

CAMPUS STUDENTS ARRANGE MOTHER'S WEEK-END EVENT

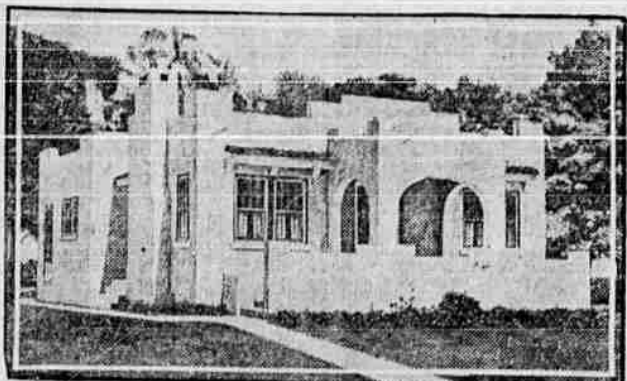

"Mother's Day" to be held on Sunday, May 13, in connection with the annual observance, will be one of the outstanding features of Junior Week-end at the University of Oregon this year. Junior week-end will be held May 11 and 12, and promises to be the best on record.

Luola Benze, of Heppner, has been appointed to head the committee in charge of entering the mothers of students, all of whom will be especially invited for the occasion. Events to honor mothers include a tea Saturday at the Woman's building, and special response services Sunday at the Music building. Mothers will be guests of honor at other Junior week-end events.

Traditional events as well as new features are on the program for the annual celebration. On Friday morning the freshmen and sophomores will vie in the annual tug-of-war. This will be followed by painting the Oregon "O" on Skinner's Butte, and by burning green "lids" worn by all freshmen. The canoe race will be held Friday evening on the millrace, and this year this event will be supplemented by music and aquatic features.

Saturday morning tennis and golf matches are scheduled, and in the afternoon Oregon and Washington will meet in track. The annual campus luncheon will be held at noon on Saturday. The Junior Prom, the outstanding social event of the year, will be held in McArthur court Saturday evening.

DR. P. A. PARSONS LEAVES FOR EAST AND SOUTH PARTS

On an extended tour to include visits and speaking engagements in a number of eastern and southern cities, Dr. P. A. Parsons, head of the University of Oregon school of social work in Portland on April 15, Dr. Parsons planned first to visit the University of North Carolina, studying the state department of public welfare there. He is scheduled to give a number of lectures in the school of public welfare for Dr. Howard W. Odum. The latter part of the week he will be at the University of Virginia.

Returning from Virginia, Dr. Parsons will stop at the national conference of social work at Memphis, Tenn., to which he has been delegated by Governor L. L. Patterson as the official representative of Oregon. On the evening program of the national probation association, May 1, Dr. Parsons will read a paper on "The Selection and Training of Probation Officers."

On the morning of May 14 Dr. Parsons will read a paper before a section of the social work conference, the title being "Undifferentiated Social Work in Oregon." He will return to the university here May 14.

Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, April 21.—(Special)—The typewriter which was stolen from the Southern Pacific depot last Wednesday night was returned to W. R. Silverwood Tuesday morning. It was probably due to the searching eyes of three detectives who have been working on the case since its disappearance. An identity of the thief will be probably be furnished later, due to some imprints on the rubber-roll which shows clearly some clue and also some finger prints will probably furnish a clue.

Even the living room of the Rio Verda has a closet off it to facilitate keeping things picked up. The refrigerator has its ice inserted from the outside. There are built-in cabinets, ironing board and linen closet, and breakfast nook. In addition to all this, there is a side entrance into the dining room, a cute little back porch and a spacious front one for guests to park on.

This neat little bungalow has three bedrooms and a most convenient bath arrangement, with a hall leading to it from which all bedrooms open. There is a cozy fireplace in the spacious living room, too, and windows just crowd each other to let sunshine in. The cost of this appealing bungalow is from $3000 to $7500. For further information concerning the Rio Verda write the Standard Homes Bureau, Colorado Building, Washington, D. C. (Copyright, 1928, NEA Service, Inc.)

