

REGENTS CLOSE THEIR MEETING TO NEWSPAPERS

session," and although newspapermen remained in the building until the meeting was adjourned, they were not allowed to return to the meeting room.

According to reports given out following the meeting, the proposition of the regents to the board of regents was referred, due to the absence of Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Roseburg; C. C. Cole, L. H. Sawyer, Herbert Johnson, and Philip L. Jackson.

For the next order of business, the proposition from faculty committee to suspend certain cases, Dr. James H. Gilbert, chairman of the committee, was admitted to the closed meeting. Dr. Gilbert presented the faculty's case, and was asked to retire while discussion took place. The board recalled Dr. Gilbert, and offered to suspend the entire committee then and there. The committee not being present, Dr. Gilbert asked that a "faculty committee" with power to act, be appointed from the board of regents to confer with the committee of faculty members, but the board declared that the matter must be settled at once, due to the fact that new faculty men to fill vacancies created by the acts under controversy would have to be found before the opening of fall term. The faculty then declared their previous action, which resulted in dismissal of Prof. Fergus Reddie and the dramatic staff, and demotion of Prof. H. C. Howe and others, a closed affair.

Following the regents' meeting, Dr. Gilbert declared that a meeting of the faculty committee would be called and further action decided upon.

Dean Walker Named.
Dean H. Walker, student advisor and director of student loan funds of the university, was chosen dean of men for one year. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, served as graduate manager, and has held his present position for the past two years. He will fill the place made vacant when Dean John Straub was made dean emeritus of men.

No heads of the departments at English, romance language or zoology, were appointed. Former heads were, respectively, Prof. H. C. Howe, Timothy Cloran and Harry R. Torres. While on his way east to embark for Europe, Dean Colin V. Dymont will look for suitable men for these positions, and recommend candidates to the board.

James H. Gilbert, head of the department of economics, was appointed by the board as acting dean of the college of literature, science and the arts, to replace Dean Colin V. Dymont, who has been granted a year's leave of absence. Dr. Gilbert is a graduate of the University of Oregon and has been head of the department of economics for some time.

Resignations Tended.
Four members of the faculty of the English department tendered resignations, which were accepted. Clarence D. Thorpe is leaving to accept a professorship at the University of Michigan, and Oscar Brown has taken a position in Kansas. The other two instructors leaving are E. W. Merrill and Ralph Hoebler.

Mary Watson Barnes, professor, and Alice Hansen Ernst, assistant professor, were changed from part time to full time service. Three members to the faculty of this department were appointed. They are, J. Stanley Gray, Robert T. Horn and Stephenson Smith.

The administration report proposed to employ an instructor to take charge of the dramatics division, but since no one has been found suitable, action on this was deferred. It is understood from the administrative recommendation that the one instructor will have charge of all dramatic work. Drama and speech arts have been handled by Prof. Fergus Reddie, with a force of two instructors, in addition to graduate assistants, but this entire department was abolished by the board at a previous meeting.

Assistants Employed.
Four graduate assistants, Florence Buck, Pat Morrisette, Ruth Alden Riley, were hired for the department of English. Marquette Robus Clark was appointed a teaching fellow in the German language department.

Julian Bulson and Austin E. Hutchinson were appointed to the history faculty. Gustave Muller, a graduate of Bern university, was appointed to fill the place left vacant in the department of philosophy by failure of the board to reappoint Kirby Miller.

Dr. Raymond H. Wheeler, professor in the department of psychology, has resigned to become head of the department of psychology at the University of Kansas. Miss Marzery Gilbert, teaching fellow, also resigned.

In the romance language department Gertrude Espinosa was reappointed and Andree Pellion and Mary Dillars were named as instructors. Oscar W. Richards was appointed instructor in the department of zoology.

Frank A. Nagler, assistant professor in the school of business administration, resigned, and A. L. Lomas was granted a year's leave of absence. Arthur Humber, who has been studying at the University of California for the past two years, was replaced by Mr. Sawyer, and J. A. Johnson of the University of Iowa, will take the place made vacant by Mr. Lomas.

Walter J. Henny was appointed instructor.

be transferred two-thirds time to this department.

