

LAND SETTLEMENT IS DISCUSSED AT SECRETARIES MEET

Land settlement in all sections of the state will form a much larger part of development programs during 1934 than ever before in the state's history. It was brought out at the third session Wednesday of the State Association of Chamber of Commerce Secretaries, who are meeting at the University of Oregon this week for their eighth annual short course.

Progress of the land settlement programs now being followed in the state was told the secretaries by W. G. Ide, of the Oregon State chamber of commerce, and H. E. Cully, of Astoria. "Every local chamber is ambitious for industrial development, but this must come through agricultural development," declared Mr. Ide. "Our great need is for canneries, creameries, cheese factories, poultry

Kiddie Kanned Foods

Kiddie Kanned foods are specially prepared for infant nutrition under the expert direction of a graduate nurse skilled in infant feeding. They are superior in every way to vegetables canned under the average conditions and will meet the need of the careful mother who would not like to feed the ordinary canned vegetables. With Kiddie Kanned in the house, she need not stop her forenoon's work to wash, cook, and sieve baby's food. She may meet social engagements or go shopping with an easy mind, knowing that the maid has the proper food to give the baby.

SPECIAL DIETS

Kiddie Kanned foods are highly recommended for those who are on special diets. Delicate stomachs that find difficulty in digesting ordinarily prepared fruits, cereals and vegetables, though ground or chopped, will easily digest these sieved foods. Old people will be delighted with them, and dentists recommend them to their patients. The internal medicine specialists recommend and prescribe them.

Mrs. Esta Polley entertained on Monday evening at her home, Iowa. They were her cousins Mr. and Mrs. Keese, who are touring the west. They have been in California for the winter and are now on their way home. This is their first visit to this section and they are very well pleased with it. They will stop at several points in Washington before leaving this coast. Mr. Keese owns a large farm in Iowa and expects to be back there by the first of April to put in his crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stephens are moving here a ter being at Upper Camp Creek all winter. They have put up a tent close to Mrs. Polley's house and will live there during the summer.

Drug Cure is Asked By Convicted Man

Sentence of Roy Trunnel who recently entered a plea of guilty to a bad check charge has been deferred to Thursday at 1:30 p. m. Trunnel was brought before Judge F. Skipworth in circuit court Wednesday and admitted that he was a victim of morphine and asked that he be sent to the state asylum, rather than the penitentiary, that he could be cured. Judge Skipworth said that he would consider this.

Miss Margaret Woodson, local attorney recently admitted to the bar, made her first plea in circuit court in connection with the Trunnel case. Miss Woodson was appointed by Judge Skipworth to defend Trunnel. The girl attorney made a strong plea for her client.

Flapper Fanny Says: PRE-SEASON BALL GAMES SCHEDULED

Four pre-season baseball games for the University of Oregon nine were announced Wednesday at the office of Jack Benefiel, graduate manager.

The four games are against two other institutions, Columbia University and Willamette University and will be played on consecutive dates. All games are to be in Eugene.

Following is the schedule:
 Columbia versus Oregon, April 20 here.
 Columbia versus Oregon, April 21 here.
 Willamette versus Oregon, April 27 here.
 Willamette versus Oregon, April 28 here.

Spray Formula for Orchards is Given

Spray for apple and pear trees is advised now by C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector.

The following formula is advised by the inspector:
 No. 1—Lime-sulphur solution 3 gallons to 100 of water plus half pound of Copperas. Apply when the leaves around bud clusters are half to three quarters inch long.
 No. 2—Lime-sulphur solution 2 1/2 gallons to 100 of water plus half pound of copperas. Apply when petals are just commencing to open.
 No. 3—Lime-sulphur solution 2 gallons to 100 of water plus one pound of lead arsenate to each 50 gallons of water. Apply when three-fourths of petals have fallen.
 No. 4—Lime-sulphur solution 2 gallons to 100 of water plus half pound of copperas. Apply 15 days after No. 3.

If aphid are present in apple orchards add one pound of nicotine sulphate to each 100 gallons of water before putting in the lime-sulphur solution in No. 2.

In spraying DeAnjou or Comack pears use some of the standard brands of wettable sulphur instead of the lime-sulphur solution after spray No. 1.

Sermon Topics of Minister Outlined

Sermon topics of Rev. H. A. Schlatter of Portland, who is conducting revival services at the Church of God in Eugene were announced for the remainder of the week by Rev. C. K. Chapman, local pastor. Rev. Mr. Schlatter will remain in Eugene during next week also.

This week's themes will be:
 Wednesday—"The Primitive Church Organization," a chart talk.
 Thursday—"Binding of the Dragon and Raising of the Beasts," a chart talk.
 Friday—"Sowing and Reaping," this will be observed as Sunday school night.

a starter the Fisher company has agreed to offer one 48-pound sack and one 24 1/2 pound sack of Fisher's Blend flour in each of the three divisions.

The Proctor and Gamble people who make Crisco are prepared to offer large tins of this valuable shortening in each classification. The list of prizes has not been completed, but it will be announced in The Guard shortly. Watch for it.

There is only one stipulation in the cooking contest. All the goodies must be made from Fisher Blend flour. You may use your own recipes and pet trimmings and go as far as you like in getting a product that is artistic as well as practical.

You will be required to bring your baked goods to the armory by noon on Friday, April 6, the last day of the contest. The judging will be by competent experts, and the winners will be announced at the close of the Friday session and the prizes distributed immediately.

But there will be valuable souvenirs for all women who attend the school whether they enter the contests or whether they merely come to hear Mrs. Sexton and Miss Bailey.

For each day of the session, the Fisher company will have a specially printed cook book for distribution to all who attend the sessions. If you are present all four days you can get all four cook books and own the complete series.

On one day of the session, the Fisher people will serve hot scones to all comers. (This probably will be on Thursday). But there will be some special event for each day. Watch for the complete list because it will be unusually attractive.

Both Mrs. Sexton and Miss Bailey are working hard on their programs for the school, anticipating the largest attendance ever reached in this part of the north-west. Local merchants are working on a complete exhibition of domestic equipment in connection with the show.

Remember the dates, April 3, 4, 5, and 6. The place, the armory, Seventh avenue at Oak street. Handy to all bus lines and railroads and plenty of parking for everybody who drives her own conveyance.

LEABURG, March 21—(Special)—Miss Kathryn Goodpasture who is a student at Reed college, is spending her vacation with her parents at Vida.

Mrs. Hambaugh gave her daughter Geneva, a birthday party on Sunday afternoon. Her birthday was not until Monday.

According to the number of cars that went up the river Sunday, one would think summer was really at hand.

A delightful birthday party was given in honor of Geneva Hambaugh by her mother on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Hambaugh served salad and a large birthday cake, and gave as favors a little basket of candy Easter eggs to those who came. Those present were: Geneva Carter, Goldie and Junior Ruch, Fern Vance and little Laura Hambaugh. The children had a splendid time as it was almost like a summer day.
