SOCIETY AND CLUBS

By MARIAN LOWRY

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Holt have left for their summer home in the Willamette district to spend the summer weeks there.

About one hundred members of the College Crest Community club gathered at their clubhouse last evening for a dinner, short business session, and program. O. S. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, gave an address on "Community Interests and Rural Development." It was decided by the club to have the summer members divided into two teams to conduct a membership contest for one month, at the conclusion of which the losers will entertain the winners. The illustrated lecture to be given last evening by Lester Hallin was postponed until September. Last night's meeting was the last for the club until September.

At eight o'clock this evening United Artisans will meet in the M. W. A. hall.

Miss Katherine Goodpasture and Gordon Goodpasture motored to Portland this morning, planning to return this evening. While there Miss Goodpasture will take a whistling lesson.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. are to hold their regular meeting Saturday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock in the post rooms of the armory. At this meeting reports of the convention are to be given, and all members are asked to be present.

Willamette Court, No. 2, Order of the Amaranth, is to entertain with a picnic Sunday at Myers grove, for all members of the order and their immediate families. Those coming are asked to bring their own dishes. The picnic will be at one o'clock and during the afternoon various events will be scheduled. Mrs. Abbie Wheaton, Mrs. Emma Finlayson, and Mrs. Fred Chess are committee members arranging for the picnic.

Miss Lyla McMorphy is entertaining as her house guest for two weeks, Miss Ruth Akers of Wasco, Oregon. Miss Akers graduated from the University of Oregon this June, and is here to take advanced work in the campus summer session.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hanrahan and son, Marshall, Miss Bernice Black, of Palo Alto, California, and Mrs. T. W. Melton, of Beringham, California, are visiting with George W. Keegan at the Hoffman hotel while on a visit in the Northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Hanrahan are parents of Mrs. James Scripps, of Eugene, and Mrs. Hanrahan and Mrs. Melton are sisters of Mr. Keegan. Mr. Hanrahan is a building contractor in the southern city.

A historical church is being held today at Robinson's grove, seven miles from Eugene on the River road.

T. E. Sanborn Dead At Home in Eugene

Tracy E. Sanborn, 72 years old, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 670 Twelfth avenue east. He was a resident of Eugene for 14 years, and was a member of the Masonic lodge, the I. O. O. F., and the Modern Woodmen.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Ida E. Sanborn, he is survived by three daughters, Ethel L. Sanborn and Mrs. Ruth Baettichell, both of Eugene, and Mrs. Grace E. Walfeth of Clear Lake, South Dakota. The body is at the Branstetter chapel and will be sent to Clear Lake for burial next Sunday.

License Required For Camp Grounds

Although a number of camp ground owners in Lane county are complying with the new law that went into effect May 28, there are still several who have not yet applied to the state board of health for the necessary permit to operate, says a report from Salem. A fee of $10 is charged, of which $2.50 goes to the state and $7.50 to the county.

Certain sanitary requirements must be maintained, under the new law, in order for a proprietor to keep his camp grounds open for the tourist. Inspections are made by county health officers and infractions of the law, unless remedied, will result in a revocation of the permit and closing of the camp grounds.

SCOUTS TO EARN FOREST BADGES

Merit badges to be featured at the first annual Boy Scout camp at Mapleton July 13 to 27 were announced today by members of the camp committee. These will include forestry, bird study, botany, camping, conversation, life-saving and pioneering.

Some equipment has been borrowed from the Cascade national forest office in Eugene for timber cruising in camp, and the boys will learn from a former forest officer the methods of measuring the height and diameter of trees and how to figure board feet. To obtain a merit badge for forestry, a scout must be able to identify 12 kinds of trees when in leaf, or 10 kinds of deciduous trees in winter, and tell some of the uses of each; identify 12 kinds of shrubs; collect and identify samples of 10 kinds of wood and tell some of their uses; determine height and estimate amount of timber, approximately, in five trees of different sizes; state laws for transplanting, grafting, spraying and protecting trees; tell what are the effects of fires on forests; what are the three general classes of fires and how to fight each.

In addition to this each scout must tell how and when to collect tree seeds, how to extract seeds from cones, how to clean and store seeds, how and when to sow seeds, and how to care for seedlings and transplants, and to set them out. He is required to present a collection of at least six tree seeds.

"Because of the great economic importance of the timber industry in Lane county we are going to lay great stress on the forest merit badge," says the scout executive. "We hope to have a large number of scouts as candidates for this award."

Program is Ready For Church Picnic

J. P. Kavanagh, Portland attorney, judge in the circuit court in Portland for a number of years, will be the principal speaker at the picnic of the central Willamette valley Catholic parishes Sunday at Bellfountain. A large delegation from Eugene is expected to attend.

The program which begins at 11 a. m. will include an address of welcome by Rt. Rev. A. Lane of Albany. Solos will be rendered by Hugh Winder and Miss E. Bristow of Eugene. A violin solo will be given by Miss Eileen Colbert, accompanied by Miss Edith McMullen of Eugene. George Hennessy of Portland will lead the community singing.

Luncheon will be at 1:30 p. m.
