the Price Shoe company and now with the General Motor Acceptance corporation of Portland, was a business visitor in Eugene over night.

H. H. Long Returns—H. H. Long, administrative assistant of the Siuslaw national forest office, returned yesterday evening from Medford, where he spent the week end.

To Be Graduated—Clas A. Bennett of Eugene will be graduated this year from Hill Military academy in Portland, according to announcement cards received by friends in Eugene.

Returns to Alpine—Mrs. Mito Walker of Alpine has returned to her home after a visit of a few days in Eugene.

Return to Moscow—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Short have returned to their home at Moscow, Idaho, after a visit here with Mrs. Short's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. McElroy.

Recovers from Illness—Mrs. Lloyd Martin, of the staff of the First National bank who has been ill for the past month, has recovered and returned to duty.

At Music Convention—W. E. Baskerville has returned from a trip to Portland, having taken Mrs. Baskerville to Portland to attend the music convention held there.

Returns from Coast—George Melvin Miller, local realtor, has returned from Florence after a business visit of a few days.

Here from Cottage Grove—George M. Hawley, resident of Cottage Grove, is a business visitor in Eugene today.

Marriage Licenses Issued—Two marriage licenses were issued today at the office of the county

IT'S EASY TO CHOOSE BEAUTIFUL INEXPENSIVE GIFTS IN THE M. & W. BASEMENT GIFT SHOP

McMoran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

Color-Glorious Fabrics
Whose Beauty Rivals Glowing Sunsets and Pastel Tinted Rainbows

54-Inch Printed Silks
Dress Pattern $11
The very newest in bordered designs. Strikingly beautiful floral patterns and graduated polka dot designs. Very little ingenuity required to fashion 54-inch silks into charming frocks. One of a kind patterns.

36-Inch Glen-Fast Fabrics
50c Yard
Sheer fairy-like dimities and flaxons with most satisfactory wearing and laundering qualities. Dainty rosebud and other novelty flower and dot patterns. Yard wide; many to choose from.

Indeed one has but to see these and the most delightful visions of lazy summer days, leisure hours and charming summer frocks present themselves. Altho summer is tardy there's no resisting these cool wonderful fabrics and why should you when the present modes require such a little yardage and the price is so modest? Visit our piece good section soon and leisurely view these exquisite things!

"Dorcas" Ripplette Bedsets
$6.95
Heavy luxurious ripplette spreads with bolster to match. Colors of yellow, rose, orchid and blue. Size 81x90.
Martha Washington spreads bolster length $9.50.

"Fairy" Ripplette Bedspreads
Special $3.98
Prettily hemmed ripplette spreads in soft colors of yellow rose and blue. Size 81x90. They launder so beautifully and easily! Very special at $3.98.

Three Smart New Butterick Styles

BUTTERICK PATTERN INCLUDING DELTOR

THESE FROCKS ARE QUITE EASY TO MAKE AND ARE VERY INEXPENSIVE IF YOU FOLLOW THE DELTOR, THE WONDERFUL DRESS MAKING GUIDE INCLUDED WITH THE PATTERN FOR EACH DRESS. THE DELTOR SHOWS YOU WITH PICTURES HOW TO LAY OUT YOUR PATTERN ON THE LEAST POSSIBLE AMOUNT OF MATERIAL, HOW TO PUT THE DRESS TOGETHER STEP BY STEP AND HOW TO ADD THE IMPORTANT FINISHING TOUCHES. Butterick pattern counter in charge of thoroughly experienced saleslady who offers courteous helpful service.

Boncilla
BEAUTIFIER
The Classic Pack
Is Our Outstanding Complexion Treatment

This original classic clay pack is still the most popular among our customers. Its results are guaranteed and thousands of people in all parts of the country have found it the simplest, most perfect way to a clear, fresh, radiant, natural complexion.

In large tubes . . . $1.00
In jars $1.00-$1.50-$2.25

$1.75 Boncilla Sets
$1.00

Each set consists of 1 box Face Powder 75c, 1 Tube Magic Classic Beautifier 50c, 1 Jar each of Vanishing Cream, Cold Cream and Cleansing Cream, 50c, 1 Boncilla Beauty Book, packed in attractive Boncilla Box. Total retail value $1.75. Now $1.00 complete set.

McMoran & Washburne Store
FOR STYLE QUALITY & ECONOMY

Year 'Round Toy Section in the basement store features many new summer toys for happy, healthy youngsters.

Voile La Suisse
48c Yard
A pleasing selection of the popular raised dot patterns, as well as many novelty figured flower designs. Distinctive patterns seldom found at this low price.

Striped English Broadcloth
$1.50 Yard
A handsome group of the much wanted broad, vividly colored stripes for summer sports frocks. You'll find them everywhere—the links, the courts, the beach, and the colors are unconditionally guaranteed.

Chiffon Voiles
$1.00 and $1.50
"Light as a feather—wear like leather." Flimsy fair like voiles that will surprise you with their durability and service. Real artistry in their color blendings. All new!

New English Prints
50c Yard
Cheery, fresh looking morning frocks and perky little party dresses and rompers for kiddies will soon emerge from this fascinating array of color-fast English prints. See them today!

To day we are pleased to introduce Mrs. Virgil Hawkins

Buyer and manager of the piece goods and domestic sections.

Nitro-glycerine—T. N. T.—a diminutive storehouse of dynamic energy. A person of pep and personality—and friends—lots of them! An Oregonian by birth and breeding. For many years a loyal and enthusiastic worker for the McMoran & Washburne store. (Adopted the prefix Mrs. just a short time ago.)

