

EVERETT SCOTT IS RELEASED BY WAIVER ROUTE

NEW YORK, June 17.—(AP)—Everett Scott, veteran shortstop of the New York Yankees has been released to the Washington Senators by the waiver route, it was announced at the Yankee offices today.

THE winter baseball season has opened a bit prematurely in New York where the experts are already beginning to flee Miller Huggins.

Skeptics in the east are asking if Tommy Gibbons, unexpectedly knocked out, was "reached." We seem to recall distinctly that Mr. Tunney reached him in the twelfth round with a right-hand to the jaw.

The one thing that really makes the Gibbons-Tunney fight look queer is that Jim Corbett was able to pick the winner.

Willie MacFarlane, the new golf champion, is a talented musician, and of course has very little trouble tuning up for his matches.

We see by the papers that few ball players indulge in poker any more. This probably forecasts the end of the Kitty League.

Habe Ruth has been told he must do more walking for his health. This ought to make the American league pitchers feel less apologetic.

The girl in the case says Harry Thaw frequently talks of carrots and green onions. Maybe this explains why he is occasionally called an old tomato.

The sword swallower with Ringlings is being offered divorce. The lady probably objected to his cutting remarks.

Neither Firpo nor Carpenter will do any fighting this summer. So if you don't enjoy the season it will be your own fault.

The ex-crown prince of Germany recently won a tennis championship. The surprising thing about this is that there is no retreating in tennis.

SPORT BRIEFS

(By The Associated Press) The Athletics went on a batting rampage in the first two innings of their game with the Indians, piled up ten runs and won with little trouble.

Walter Johnson, veteran speedball artist of the Senators had little difficulty whitewashing the Browns. It was Johnson's tenth victory of the season.

Managers Hornsby and Fletcher of the Cardinals and Phillies respectively were so keen to win yesterday that they engaged in a fist fight in the sixth inning and had to be separated by the players and police.

Portland Grabs Opener by Hits

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—(AP)—Portland had the better of the series in an exhibition of heavy hitting and poor pitching yesterday. The final score was 14 to 10. Ray Rohrer, Portland outfielder, hit the ball over the fence twice, batting in a total of five runs.

Billy Evans Says FATE plays many peculiar pranks. Witness the case of Walter Johnson.

At the close of the 1924 world series, from which Johnson emerged the great hero by his brilliant pitching in the final game, after two previous failures, he was positive he was through with the big show.

"I have pitched my last game in the majors if things break as I hope they will," remarked Johnson to me after the all-important thriller that decided the championship.

"I have several reasons for so thinking. First, I hope to buy a minor league franchise that should prove more profitable than a mere big league salary.

"Second, I am not sure that I still retain enough stuff to be a consistent winner. I want to quit the American league before the batters force me to such a decision.

"I got the breaks in the series after I had apparently 'flipped.' It would be impossible for me to be in a better position to capitalize on my work."

Johnson failed to secure the minor league franchise that he had in mind. Much persuasion was brought to bear upon him to return to the Washington club. A fancy salary was the most alluring inducement.
