

MEETINGS TO OPEN HERE FOR COLLEGE FACULTY MEMBERS

About 25 members of the Pacific coast section of the American Mathematical society will be here Friday for the first of a two-day session to be held at the University of Oregon...

In Dr. Young Case

Above is Mrs. Thomas Young, wife of the Los Angeles dentist, who was killed, and her body buried in a cement casket beneath the summer home at Beverly Glen, exclusive resort near Hollywood.

Below is Dorothy Leopold, 22, private secretary to Dr. Young, whom the police believe to be the "other woman" in the sensational murder.

FLIES OF CHERRY FOUGHT IN VALLEY

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, June 18.—(Special)—The flies of the cherry fruit worm are now emerging and Willamette valley cherry growers who have not already put on the first sweetened poison bait spray are advised by the experiment station to do so at once.

Siuslaw Gets $6000 More Road Money

More than $6000 has been received by the Siuslaw national forest for road and trail work this summer, in addition to the money already received.

Kills Catarrh Germ In Three Minutes

Chronic catarrh, no matter how bad, and cases of bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, etc., are cured by the use of a French scientific discovery...

DANCE Hard Time Veneta Saturday, June 20 Put on your old clothes. Let's all go! Snappy Eugene Music

Don Dickerson to Take Ranger Post

Don Dickerson of Weiser, graduate in forestry at Oregon Agricultural college, has been named district forest ranger of the Siuslaw national forest at Florence, it is announced today by R. S. Shelly, supervisor of the forest.

Jennie O. Preuit is Dead at Home Here

Miss Jennie Olive Preuit born August 10, 1899 died here yesterday at 3:40 a. m. She came from Abilene, Texas, three years ago. She was a student of the University of Oregon and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preuit.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

RAILWAY OFFICIALS PLANNING VISIT TO KLAMATH SATURDAY

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., June 18.—Plans were completed here today for the visit next Saturday to Klamath county of high officials of the Hill and Northern lines, who are coming to gain first hand information of the country where the last great rail battle of the west will be staged with the Southern Pacific interests for domination of the Klamath country and central Oregon.

Alleged Deserter Will be Held Here

Word was received at the office of Sheriff Frank E. Taylor today to hold Angelo Messineo for the army authorities when his sentence expires. Messineo is said to be a deserter from Battery E of the Tenth field artillery stationed at Camp Lewis.

SCIENTISTS SPEAK OF TENNESSEANS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 18.—(AP)—Delegates to the session here of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, were told by Norman E. Coleman, president of Reed College, Portland, that they should take steps by education or otherwise to eradicate disputes such as that in Tennessee, over evolution.

Heilig Program is Pleasing Feature

Two comedy sketches, both of containing a full measure of entertainment, two acrobatic and juggling performances and a pair of singing girls make up the Western vaudeville bill presented at the Heilig theater last night.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

MOVEMENT TO GET TERMINAL TALKED

Plans for the Odd Fellows band for Independence day will be talked over at a meeting of the organization tonight. The band has no definite engagement for July 4 as the plan of playing at Oakridge was not completed.

DENTIST TAKES BACK CONFESSION

LOS ANGELES, June 18.—In the first interview since his arrest for the murder of his wife, Dr. Thomas W. Young, 40-year-old Los Angeles dentist, repudiated his confession and declared he would make a fight for his freedom.

Heilig Program is Pleasing Feature

Two comedy sketches, both of containing a full measure of entertainment, two acrobatic and juggling performances and a pair of singing girls make up the Western vaudeville bill presented at the Heilig theater last night.

Don Dickerson to Take Ranger Post

Don Dickerson of Weiser, graduate in forestry at Oregon Agricultural college, has been named district forest ranger of the Siuslaw national forest at Florence, it is announced today by R. S. Shelly, supervisor of the forest.

