

Charley Paddock in Trim for Comeback; Clips off Fast Pace

DEMPESEY MAY TRY TOO; OTHER SPORT GOSSIP CITES COBB

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, March 21.—(AP)—Of the two southern California speed kings upon whose ability much of America's Olympic sprint hopes will be erected this year, the blond veteran Charley Paddock, appears to be rounding into better spring form than the curly-haired youngster, Charley Borah.

Borah, the present intercollegiate champion, already has suffered three setbacks on the Pacific coast while Paddock has taken enough time off, lecturing, writing and movie acting to flash a lot of real speed.

Attired in "baby blue and white striped pants," as the account runs, Paddock dashed the century in 22.1 seconds and the furlong in 22 flat in a recent meet at Stanford. Paddock has tallied more points for Uncle Sam than any other American sprinter in his two previous Olympic trips. The stocky veteran's comeback will be one of the most colorful features of the Olympic campaign.

Charley has always been a big favorite around the city and his personality appeal to the track fans as much as Babe Ruth's does in baseball. There was a big cheer for "Paddock" from the French enthusiasts with the accent on the syllable—every time the veteran trotted on the Olympic track at Colombes four years ago.

Tunny-Rickard heavyweight combination may be entirely serious in counting Dempsey out of the picture this year.

Then again the promoter may be trying out a little silent treatment in the hopes that the ex-champion will change his mind and stage another comeback. No one knows better than Rickard how much it will annoy Dempsey to read about heavyweight plans in which he isn't included for 1928. The call of the ring is difficult to resist, especially if it happens to echo to a half million dollar tune.

"When it's in a fellow's blood, how is he going to quit?" remarked 40-year-old Ty Cobb as he donned his uniform for another season with the Athletics.

Fighting is in Dempsey's blood and always has been. At 32 he is still young enough to be in the thick of the fray. Corbett, Fitzsimmons and Jeffries were nearer to 40 when they quit.

Cobb's return to the game this spring also is due in large measure to affection for the veteran pilot of the Athletics Connie Mack. "Remember that day last winter in Philadelphia when I had a talk with Mack about playing," Cobb recalled in a recent interview. "Well I decided then and there I was through but my heart was in a fellow's blood, how is he going to quit. I felt I was getting old. It was hard to feel that way, hard to know that I was through. I remember now standing in that room after it was all ended. Suddenly the phone rang and I said, 'If that's Connie Mack, tell him I'll play for nothing.'"

This alliance of Cobb and Mack is a high contrast to the days of old when Ty as Detroit's big star was continually a thorn in the side of the Athletics, a fiery figure who needed police protection occasionally when he came to Philadelphia.

"In those days I played Cobb, rather than the Tigers," Mack once declared.

Johnny Farrell Wins New Title

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 21.—(AP)—Johnny Farrell, the "beautiful Irishman," from Mamaronock, N. Y., tucked away a 63 for his final round of 18 holes and added the $15,000 Laureus open championship to his titular hat here yesterday with a total of 274, ten under par for the 72 hole distance. Close on Johnny's heels came Bobby Cruikshank, with a 276. Farrell took down $5,000 of the big prize money, while the Scotch runner-up is $2,500 richer today. Joe Kirkwood, of Albany, Ga., also got into the major money making with a 276, which his third place 276 won for him.

Farrell's sensational exhibition yesterday paired eight strokes from Laureus par and was acquired by means of six birdies and an eagle with never a flight over regulation figures.

Farrell found the tiny Scot matching him shot for shot on the outward nine of the afternoon 18. Both moved in 30 but Johnny's inward 33 was 3 strokes better than the best Cruikshank could manage. Farrell's 63 also established a new course record for the layout.

CLEVELAND LOOKS TO YOUNG PLAYERS

(This is the 15th of a series of baseball stories dealing with first hand surveys of 1928 major league club prospects.)

By BRIAN BELL
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 21.—(AP)—Cleveland has current edition of the Indians of the American league in training and with it the classes of 1931 and 1932. There are 47 players in camp, ranging from the 18 year old Mel Harder to the 39 year old Grover Hartley.

Cleveland with a new manager and new owners is looking far ahead some two score players now in Cleveland uniforms will not wear this livery this season, but they are sure to don the colors again in years to come.

One of the minor league graduates has recently made good. Eddie Morgan, former Tulane baseball and basketball star who was a southern association sensation with the New Orleans Pelicans last season, has been given Tris Speaker's old place, center field. Morgan, fast and a hard hitter has established himself as one of the most promising players advancing from the minors to the majors this year. Charlie Jamison will again play left field and lead off, and Homer Summa who knows his right field well in Cleveland, will try to outguess that barrier through another season. Gerkin and Langford who have been in before, promise to remain as utility outfielders. Gil, a rangy young chap and Speer just as young and almost as rangy, will be heard from later. The veteran Geo. Burns will play first base and hit doubles. Lew Ponsessa will start at second base and consistent Joe Sewell at short. Johnny Hodapp will play third. Manager Peckinpaugh will act as an infield substitute as will his former team mate Aaron Ward. Carl Lind, another Tulane alumna has a chance to join Morgan in rooting for the green.

Liz Seewell will carry the bulk of the catching burden with Myatt and Hartley to help him.

Around Willis Hodlin, the club's outstanding club pitcher at 21, on whom pitching hopes are built. The Indians leading workman in 1927 and has rounded into good spring training form. If George Usher and Emil Leverson have recovered from their arm troubles of last year, the club should get good pitching for Shaute, Garland Buckeye, Walter Miller, Walter Brown and George Grant are returning to the mound. Billy Bayne, a smart left hander who pitched for Greenville in the South Atlantic association, has an excellent chance to become a relief pitcher with the Indians.

