PORTLAND DAIRY EXCHANGE BREAKS

Butter prices took slight increases at the meeting of the Portland dairy exchange Monday night. Eggs were also somewhat firmer. Supplies of both butter and eggs were large but demands continued heavy and offerings were well absorbed. Announcement by F. J. Dixon manager of the cooperative egg association that they would hereafter sell eggs to retailers at 1c above exchange quotations brought matters to a head which have been brewing for some time. It is said that independents have been paying no attention to dairy exchange prices of late and that members of the exchange have been at a disadvantage as a result. The action of the association is expected to result in numerous resignations from the exchange which may mean that the exchange will practically be dissolved, at least as far as a price fixing body.