Jennie O. Preuit is Dead at Home Here

Miss Jennie Olive Preuit born August 10, 1899 died here yesterday at 3:40 a. m. She came from Abilene, Texas, three years ago. She was a student of the University of Oregon and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preuit.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

MOVEMENT TO GET TERMINAL TALKED

Plans for the Odd Fellows band for Independence day will be talked over at a meeting of the organization tonight. The band has no definite engagement for July 4 as the plan of playing at Oakridge was not completed.

DENTIST TAKES BACK CONFESSION

LOS ANGELES, June 18.—In the first interview since his arrest for the murder of his wife, Dr. Thomas W. Young, 40-year-old Los Angeles dentist, repudiated his confession and declared he would make a fight for his freedom.

Heilig Program is Pleasing Feature

Two comedy sketches, both of containing a full measure of entertainment, two acrobatic and juggling performances and a pair of singing girls make up the Western vaudeville bill presented at the Heilig theater last night.

Don Dickerson to Take Ranger Post

Don Dickerson of Weiser, graduate in forestry at Oregon Agricultural college, has been named district forest ranger of the Siuslaw national forest at Florence, it is announced today by R. S. Shelly, supervisor of the forest.

Jennie O. Preuit is Dead at Home Here

Miss Jennie Olive Preuit born August 10, 1899 died here yesterday at 3:40 a. m. She came from Abilene, Texas, three years ago. She was a student of the University of Oregon and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preuit.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

Eugene Band Will Plan for July 4

Plans for the Odd Fellows band for Independence day will be talked over at a meeting of the organization tonight. The band has no definite engagement for July 4 as the plan of playing at Oakridge was not completed.

Alleged Deserter Will be Held Here

Word was received at the office of Sheriff Frank E. Taylor today to hold Angelo Messineo for the army authorities when his sentence expires. Messineo is said to be a deserter from Battery E of the Tenth field artillery stationed at Camp Lewis.

SCIENTISTS SPEAK OF TENNESSEANS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 18.—(AP)—Delegates to the session here of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, were told by Norman E. Coleman, president of Reed College, Portland, that they should take steps by education or otherwise to eradicate disputes such as that in Tennessee, over evolution.

Heilig Program is Pleasing Feature

Two comedy sketches, both of containing a full measure of entertainment, two acrobatic and juggling performances and a pair of singing girls make up the Western vaudeville bill presented at the Heilig theater last night.

Don Dickerson to Take Ranger Post

Don Dickerson of Weiser, graduate in forestry at Oregon Agricultural college, has been named district forest ranger of the Siuslaw national forest at Florence, it is announced today by R. S. Shelly, supervisor of the forest.

Jennie O. Preuit is Dead at Home Here

Miss Jennie Olive Preuit born August 10, 1899 died here yesterday at 3:40 a. m. She came from Abilene, Texas, three years ago. She was a student of the University of Oregon and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preuit.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

Eugene Band Will Plan for July 4

Plans for the Odd Fellows band for Independence day will be talked over at a meeting of the organization tonight. The band has no definite engagement for July 4 as the plan of playing at Oakridge was not completed.

Alleged Deserter Will be Held Here

Word was received at the office of Sheriff Frank E. Taylor today to hold Angelo Messineo for the army authorities when his sentence expires. Messineo is said to be a deserter from Battery E of the Tenth field artillery stationed at Camp Lewis.

SCIENTISTS SPEAK OF TENNESSEANS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 18.—(AP)—Delegates to the session here of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, were told by Norman E. Coleman, president of Reed College, Portland, that they should take steps by education or otherwise to eradicate disputes such as that in Tennessee, over evolution.

Heilig Program is Pleasing Feature

Two comedy sketches, both of containing a full measure of entertainment, two acrobatic and juggling performances and a pair of singing girls make up the Western vaudeville bill presented at the Heilig theater last night.

