Meary, Salem; H. A. Martin, Salem.

Program for this afternoon's session was chiefly transaction of business until 5 o'clock. At 5:30 o'clock a club lunch will be served to all delegates and visitors in the Eagles' hall. Competitive ritualistic examination will take place at the meeting tonight, starting at 7 o'clock. This will be by officers and degree teams from Salem Aerie No. 2081, Marshfield Aerie No. 528 and Eugene Aerie No. 273. The winners will be presented with a silver loving cup.

The business session will be resumed Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, and in the afternoon the delegates will take a pleasure trip by automobile up the McKenzie river to Nimrod inn. Here a banquet will be served at 5 o'clock p. m., and the clearest of after-dinner speakers will be called on for a few minutes' talk. Close of the convention comes tomorrow night with a grand ball at Dreamland hall.

FORMER HEAD OF RAILWAY IS DEAD

(Continued from page one) ago, when it was learned he had sustained the heart attack which proved fatal today. Under the Kruttschnitt directorship, the Southern Pacific grew in 12 years from a road of 10,000 miles with annual earnings of $148,000,000 to 16,000 miles and earnings of more than $300,000,000, placing it third in the list of national carriers. He was reputed to be one of a group of half a dozen executives whose annual salaries exceeded $100,000.

Born in South. Born in New Orleans, July 30, 1854 the future commander-in-chief of the Harriman lines graduated from Washington and Lee university 10 years later, with the degree of civil engineer. After five years as a school teacher, he entered the service of the Louisiana and Texas railroad, now a part of the Southern Pacific, as a resident engineer. He attracted the attention of E. H. Harriman in 1890 when that railroad Napoleon had control of the Southern Pacific, and was drawn into that organization as chief operating officer. In 1904 his jurisdiction was widened to include operation of the Union Pacific and further extensions of Kruttschnitt control were recorded in railroad annals from time to time until the death of the elder Harriman. In addition to his commanding position in the transportation field, Mr. Kruttschnitt was a director and member of the executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph company and of the Harriman National bank and U. S. Mortgage and Trust company.

Low Rates Now - to Cool, Delightful California

A rare chance to enjoy a new experience in summer fun—to rejuvenate in mind and body in an entirely new way. ESPECIALLY low rates on all railroads are now in effect to Southern California and return, good until October 31st. It's your best chance to see this summerland supreme, where you sleep under blankets every night, and the mean temperature averages 66 degrees in June, 70 in July, 71 in August and 69 in September (U. S. Weather Bureau figures taken from a 48-year record).

Great is Southern California in the scenery and sports it offers as well as in its climate. 5000 miles of perfectly paved motor boulevards, and 1100 miles of trolley criss-cross this section, so every attraction is placed within your easy reach.

COMMENCEMENT OF UNIVERSITY IS HELD

(Continued from page one) to the strains of a recessional march played by the orchestra. The commencement program terminates the senior activities for the year. Baccalaureate was held yesterday at 11 o'clock in the Methodist church. Rev. Frank R. Matthews, of the University Baptist church, Seattle, Wash., who graduated from the University of Oregon thirty years ago. His theme was "Religion and Modern Man," with "He hath led me forth into broader fields," his text. He maintained that religion held a career not far from the lives of cultivated people than ever before. The organ procession was played by John Stark Evans of the University of Oregon school of music. Rev. Frederick G. Jennings, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal church, gave the invocation. A "Song of Thanksgiving," from the Old English was sung by the university choir followed by scripture reading, the Twenty-fourth psalm, by Rev. J. Franklin Hays, pastor of the Methodist church. The girls' glee club of the university sang Mendelssohn's "Lift Up Thine Eyes," followed by a prayer by Rev. Henry W. Davis, director of the United Christian work at the university. "Sons and Evening Star," (March) was sung by the choir, and a hymn (Mary) by the congregation. Rev. Frederick J. Clark, pastor of the First Congregational church, pronounced the benediction. Postlude was played by Mr. Evans.

The commencement concert by the University school of music faculty at the music auditorium at 4:30 p. m. yesterday marked a high point in the musical events of the season. "Carnaval Mignon" (Schubert) was played on the piano by Aurora Potter Underwood, Malheur. Rose McGrew sang "Ave Maria" (Kahn) and "Lora Teshner gave a solo solo, "Sol Nidre" (Bruch) and John B. Siefert, accompanied on the piano by Bernice Yee, sang "I Know a Hill" (Whelpley) and "The Lamp of Love" (Salter). The university string quartet, Rex Underwood and Alberta Potter, violins; Buford Ross, viola; and Lora Teshner, violinello, played "Quartette Op. 98" by Beethoven. The finale was played on the organ by John Stark Evans. Owing to the illness of Jane Thacher one number on the program was omitted.

The annual Fern and Flower procession in which the graduating women and the alumnae carry flowers and ferns to place in a manor on the west side of Villard hall, was an event of Saturday evening. A twilight concert was given by the men's and women's glee clubs, and the Fall and Bank Beekman orators contes were held. Ernest H. Henriksen of Portland won the Falling prize of $150 for the best oration, and Ivan D. Houston of Eugene the Beekman prize of $100 for the second best oration.

