

TROOPS LEAVE FOR HOME AFTER CAMP

MEADFORD, Ore., June 26.—The first of the Oregon national guardsmen in camp here since June 12 left for home this morning at seven o'clock. The first of the six trains carrying the soldiers departed at five o'clock. A small rear guard force left to clean up minor details. Last night Adjutant-General White, who presented the city with a flag, left today for Camp Jackson, Cal., where he will inspect the military branch of the Oregon national guard in training. According to General White, the encampment was highly successful, "without a single case of serious illness, no arrests for disorderly conduct, and while the weather was hot, it is a condition," he said, "that prevailed over the entire northwest."

General White also stated that in probability the encampment would hold here again next year. The outstanding feature of the encampment from an entertainment standpoint, was the motor caravan conducted by local citizens to Clatsop national park and Klamath Falls at Saturday, 2000 soldiers being on the trip without a mishap.

PARK CELEBRATION PROVES ATTRACTIVE

Considerable interest is being manifested in the Fourth of July celebration at the Eugene-Springfield Auto camp to be sponsored by the Eugene I. O. O. F. band. The fact that it is the only celebration in the valley, so far as is known, its accessibility to Eugene and Springfield, its two large shady groves, its wells of cold water, its large open air dancing position, one of the largest and newest in the country, make it an especial attraction to the young people who enjoy dancing. The caterers, a noted jazz orchestra has been engaged to supply the inspiration for the occasion.

Hon. E. J. Adams will deliver the oration of the day and those who know Mr. Adams' ability as a speaker together with the knowledge and experiences acquired by him at the national capitol the past few years may expect a treat.

Plenty of music will be supplied by the I. O. O. F. band during the day and evening, and the sport-loving public will be entertained during the afternoon with a variety of amusements. Prices are being arranged, and a program for the entire day will soon be ready.