PENN CELEBRATION ENDS IN ARRESTS

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—(AP)—Fifteen University of Pennsylvania undergraduates, including the president of the senior clubs were arrested early today after celebration of Penn's defeat of Princeton for the eastern intercollegiate basketball league championship.

A disturbance in which 1,000 students participated took place in the section of West Philadelphia adjacent to the campus and it was not quelled until firemen drenched the celebrants with water from hose lines. For several hours, the students battled police reserves, tied up traffic and started a bon fire. Milk bottles were hurled and one policeman was cut by flying glass.

John McDowell, senior president, was arrested on a charge of inciting to riot and held in jail for some time before being released to await a hearing.

Belanger Wins in Portland Thriller

PORTLAND, March 21.—(AP)—Joe Lohman, Toledo, Ohio, heavyweight, proved himself a road show absorber last night in his 10 round match with Charley Belanger, Canadian light heavyweight champion here last night. Belanger won the decision. In spite of punishment absorbed, Lohman thrilled the crowd in the tenth round when he bombarded Belanger with an avalanche of haymakers that rattled off Belanger's ribs and head, but lacked the power to overturn him.

Bobby Lamar took the four round curtain raiser from Jimmy Wilde, of Winnipeg, in a close decision. Teddy Fox, Salem featherweight, added another knockout to his impressive string in the first round of his scheduled four round go with Jimmy Warfield, negro boxer of Seattle.

The six round special for heavyweights proved the highlight of the night with Jack James winning a viciously contested fray from Young Peter Jackson. Every round saw crippling punches to the jaw and head. Don Mack took the six round semi-final from George Hval.

DOUBLE KNOCKOUT ENDS IN TRAGEDY

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—(AP)—What seemed to have been a double knockout in a friendly boxing bout between two students in the University of Southern California gymnasium, turned to tragedy last night when it was found that one of the boxers was dead. The dead boxer was Michael Carnakis, 20, of Bakersfield, a sophomore.

His opponent, Philip Bromley, 19, of Los Angeles, was unconscious for an hour and 45 minutes after being knocked out in the furious exchange of blows. Fast and furious the boxers, both welterweight, pounded each other for three rounds. In the fourth they were engaged in a swift exchange of punches when suddenly, to the surprise of spectators, both tumbled on their faces in the ring. Bromley was the first to fall. Carnakis was declared the winner. Then attendants began to try to revive them. Carnakis was dead. Examination at the Georgia street receiving hospital by Police Surgeon Charles Sebastian disclosed that the dead boxer had once suffered a basal fracture of the skull. His death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, according to Dr. Sebastian.

AL KARASICK OUT TO HURL JAPANESE

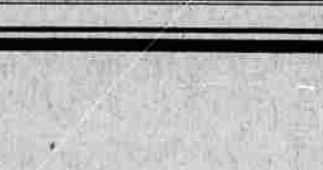

AL Karasick is going to throw Prof. J. Higami with either a flying reverse headlock or a flying winglock when the pair climb into the armory arena Saturday night at 9 o'clock. At least this is the statement Dick Reed, matchmaker, made this morning. Reed received a long letter from the Russian Lion with this statement included.

Al may do it and Prof. Higami, who is a graduate of To Kio, Japan, claims never to have been defeated via the headlock route. He is adept in the use of jiu jitsu and knows all nerve centers of the human body. He breaks torturing grappling holds by merely pressing a central nerve center—or so he claims.

Knowing this, as Reed made it a special point in a letter to him, the Russian Lion comes forth with his above statement. And he emphatically states that he will do it, and spoil the present claim of the highly touted Japanese. Higami just smiles at Karasick's statement, Reed says.

The professor of jiu jitsu will be an interested spectator at the Karasick-Clete Kauffman match in Portland Wednesday and will see for himself just how much the Russian knows about the ma game.

Higami is the heavyweight championship belt of Japan. He weighs but 172 pounds, but is stocky in build and strong.

SINCLAIR'S HORSES BARRED IN SOUTH

NEW YORK, March 21.—(AP)—The debarment of Harry F. Sinclair's horses from Maryland tracks caused a stir in turf circles today. The ban on the Maryland racing commission, taken because of the same scandal, is the first instance in many years wherein a large owner has been prohibited from racing his stock.

It is one of the few times that an outstanding operator of a thoroughbred track in America has been the subject of such action by reasons outside racing itself.

In communications to officials of the four racing commissions—Maryland—Pimlico, Bowie, Pines (Gracie) and Laurel—the Maryland commission said:

"In view of the widespread adverse criticism that has resulted from investigation of the United States racing commission regarding the actions of Harry F. Sinclair, the commission deems it advisable for its jurisdiction not to permit the starting of a horse owned by the Sinclair commission under the name of Mr. Sinclair or the name of any of his associates. The commission is in receipt of information that your racing commission is in receipt of similar information. It is requested that you advise the commission of any further action of the commission."

Interest is now directed as to whether the New York and Kentucky racing bodies will take official notice of the procedure of the Maryland commission.

Sinclair maintains one of the best stables in the country with investment of more than $2,000,000 in his horses and breeding farms. Jobstons, N. J. He has over 60 horses in training, 40 of which are two year olds.

Lester Bell Will Play With Braves

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 21.—(AP)—Their yesterday's victory over the Yankees was not half the cause for joy to the Boston Braves that the news that Lester Bell would wear a new uniform this season. There was so much pep in the Braves when they learned the High-Bell deal that they looked like the champions instead of the Yankees. The combination of Hornsby and Bell, it was predicted, would go a long way toward helping the Boston lads clinch the pennant. Bell did his best work while under the management of the peerless rajah.
