Rob Roy is Disciplined By President; Collie Gets his Lessons Well

Dog Isn't so Good When it Comes to Being An Aide to Fisherman; Better Now

SUPERIOR, Wis., July 21.—(AP)—To be left behind by one's best friend is tough, but when the pal who deserts you happens to be the president of the United States, it is just too much. Rob Roy's eyes said that and more as President Coolidge stepped from his canoe after a morning's fishing trip. The Collie and Mr. Coolidge have been inseparable since their arrival immediately by the active International. It was decided at the session here Saturday. This will be the first definite phase of the Child Welfare program to be adopted by the International order. The Child Welfare program will include development of Boy Scout work and other forms of work with children. The annual installation banquet, to be followed by the annual ball, will be held at the Eugene hotel Saturday evening. Preceding the installation of national officers Elmer L. Shirrell, dean of men of the University of Oregon, will speak on "The Young Man in Community Service." Dean Shirrell's topic is the keynote of the convention this year, and he is expected to sum up the activities open to young men in various communities. At the session Saturday morning various amendments to the national constitution were passed on. These had to do mostly with policies of expansion, a program of which will be entered on during the coming year. The national organization was also authorized to adopt a national program of service in communities. This (TURN TO PAGE 10)

HIGHWAY BOARD ASSURES COUNTY OF COOPERATION

Completion of State highway No. 28 from Mapleton to Florence. Completion of the five-mile improved section of the same highway at the other end just west of Junction City. Completion of the lower McKenzie highway to state standards. Completion of the Willamette highway to Oakridge first, and later to a junction with the Dallas-California road in Eastern Oregon. Completion of the Roosevelt highway across the western coast line of Lane county. Of these things member of the County Chamber of Commerce and the Lane county court received definite assurance Friday from the members of the state highway commission who visited Eugene to talk over frankly what all highway construction in this part of Oregon. Although pointing out that the commission could not make specific commitments as to time of completing any of these operations, that being dependent on how soon the commission has funds and how soon the county can provide its share of expense, H. B. Van Duzer, chairman of the commission definitely disposed of rumors that the commission had no intention of completing some of the "work here." "These highways," said Mr. Van Duzer, "were all part of the original (TURN TO PAGE 10)

African Sax Player Has To be Good

CHICAGO, July 21.—(AP)—Musicians in general and saxophone players in particular, whose harmony is not of the best, should avoid West Africa in concert. Sittling the mouth of musicians faulty in this regard is a favorite practice among savages in the Congo region, West Africa, said Wilfred D. Hamby, assistant curator of African ethnology at the Field museum, who yesterday set up a new exhibit of large wooden drums from Cameroon. Other African methods of punishing the musician who produces displeasing sounds, Mr. Hamby said, were slicing off his ears or chopping off his hands. But the saxophone is unknown in African wilds, so far as Mr. Hamby knows.

AMERICANS DEFEAT ITALIAN NET STARS

ROLAND GARROS STADIUM, AUTEUIL, France, July 21.—(AP)—America today defeated Italy in the intersession final of Davis cup play and thereby won the right to play the French holders of the cup here beginning next Friday in the challenge round for the trophy. The American victory, without the services of Bill Tilden, was scored in straight sets in straight matches. The American doubles team of George Lott and John Hennessey won the deciding match today by defeating the Italians, Baron Humbert de Morpurgo and Flacio Gallini, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2. America won the first two singles matches in impressive style yesterday. Pro-Tilden sentiment among the tennis fans was displayed in an ovation accorded Big Bill when he took to the stadium courts after the doubles match, beating Jacques Brugnon, French Davis cup player, 6-1, 8-6, in two exhibition sets in sparkling contrast to the previous play of the last two days. I must keep in condition. I am ready for any developments, good or bad," Tilden remarked smilingly prior to the exhibition when asked about his chances of playing against the French next week. Big Bill then proceeded to thrill the gallery with his full battery of dazzling strokes, clearly demonstrating how much strength would be added to his game by bringing back to the American challenge round hopes by the French Davis cup player, 6-1, 8-6, in two exhibition sets in sparkling contrast to the previous play of the last two days. There is every indication that the Bohemian district is coming back. Mining engineers and geologists have agreed for years that the huge Bohemian district which contains nearly 100 miles square contains one of the richest (TURN TO PAGE 10)

SHOTS FIRED WHEN YOUTH IS ARRESTED

Two youths alleged to have been tampering with several cars on Sixth avenue west at 2:30 a. m. Saturday started to run on the approach of Officer Poillet of the night police. Orders to halt failed to reduce the chances of playing against the French next week. The officer fired two shots at the fugitives to scare them into a stop but they only ran the faster and then separated. Each going in a different direction. DuBert Barthelemy, who gave his address as Junction City was arrested. The other youth made good his escape. The pair are alleged to have stopped and tampered with two parked cars and later a truck near Sixth avenue and Carlton street. Finger prints of Short were taken by Sergeant Julian Strait and an investigation will be made as to his previous record.

