DAIRY PRODUCTS HOLDING STRONG

Most of Other Commodities Easing Off, And Effect Is Felt

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—Dairy products continue to maintain a strong tone in the local farm produce markets as most other commodities ease off. Butter is the leader with a brisk demand for all grades of cubes regardless of score. Right now butter production should be at the peak and prices weak but hopes of lower levels this year have practically been abandoned by local dealers.

On the exchange bid prices remain firm and unchanged.

The scramble for current receipt eggs is forcing up country offers. Thirty cents appears to be the ruling price in the country with 30 to 30½ cents paid along the street "as is." On the exchange receipts are a half cent higher at 31½c. Graded quotations are unchanged.