The U. S. army has developed a gun which shoots three miles farther than the famous French 75, used so extensively in the World war. The weight of the two guns is the same. "East Lynne" has been translated into 30 languages. Mrs. Henry Wood, the author, had great difficulty in selling it just after she completed it.

Dean John Straub is Always on Hand

For Forty-Seven Years he Has Not Missed Commencement Dr. John Straub, emeritus dean of men and professor of Greek, has not missed a single commencement exercise in the forty-seven years he has been at the university, and last year he conducted the ceremony during the illness of President Campbell. In the early days of the institution the classes were small; in fact, at the first commencement only five students were graduated, three of whom are still alive. For some years the graduating number ranged around seventeen, and then a gradual increase took place, up to the time of the war. The greatest increase in the student body and in the graduating classes has taken place since the war. Up to 1917 the student body numbered less than 1000, but it has more than doubled since that time. This was partly due to the state aid given to returned soldiers to enable them to finish their education. Dean Straub leaned back in his chair, and said in reminiscent tone, "In the early days when the commencement exercise was still held in Deady hall, the week was looked upon by both students and parents as a gala event. People came from all around on horse and in wagons and camped under the big oaks north of Villard. In those days each student was given a chance to speak at the graduation ceremony, and a great deal of effort was put forward on the orations they delivered. At that time there was a windmill which pumped water to the big tank on top of Deady, and every one ate lunch under it." The first commencements were held on the top floor of Deady; but in 1885 when Villard was built they were held there. About four years ago this was changed, and they have been held in the Woman's building since then. Dean Straub says that no president of the university has ever missed a commencement until President Campbell was forced by illness to do so. The first president, J. W. Johnson, served for seventeen years, then Charles H. Chapman for seven years; Frank Strong for three years, and P. L. Campbell has been at the head of the institution for 22 years.

STATEMENT IS TERMED INSULT

(Continued from page one) Coolidge and did not return to Washington until this morning. The text of President Calles' sharp reply did not reach him until he came to his desk at the state department. Public Gains Knowledge Administration officials take the position that in view of the visit to Washington of Ambassador Sheffield and his prolonged conferences, both with the president and Mr. Kellogg, the American public was entitled to knowledge of the true situation in Mexico with which those conferences had to do. This feeling is said to have prompted the issuance of Mr. Kellogg's statement of last Friday warning the Mexican government and advising the American people that Washington support of the present Mexican administration could be continued only if that government lived up to its obligations as far as Americans in Mexico and their property is concerned. The fact that President Calles expressed resentment in his answering statement has not changed the situation, and the Washington government is concerned more with what the Mexican authorities do in the way of protecting Americans and indemnifying them for property expropriated than it is with what they have to say for publication.

MEXICO IS INSULTED WASHINGTON, June 15.—(AP)—Secretary Kellogg's statement of last Friday concerning conditions in Mexico has drawn an equally plain worded reply from President Calles who regards as an insult the implication that Mexico is on trial before the world in the guise of a defendant. "President Calles' answer, issued through the Mexican embassy here yesterday declared Mr. Kellogg's pro-

Paul Waner Holds Lead Over Hitters

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—Unofficial figures showed that Paul Waner, San Francisco first baseman, by batting at a .415 clip during the past week retained his position as leading batter of the Pacific Coast league with a season average of .413. Brazil, Seattle third sacker, and O'Doul, Salt Lake fielder, were tied for second place with an average of .360. High of Portland showed an average of .387 while Miller, Oakland, outfielder, ranked his team mates with a season figure of .377. Lazzerre of Salt Lake led the league in stolen bases with 15 to his credit, with Brady of Seattle second, with 12. Premier home run honors were held by Brazill and Rohwer of Portland, with 13 each. Brower of San Francisco and Hood of Los Angeles, came next with twelve each, with 11 credited to Lazzerre. Brubaker of Oakland was shown to be the best sacrifice hitter with 27. Mulligan of San Francisco, was second with 20.

Kiss Rogers Gained 15 Pounds in Six Weeks

My dear Friends: After my attack of Flu I was thin, rundown and weak. I had a sallow complexion, my cheeks were sunk in and I was continually troubled with gas on my stomach. I felt stuffy and had lost my appetite. I had read about McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and decided to give them a trial. At once, I began to pick up an appetite, my cheeks filled out and my complexion became healthy looking and I gained 15 pounds in six weeks and am very thankful for what McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets did for me. Miss Alberta Rogers, 264 W. Cerro Gorda St., Decatur, Ill. To take on weight, grow strong and vigorous, to fill out the hollows in cheeks and neck, try McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets for 30 days. 60 Tablets—60 cents at Linn Drug Co., W. A. Kuykendall, Carroll's Pharmacy and live druggists everywhere. If they don't give you wonderful help in 30 days, get your money back—you be the judge. But be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine.