Million Dollars Lying Loose Viewed on Trip

By W. M. TUGMAN (Managing Editor of The Guard) of Grone mountain and walk from there to the top of Grone mountain the other way and walk down. It's a tossup. This is the famous Bohemian mining district, once one of the busiest and richest mining camps in the world. Old timers say that more than $20,000,000 in gold bullion was taken out of it in the rainy days of the late nineties and early hundreds. And all you have to do to reach that spot is go out the Row river to the Red bridge at the mouth of Sharp's creek, turn south four or five miles to the old settlement at Mine Hill, shift into low gear, bear down on the east and pull seven and a half miles straight up to an elevation of about 5900 feet on the ridge between Grone mountain and Fairview mountain. There's an alternative route. You can go about three miles farther out the Row river road to the Diston bridge and turn up Frank Brice creek past the old warehouse and Harry Parker's resort at Lundpark to the old Champion mill on the side (TURN TO PAGE 10)

POWER WORK IS FOUND BIG UNDERTAKING

Biggest Crane and Derrick Ever Used in State Are on Job

By SIDNEY C. JENKINS The word "big" is going to enter into descriptions of the McKenzie river hydroelectric power construction a lot. Everything up on the Leaburg power site is big. "It isn't a stupendous undertaking," said J. W. McArthur, supervising engineer, "but one has to see it to realize just what the construction amounts to. It is not nearly so large as the city of Seattle project on the Skagit river, yet means just as much to the city of Eugene. The biggest lifting crane and the biggest derrick mast ever used on a project in the state of Oregon, is being erected on the site of the power house now. (TURN TO PAGE 10)

PUBLIC IS INVITED FOR INSPECTION OF NEW PHONE PLANT

Next Friday, July 27, Eugene and Lane county en masse is invited to visit the new Pacific Telephone and Telegraph building, Tenth and Oak streets, and inspect the layout and equipment recently finished and installed at a cost of more than a half million dollars. From 9 o'clock in the morning until 5:30 in the afternoon, the company's local office, under the leadership of John L. Bland, manager, will hold open house to the public. Spick and span in all its shiny newness, everything is in readiness at the building and a smiling staff will be on hand Friday to guide the public through the place. No set program is being arranged, announces Mr. Bland, as it is thought best to give the entire time to the visitors that they may have ample opportunity to see what Eugene has as a telephone system. The local telephone building is declared to be one of the finest in cities of 50,000 population or under on the Pacific coast, and represents an investment on the part of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company of more than half a million dollars. Audited figures revealed now for the first time show that the building completed, cost $178,100. With the completion of the building about the first of the year came the installation of the central office equipment to the outside equipment, its cost was approximately $21,000. It consisted in the main of a little over one-fourth mile of exchange subway, and the placing of 3300 feet of 1212 pair underground cable. The entire improvement, including the land, was (TURN TO PAGE 10)

Collyer landed at the Spokane airport at 7:30 this morning and after refueling took off again for the east. The fliers, who arrived at Victoria, B. TRIBUTE PAID TO GENERAL OBREGON

NOVOJOA, Sonora, Mexico, July 21.—(AP)—The time of the funeral and burial services of General Alvaro Obregon have again been changed in respect to the wishes of the immediate family. General Obregon will be laid to rest at 4 o'clock this afternoon. General Obregon came home today to a silent demonstration of respect and sympathy unequalled in all his brilliant earthly career as a soldier and statesman. Tribes of stolid Yaquis and Mayas, three thousand federal Mexican troops and many more thousands of the people of all Mexico, were gathered today to meet the body of their chief and escort it to a final resting place. Funeral services, in charge of the military and as simple as the hardy farmer of Cuajmas could wish will be held this afternoon at the little village of Huastampas, Obregon's birth place. An added touch of tragedy to a scene already almost over-laden with evidences of grief, was the collapse again of Senora Obregon this morning as the funeral train slowly crept into the railroad station at Novojoa. The widowed mother of several children was inconsolable and an American physician, Dr. V. A. Smelker of Nogales, Ariz., was called to attend her.

HERDER IS SIGHTED AT GOLDENDALE

Railroad Agent Says That He Saw Suspect on East-Bound

Trains Watched; Portland Still is Ready for Quick Action

PORTLAND, Ore., July 21.—(AP)—Search for William Herder, 20, in connection with the Willouet Creek, Ore., postoffice robbery and killing of a deputy sheriff, shifted to Washington today when information was received from Goldendale that a man answering Herder's description had been seen near that city yesterday. Sheriff Hurlburt was advised by telephone today that Herder was recognized by a Spokane, Portland and Seattle railway agent late yesterday on an east-bound train. Goldendale officers said the agent was positive of his identification. Local officers were in touch with railroad agents, and all trains along the line to Spokane were being watched. Police and sheriff's deputies for 80 hours have maintained a dragnet around Portland, and many of the officers expressed the opinion that Herder was still hiding in Portland. Frequent telephone taps have been run down by officers and three squads of armed motorcycle policemen were ready to act promptly on any clue that might develop. Officers said they had definite information that Herder was seen in Portland Saturday Sunday, Monday and Wednesday of this week. A deputy sheriff and one member of the bandit trio, Joseph W. Blahop, were killed in the gun battle following the holdup. Peter Stroff, the prisoner number 1, was captured at a farm house near the scene of the holdup several days after the robbery. Stroff and Blahop were also in Portland. The three had prison records. Stroff's confession implicated Herder.

SUSPECT RELEASED

CONDON, Ore., July 21.—(AP)—A man taken into custody here late yesterday on suspicion of being John Meek, wanted at Klamath Falls on a murder charge, was released today after two officers from Klamath Falls declared the suspect was not the fugitive. The district attorney and a deputy sheriff of Klamath county, after an all night ride, arrived here today, and after being shown the prisoner said he was not Meek. The prisoner answered several features of Meek's description, including a scar over one eye. The suspect was taken into custody at a road construction camp near here late yesterday after Sheriff Logan had been informed that the man probably was the Klamath Falls fugitive. Coffey has been sought since last December when Johnnie Ansel was slain in a store robbery.
