

JOHN EVANS WINS SCHOOL ELECTION BY 9-VOTE MARGIN

By a margin of only nine votes, John T. Evans was re-elected director of the Eugene school board over Alva King in the annual school election yesterday.

Final figures showed a total of 300 for Mr. Evans and 291 for Mr. King. Condon district tied in its vote, with 46 for each contestant. Patterson, Washington and Geary precincts showed majorities for Mr. King, while Lincoln and Frances Willard went to Mr. Evans.

A special meeting of the school board was held after the election last night, at which the vote was canvassed, and Mr. Evans declared re-elected. Rev. Frederick G. Jennings was re-elected chairman and the following committees named:

Finance—C. W. Mullin, chairman, W. A. Elkins and W. F. Reed.

Building—W. F. Reed, chairman, John T. Evans and W. A. Elkins.

Education—W. A. Elkins, chairman, C. W. Mullin and John T. Evans.

Following is the vote by precincts: Condon—Evans 46; King 46. Patterson—Evans 45; King 67. Washington—Evans 55; King 63. Geary—Evans 19; King 21. Lincoln—Evans 41; King 27. Frances Willard—Evans 92; King 68.

"THE SHOW-OFF" WILL BE TONIGHT

There is at least one interesting note of utter seriousness in "The Show-Off," the stage production at the Helix theater tonight. It is all the finer because it is so unobtrusive. Nobody digs its morals out and presents it to the audience on a platter. It simply lies there—as it would lie in life—for the observant and sensitive to take note of. This thing has to do with love. There are two sisters in the play. One marries an honest hearted, kind, and highly successful business man. The other falls for the "Show-Off." The first husband supports not only his wife but his wife's sister and his wife's sister's husband more or less of the time. The contrast between the two men is simply devastating. And yet—the strange wild thing in heart and body which makes love between two people, lives in the "Show-Off" and his wife; the better pair can never feel it. They want to feel it. They ought to feel it. But love has nothing to do with virtue, success, or any of the other respectable virtues. Perhaps that is why audiences love the "Show-Off."

Plans for Coming Of 2 Planes Made

Preparations are being made at the Eugene municipal aviation field for the coming of the United States army planes that will be stationed here this summer on forest patrol duty. The two planes assigned to the Eugene base will arrive July 1, according to a schedule in the announcement received in a telegram from the war department. One plane is scheduled to patrol north from the base here and the other will patrol the area between Eugene and Roseburg, according to present plans.

Program is Ready For Lane Visitors

Many from Lane county will be at Corvallis tonight to attend the program for Lane county day at the Oregon Agricultural college. O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, has been urging Lane farmers to attend the meetings which have been arranged with particular reference to the problems of agriculture for this area. A number of members of the county boys and girls clubs will also attend the O. A. C. program and special entertainment is planned for this visit, according to Arnold Collier, county club leader. The Lane party will not make the trip to a caucus together but it is planned to have the group assemble before the main agricultural building on the O. A. C. campus at 9:30 tomorrow forenoon.

D. A. C. MAN REPORTS

H. C. Hunt, Oregon Agricultural college, reported this morning to the Cascade national forest for a day's instruction before leaving for Oatridge where he will assist District Ranger C. B. McFarland during the summer.