Greswell

CRESWELL, April 21.—(Special)—The Star met Thursday evening in regular session. The members of the lodge entertained their children later in the evening after a short business meeting. A short musical program was given under the direction of Mrs. H. V. Mathew as follows: Selection on the piano by Jane Alice Everson; Ruth Mathew played a violin solo accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mathew. Winifred Moore sang a solo accompanied by his sister, Miss Harriet Moore. Francis Everson played a violin solo accompanied by Harriet Moore on piano; Mrs. Mathew sang a solo accompanied by Francis Everson on violin and Harriet Moore on the piano. All numbers called for an encore. Mrs. Gertrude McDaniel and family and Mrs. John Cossman from Eugene local members attended. A committee consisting of Mrs. J. E. Noland, Mrs. Bert Dersham and Mrs. N. E. Steele served refreshments of ice cream and cake. The rest of the evening was spent in real sociability and all singing old-time songs.

Miss Cleo Weber is home now after an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Unice Robinson at Salmon, Idaho, her sister coming back with her for a visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Weber.

number of solos, S. W. Harroison, a Los Angeles ukulele player, furnished late songs hits and monologues. A local talent was represented by Miss Geraldine Jones, pianist and several numbers by the high school orchestra, directed by Miss Josephine Getchell.

Although the opening of the fish season Sunday was confronted by bad weather a few of the veteran fishermen around here had fairly good luck. George Williams and Delbert Cartwright, experienced anglers, ranked highest in the catch Sunday bringing in a string of forty-two fine trout.

Mr. T. G. Cowgill now of Lebanon, was honored by the Eastern Star chapter here Wednesday evening giving a short program and banquet and presenting her a set of beautiful painted handkerchiefs as a token of esteem and lodge fellowship. Mrs. Cowgill is a past conductress and lately removed to Lebanon after several months here in Eugene.

Those taking part in the program and their acts were Mrs. R. W. Douglas, piano solo; Miss Josephine Getchell, vocal solo; Mrs. Charles Hopp, piano solo; Mrs. Martha Stas, piano solo; Mrs. A. Y. Vandyno, piano solo; Mrs. Anna Harrison, piano solo; Mrs. Edna Swartz, piano solo; Mrs. Carl Girard, piano solo; Mrs. Clara Taylor, piano solo; Mrs. Clara Walker, piano solo; Mrs. Alice Done, piano solo; Mrs. Carrie Jarrett, piano solo; Mrs. Luellen Black, piano solo.

The funeral occurred here Thursday afternoon of Jerry Schooling, pioneer resident of Harrisburg, who died near Redmond Tuesday, April 18. Jerry Schooling was born near here January 9, 1857 and was past the 71-year mark when he died. It was reported that he was found in his cabin alone, unconscious Sunday and since he was given medical attention until his death Tuesday morning. It was thought that his death was caused from influenza, though he has been in poor health for some time. Jerry Schooling was married but once and left no children. About forty-five years ago he moved near Prineville where he engaged in stock raising, mostly sheep raising. Services were held at the Methodist church with Rev. Theo. Mitzner officiating. Interment was made in the O. O. F. cemetery. The deceased was a member of the local Odd Fellow lodge for some time. The deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Schooling of which there were four sons, the family, one of whom, W. A. Schooling, still residing here and another J. S. Schooling, who was in California when last heard from here.

A number of churchgoers of this place and vicinity are delegates this week to various religious conventions. Rev. A. L. Metcalf of the Lake Creek South Methodist church attended the annual league conference at Medford, the Lake Creel league sending Miss Lillie Rickard of the Alford vicinity as its representative. The Christian church here sent Miss Marjorie Walker to The Dalles Thursday morning as their delegate to the state Christian Endeavor convention there over the week-end. Friday evening, Rev. T. R. Mitzner, accompanied by the Misses Merle Hughes and Irene Morgan, went to Creswell to attend the district Epworth league meet dated there until Sunday evening. Rev. H. Merdort is expected to occupy the M. E. pulpit here during Rev. Mitzner's absence.

Mrs. Doela Collins, who has been in Portland on the typical tourist's months, is here for an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cartwright and among other relatives. She is gaining but not in the best of health as yet.

The entertainment given here Thursday evening in the I. O. O. F. theater was well attended. It was for the purpose of raising money to issue 10000 advertising books to Albany chamber of commerce exploiting Lin county resources. Ted Roy, the singing blacksmith of Corvallis, sang a