According to Sheriff Hawkins, a small quantity of liquor was found in possession of the men. One of the trio, he said, has been under suspicion for several months as an alleged bootlegger although there is no record of liquor violations in this county against any of them. Defections Pointed Out During Clinic
Statistics compiled for the free clinic which were conducted for the children of Cottage Grove and Springfield by the Mercy Hospital in cooperation with the local doctors in those towns reveal a high list of defections from normal health. Out of 100 girls examined in Springfield yesterday half showed definite tendencies.

"This is an alarming condition," said Dr. W. C. Rehan of Springfield, in speaking of the situation. "The matter of gonorrhea should be taken up by all school boards and prophylactic treatment instituted in the schools."

Out of 100 of 100 boys examined in Springfield, according to Dr. H. P. Mortensen of Springfield, "This situation should not be considered average, however," Dr. Mortensen said.

The 95 recorded cases at Cottage Grove are outlined as follows by Miss Katherine Jolst, superintendent of the Mercy hospital, who directed the clinic: 22 enlarged tonsils; 13 cervical adenitis and enlarged gland trouble; 1 umbilical hernia; 1 chronic appendicitis; 2 abdominal and pelvic trouble; 1 circumcision; 2 overweight; 5 heart disturbances; 2 lung disturbances; 19 defective eye and granular lid cases; 4 ear deflections; 5 nasal deflections; 3 blood examination revealing: 32 tonsil and adenoid cases; 1 spinal curvature; 20 cases of defective teeth. In many cases the same child had two or more of the recorded ailments.

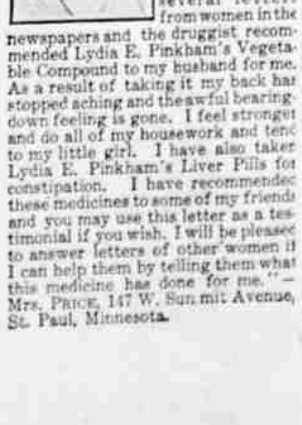

The Springfield list of 100 children, 40 girls and 60 boys, is as follows: 29 enlarged tonsils; 7 enlarged cervical adenitis; 2 enlarged axillary in inguinal glands; 2 spinal curvatures among the boys; 4 chest and lung deflections (boys); 1 overweight (boy); 13 underweight (girls); 10 defective eyes and granular lids (in some cases this was a secondary condition from other ailments); 3 ear deflections; 23 nose deflections; 42 adenoid and tonsil cases; 3 circumcisions; 15 cases of defective teeth; 1 skin affection.

FACULTY PRESENTS COOPERATIVE PLAN TO REGENT BOARD

A program of cooperation between the board of regents of the University of Oregon and the members of the faculty was presented to the board at its meeting yesterday. It was learned following the closed session of the board that the board deferred action on the proposal, due to the absence of Judge J. W. Hamilton and other members. It was stated.

The issue on the part of the faculty grew out of an informal meeting held on April 9, attended by 62 members. When a resolution was unanimously adopted to the effect that the regents "by formal legislation, recognize that it be their established policy to confer with the advisory council of the faculty in case of appointment of a president of the university, in the issue of orders respecting the educational policy or organization of the university, and in removal or reduction in term, rank, or compensation of a faculty member on indefinite tenure."

The argument set forth to the board of regents the policies followed in many leading universities and disintegrated adopted in 1923 by the Association of American Colleges, an organization of presidents of 250 institutions. This is in part, "Establishment of a permanent or long term appointment for cause should regularly require action both by a faculty committee and the governing board of the college."

In regard to this matter, the board adopted the following resolution: "The board expresses its appreciation of the offer of the faculty to confer with us in matters touching on the government of the university, and expresses their friendly attitude toward the faculty having an opportunity to express itself through the president in matters of major university policy. Action on the specific faculty program is deferred until the next meeting of the board, because of the fact that only a bare majority of the board is present at the June meeting."

The proposal set forth three main points whereby the faculty and board could work together. These were in the "matter of selecting a president," and "in the matter of determining the educational policy of the university," and "in the matter affecting tenure, demotions, etc., of faculty members. If the program were to be followed out the proposal said, "In case of necessary dismissal action the board would be removed from the charge of being lousy or ill-considered."