INGROWN NAIL Turns Right Out Itself

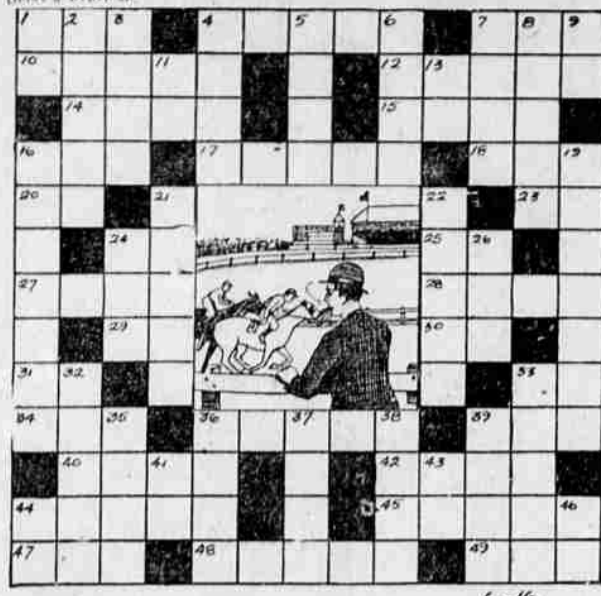

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

A few drops of "Outgro" in the service of the ingrown nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can't penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost every night.

SWIMMING TO BE SCHEDULED DAILY FOR SCOUT CAMP

Swimming will be on the schedule twice every day at the first annual summer camp of Boy Scouts at Camp Whitsitt near Mapleton July 13 to August 10, it is announced by W. H. Robertson, one of the members of the camp committee. Mr. Robertson, whose hobby is nature study, is to instruct the scouts in the names of birds, trees, shrubs and flowers indigenous to Lane county.

Competent instructors will be in charge of the swimming, and all officers will participate in the supervising. A life saving corps will be organized and on duty during swimming hours. Swimming and life-saving instructions will be given daily.

Scouts will be quartered in wall tents. Board floors will be installed unless the committee finds the camp can absolutely be protected from dampness. Walls of the tents will be kept rolled in sunny weather to insure fresh air, and blankets will be aired daily on racks.

A large circus tent will serve as mess hall this year. The scouts will have a tent city, and as real pioneers, a trading post will be kept at the store near camp, where scouts will be permitted to spend 10 cents a day, and no more.

Every scout will be held responsible for getting out to camp on the opening day of his period. If his father takes him in the car they take the highway to Mapleton. If he takes the train, No. 502 leaves Eugene at 7:45 o'clock a. m. and arrives in Mapleton at 10:10 o'clock. The camp is located on Knowles creek just across the Sluslaw river from Mapleton.

Fox Pups die Here At Breeding Farm

Seven silver fox pups born at the farm of Cal Young near this city recently have died and the first breeding of the animals in captivity has failed to prove successful. Mr. Young states that the attempt to raise the foxes here will not be given up as it is certain the experiment will work out well with additional information as to the care of the animals. Within the next two weeks Mr. Young expects to receive a pair of blue silver foxes from Seattle where they were recently purchased.

Lane Cherry Crop Lighter This Year

Picking of the soft early cherries in Lane county is well under way and a large amount of this fruit is now coming into the market, according to C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector. The Royal Ann cherries are nearly ready for picking in most districts of the county and this will be under way within the next two weeks, the inspector states. The cherry crop of Lane is far below that of last year owing to the late spring rains which also have had an effect on other fruit yields of the county, the inspector said.

Marcola Building Work Progresses

Rapid work is being done on the new union high school building now under construction at Marcola in district number 8 and the structure is now ready for the roof, according to a report of H. B. Smith, clerk of the district which comprises Wendling, Mabel and Marcola, who was here today to confer with E. J. Moore, county superintendent of schools. The district recently voted $20,000 in bonds to finance the new building.

CONSTRUCTION IS AT HIGHEST PEAK

That a large majority of the several thousand loggers recently laid off at west coast camps have either gone to the pine districts of the Inland Empire or have found employment largely in construction work, which is now at its highest peak, is indicated by reports from 41 employment service offices in various northwestern cities received at 41 headquarters in Eugene today.

Almost without exception the reports show that there are few unemployed loggers in the fir districts. A surplus of men is reported from the pine region east of the Cascades. At Portland, while there is sufficient help to meet all present demands, there is not a large surplus. A considerable number of men have already left for the harvest fields of Texas and construction work in the northwest has absorbed a large number of loggers recently laid off. Small box works busy on the season's cut and they have required some help from here. Canning factories are operating with full crews.
