Left—Mrs. Francis Bellar (Lillian Manerud) who is visiting here from Seattle with relatives and friends. Many affairs are being given in welcome to the visitor.

Right—Mrs. Sidney Burnett of San Francisco who has been honor guest for several of the interesting events of the two weeks past. She formerly resided in Eugene.

By MARIAN LOWRY

THE presence of visitors has been stirring lively interest in entertaining for the week.

The two months following Easter, while clubs are still meeting, school it not yet out and vacation time still in the dim future, are busy with many benefits.

Three events mark the calendar for the near future on the campus, Junior Vod-Vil April 27 and 28; and Junior Week-end and Mothers' Week-end, combined for the dates of May 12 and 13.

MRS. BUBB HOSTESS

Mrs. John P. Bubb entertained informally at her home Wednesday afternoon when her hospitality included invitations to guests for two tables of bridge.

Fortnightly Benefit is Large Event

One of the springtime's most elaborate social events was the annual benefit bridge and sewing party of the Eugene Fortnightly club given Friday afternoon in the beautiful chapter house of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, Millrace and Hilyard streets. Hours were from two-thirty o'clock on.

Forty-six tables of bridge and sewing were reserved and some seventy-five or more guests called for tea later.

The rooms were profusely decked in large baskets of Scotch Broom, lilacs, iris, apple blossoms, and tulips. The tea table was especially lovely with its large centerpiece of pink, lavender, and yellow Darwin tulips, combined with asparagus fern. A handsome imported tea cloth of Venetian embroidery and filet was used for the cover. Four tall yellow tapers set in cut glass candlesticks with prism were used with the centerpiece.

Receiving the guests at the door were Misses Corinne Carpenter and Marjorie Wilhelm.

To welcome the guests were Mrs. Dan E. Clark, Mrs. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. George DeBar.

Taking tickets were Mrs. W. F. Gilstrap and Mrs. Grace Van Boskirk.

Hostesses in the bridge rooms were Mrs. J. H. McKinley, Mrs. Kenneth E. Hudson, Mrs. O. F. Stafford, Mrs. W. R. B. Willcox.

The hostesses in the sewing rooms were Mrs. W. G. Beattie, Mrs. C. S. Williams, Mrs. Flora Macdonald, Mrs. Idaho Campbell.

Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. E. O. Potter, Mrs. Dugald Campbell, and Mrs. F. M. Wilkins poured.

Assisting in serving were Misses Helen Fenstermacher, Maxine Glover, Carolyn Lambirth, Norma Stoddard, Nancy Luckel, Elizabeth Kress, Harriet Atcheson, Nancy Mildred Reynolds, Jane Cookman, Margaret McGee, Lora Talent, Virginia Van, Edwina Grabel, Ruth Harbaugh, Nina Grosscup, Marion Grosscup, Susie Somerville, Lucille George, Nancy Lou Dutton, Louise Hollenbeck, Joyce Maddox, Jane Cullern, Lois Johnson, Louise Pierce, Lois Pierce, Catherine Van Stuyver.

The party was especially notable because of the number of parties given by prominent women. Among hostesses entertaining at special groups were Mrs. R. H. Pierce, Mrs. Addie Osburn, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. W. H. Brooke, Mrs. W. R. B. Willcox, Mrs. Adelaide Lilley, Mrs. George Wilhelm.

Miss Celeste Campbell delightfully entertained the guests during the tea hour with several piano selections.

Mrs. Blaine H. Hovey, Mrs. J. H. McKinley, and Mrs. Kenneth E. Hudson were in charge of the party arrangements.

Mrs. Idaho Campbell had charge of reservations; Mrs. Kenneth E. Hudson had charge of tally cards designing them all herself with the club's name and the event on the cards; Mrs. Frank Fay Eddy had charge of prize committee; Mrs. Whitton Swafford, Mrs. W. F. Gilstrap, table numbers and names; Mrs. George Wilhelm and Mrs. F. M. Wilkins, refreshments; Mrs. Kenneth E. Hudson, Mrs. J. H. McKinley, Mrs. Josephine Stewart, Mrs. W. R. B. Willcox, decorations; Mrs. E. T. Hodge, Mrs. L. O. Wright, table and chair committee; Mrs. Robert Merrill, Mrs. W. H. Brooke, Mrs. A. Ella S. Stearns, lunch cloth and card committee.

Each year the Fortnightly club gives such an event for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund of the State Federation of Women's clubs with which it is affiliated.
