forester, who leaves today for McKenzie bridge to be gone the rest of the month. Forester Lockard will lay out camp sites and direct the recreation plans for the district.

Old Flag Collected— J. G. Holt did not think the law would remember that $25 fine he had owed since last fall for hunting without a non-residence permit, according to Rodney Rouch, deputy state game warden. But when Holt was ushered into the county hoosgow and looked around he decided to raise the money. He had been arrested and fined last fall in justice court. Not wishing to send the man to jail, the justice allowed him to go upon his promise to bring the $25 in later. Holt never showed up. So yesterday Judge Wells decided to bring the incident forcibly to the mind of the offender, so he got out a bench warrant, and ordered Holt arrested and thrown into jail in default of the $25 fine, and serve one day for each $25. The game warden made J. Temple, chairman. Penalties according to the announcement of Frank Eberhart, Y. M. C. A. secretary. This is the initial meeting of the newly appointed membership committee, and will be presided over by Lester J. Temple, chairman. Penalties plan and membership policies for the year will be made, Mr. Eberhart stated.

RULES GIVEN TO AVERT DROWNING

"It is easy enough to stay on top of the water if you want to get ashore, just reach for shore, first with one hand and then the other. That's all swimming is, but if you want to drown yourself and get to heaven, reach for it with both hands." This is the statement made by Commodore W. E. Longfellow, assistant national director of the American Red Cross life saving service in a communication to Miss Grace Norton, executive secretary of the Lane county chapter of the American Red Cross.

"The human body is lighter than water," the Commodore explained, "and very little effort will enable anyone to lie on his back and paddle easily with the hands. In this way one can stay up for a long time. To rescue another by swimming usually requires either a good side stroke or a good breast stroke, as these have a kick sufficient enough to enable a swimmer to propel both himself and another person who is being controlled by the hands of the swimmer. In default of a better hold, the hair offers a splendid place to grasp with one hand while you swim with the other and both legs.

"If over-turned from a boat or canoe, stick to the boat. If the rest of the body is kept submerged a wooden row boat or wood and canvas canoe will hold up the heads of a number of persons for hours." Commodore Longfellow said that canoists around Portland, are rated among the most expert in the whole United States.

Most swimming fatalities occur during the months of May and June, because the water is still cold from the winter snows and ice and people are still soft from their indoor activities of the winter. Those who have been swimming all winter in swimming pools have kept their endurance in the water and are more nearly ready for emergencies. Every person should practice life-saving every time he goes swimming, the speaker said.

SCOUT TROOP TO RECEIVE CHARTER

Formal installation of troop 4, Boy Scouts of St. Mary's Catholic parish, will take place Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the troop headquarters at St. Mary's high school. Presentation of the troop charter will take place at this time. This troop, organized by George Miller, N. E. Nichols and Leonard Johnson, with M. F. Fleming as scoutmaster, has been meeting since February. During recent good weather the organization has been meeting in a secret rendezvous out of doors.

Last week the troop gave a Columbus meeting, showing team work in first aid, putting on bandages, drawing resuscitation, and a pantomime illustrating the first aid treatments for a boy with a broken leg.

The program tomorrow night will be as follows: Invocation, Rev. E. V. O'Hara. Singing of America by audience. "Functions of a Troop Committee," by C. E. Clark, scout executive. "Declaration of Principles of Scouting," and installation of troop committee by Rev. E. V. O'Hara. Talk by visiting scoutmaster, James Carr, scoutmaster of troop No. 1. Installation of Scoutmaster M. F. Fleming and Assistant Scoutmaster Carl Love.

Scout oath by the troop. Pledge of allegiance to the flag. Singing of Star Spangled Banner.

LABOR TURNOVER IS AT LOW POINT

An extremely low labor turnover featured last week's employment reports from the various fir producing centers of the west coast, according to the 41 employment service letter received at 41 headquarters in Eugene today, which indicates that the usual movement of men from job to job is at present at the lowest point of the year. The letter states that there is not a great number of unemployed men in the fir districts.

The over supply of most all kinds of help in the inland Empire, a condition which has prevailed here for the past month, has not perceptibly decreased, the letter states. Reports from the various districts follow: Medford—Not many unemployed men here.

Eugene—Resident help well employed. Considerable migration to and from Natron cut-off. McMinnville—Fruit ranches busy with full crews. Haying well along. Few unemployed in this district.

Portland—New jobs offered confined to construction work. Small labor turnover. Short time jobs for berry pickers and sugar beet workers giving employment to many men and women. Small surplus of common labor.

Famous Dancers to Appear in Eugene

Remember the dancers in the cabaret scene of "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse?" This remarkable group, known as the De la Plaza Trio, are coming to Eugene to the Hotel tomorrow night, through a change in the original vaudeville bill, announces W. B. McDonald, manager.

This act is just as it was given in the movies with Rudolph Valentino, and unusual in scenic effects to impart the right atmosphere for the Spanish dancing. Arturo De La Plaza, famous dancer artist, and Juanita, noted beauty, will also be featured in special numbers. Louis Frondi, the third member of the famous trio, is a distinguished Argentine baritone.

A marionette circus, "A Novelty" will also appear.

WELL ONE DAY IN BED THREE That Was the Life of Mrs. Hollister Until she Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Wyandotte, Michigan. "After my baby was born I did not do my own work for six months and could hardly take care of my own baby. I always had a pain in my right side and it was so bad I was getting round shoulders. I would feel one day and then feel so bad for three or four days that I would be in bed. One Sunday my mother came to see how I was, and she said a friend told her to tell me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So the next day I got a bottle and before it was half taken I got relief. After it was well again I went to the doctor and he told me how I was getting along. I asked him I was taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and he said it did not hurt any one to take it. I am always recommending the Vegetable Compound to others and I always have a bottle of it on hand." — Mrs. HENRY HOLLISTER, R.F.D. No. 1, Box 7, Wyandotte, Mich. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all women. For sale by druggists everywhere.