Surprising You Before Not After Sale

Safer Than Gold Bond

Every Diamond bought here is a value other jewels find it difficult to match. Blue white flawless stones in Solid White Gold Mounting.

Wedding Rings
Love isn't blind—it's just "near-sighted." Show her one of these newest White Gold floral "circles" and she'll rush you to the altar.

"A child can read our price tags"

SKEEL'S Jewelry Store
EUGENE, ORE.

75 Start Teacher Tests Here Today

Seventy-five men and women were in attendance this morning at the start of the teacher examinations held at the county court room under the direction of E. J. Moore, county superintendent of schools. The examinations are held each December and June. The tests will extend over a period of four days and will close Saturday.

The following is the schedule for tomorrow:

Thursday Forenoon
Arithmetic, history of education, psychology, methods in geography, mechanical drawing, domestic art, course of study for domestic art.

Thursday Afternoon
Geography, penmanship, stenography, American literature, physics, typewriting, methods in language, thesis for primary certificate.

Store Announces Liquidation Sale

Sale of the Love and Barrett department store to J. Max Johnson of Colfax, Wash., will not be effective until the close of a stock-reducing sale which will begin immediately. It is announced today by H. S. Barrett, the present owner of the store, who expects to conduct the sale for the purpose of liquidating their present stock to such a point that it can be turned over to the new owner, and the deal is contingent upon the success of the sale, states Mr. Barrett.

STATISTICS

BORN
WATT—At the Eugene hospital, Wednesday, June 10, 1925, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Watt, of Weonika, a daughter.

DEPARTED
At the home at Waterville, June 9, 1925, to Mr. and Mrs. John W. King, a son, George Henry, weight 19 pounds.

Record is set by Eastern Marksman

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 10.—A record of 1500 consecutive bullseyes on a 50-foot range was set by Samuel Moore, 17, of Newton, Mass., by contact with a Newton rifle. He started there Saturday, according to information given

Two Suits for Divorce Filed

Two divorce suits were filed in circuit court today. Jack Bowen filed suit against his wife William Bowen on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married March 12, 1924, and have no children. The plaintiff asks that he be awarded custody of his child and that his wife be restored. Whitner Stafford is representing the plaintiff.

Edward Shaban filed suit for divorce against his wife Alma Shaban. The couple were married at Portland in December, 1923, and have one child. The plaintiff asks that he be awarded custody of his child and that his wife be restored. Whitner Stafford is representing the plaintiff.

Chamber Secretary Course is Arranged

Arrangements for the fifth annual short course for chamber of commerce secretaries are being completed at the University of Oregon, according to word being sent out to the state chambers by R. C. Robbins, dean of the school of business administration. The course will be held from July 5 to 10 and a number of interesting speakers for the round table discussions have been obtained. The arrangement. The visiting secretaries will be housed on the campus and a program of entertainment has also been arranged, according to Dean Robbins.

Senator has Visit On Schedule Here

Senator Robert N. Stanford will return to Oregon about July 1 after attending a meeting of the public lands committee of the senate which is being held in Arizona, according to a communication received by the Eugene chamber of commerce today. Senator Stanford writes to ask about a proposed meeting here in which he states he desires to discuss legislative interests of Lane county. It is probable that the senator may hold a meeting at the chamber of commerce

Chamber Secretary Course is Arranged

Arrangements for the fifth annual short course for chamber of commerce secretaries are being completed at the University of Oregon, according to word being sent out to the state chambers by R. C. Robbins, dean of the school of business administration. The course will be held from July 5 to 10 and a number of interesting speakers for the round table discussions have been obtained. The arrangement. The visiting secretaries will be housed on the campus and a program of entertainment has also been arranged, according to Dean Robbins.

Two Suits for Divorce Filed

Two divorce suits were filed in circuit court today. Jack Bowen filed suit against his wife William Bowen on a charge of cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married March 12, 1924, and have no children. The plaintiff asks that he be awarded custody of his child and that his wife be restored. Whitner Stafford is representing the plaintiff.

Edward Shaban filed suit for divorce against his wife Alma Shaban. The couple were married at Portland in December, 1923, and have one child. The plaintiff asks that he be awarded custody of his child and that his wife be restored. Whitner Stafford is representing the plaintiff.

Chamber Secretary Course is Arranged

Arrangements for the fifth annual short course for chamber of commerce secretaries are being completed at the University of Oregon, according to word being sent out to the state chambers by R. C. Robbins, dean of the school of business administration. The course will be held from July 5 to 10 and a number of interesting speakers for the round table discussions have been obtained. The arrangement. The visiting secretaries will be housed on the campus and a program of entertainment has also been arranged, according to Dean Robbins.

Senator has Visit On Schedule Here

Senator Robert N. Stanford will return to Oregon about July 1 after attending a meeting of the public lands committee of the senate which is being held in Arizona, according to a communication received by the Eugene chamber of commerce today. Senator Stanford writes to ask about a proposed meeting here in which he states he desires to discuss legislative interests of Lane county. It is probable that the senator may hold a meeting at the chamber of commerce

The biggest building in the world is said to be the army warehouse in Brooklyn. It has 32 acres of floor space.

Phone S. E. Stevens for piano tuning.

For information about RAILROAD TRIPS PHONE 140 Oregon Electric

Closing Dance of the Season
Saturday Evening, June 13
Winter Garden
PIED PIPERS ORCHESTRA
U. of O. Music Supreme
Men 75c Ladies Free
Everybody Welcome