Don Dickerson to Take Ranger Post

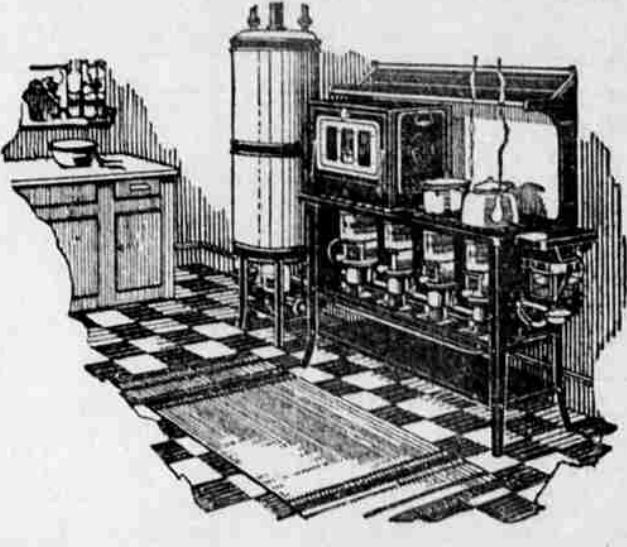

Don Dickerson of Weiser, graduate in forestry at Oregon Agricultural college, has been named district forest ranger of the Siuslaw national forest at Florence, it is announced today by R. S. Shelly, supervisor of the forest.

Jennie O. Preuit is Dead at Home Here

Miss Jennie Olive Preuit born August 10, 1899 died here yesterday at 3:40 a. m. She came from Abilene, Texas, three years ago. She was a student of the University of Oregon and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preuit.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

Drives out Drudgery

Heavy coal scuttles; dirty ash cans; sooty pots and pans—why have you put up with them so long? For years Perfection Oil Stoves with their clean, dependable service have been relieving millions of women of these housekeeping cares.

THE CLEVELAND METAL PRODUCTS CO. Oakland Branch—45th and Hall's Streets

PERFECTION Oil Cook Stoves and Ovens

For quick swarth water-when needed—the Perfection Oil Heater.

Mrs. C. L. Parsons Victim of Illness

Mrs. Margaret Parsons, wife of Charles L. Parsons, died this morning at her home, 116 Jefferson street north. Mrs. Parsons has been ill for some time from complications arising from paralysis.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

Heilig Program is Pleasing Feature

Two comedy sketches, both of containing a full measure of entertainment, two acrobatic and juggling performances and a pair of singing girls make up the Western vaudeville bill presented at the Heilig theater last night.

Don Dickerson to Take Ranger Post

Don Dickerson of Weiser, graduate in forestry at Oregon Agricultural college, has been named district forest ranger of the Siuslaw national forest at Florence, it is announced today by R. S. Shelly, supervisor of the forest.

Jennie O. Preuit is Dead at Home Here

Miss Jennie Olive Preuit born August 10, 1899 died here yesterday at 3:40 a. m. She came from Abilene, Texas, three years ago. She was a student of the University of Oregon and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Preuit.

County Agent has 2 Talks Scheduled

O. S. Fletcher, Lane county agricultural agent, will speak at a meeting of the College Crest community club Thursday evening, June 25, according to announcement today.

Tuesday Is Your LAST CHANCE to Secure

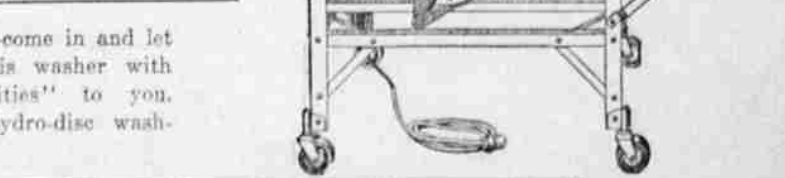

A Copper Washer for A Silver Dollar

Our Special Terms of $1.00 Down and Small Monthly Payments will be withdrawn Tuesday night.

The Paragon Basket with folding stand is FREE if you equip your laundry with an AUTOMATIC Washer not later than Tuesday—after that it will cost you $3.50.

Does 25 Washings a Week One washwoman wrote the manufacturers she had done over 1000 washings in eight months with her Automatic Washer—the equivalent of more than 25 years average family service.

WETHERBEE - POWERS

We Charge No Interest