avenue east, is here for a two weeks' visit from Long Beach, California.

Back From Vacation—... Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Iddings, the former from the local postoffice staff, returned Friday evening from a vacation trip of two weeks. They were accompanied by Mr. Iddings' sister, Mrs. George Foster and daughter, Ena, of Molalla, Oregon, on the trip. The party went from here July 11 to Elk lake. After four days there they went down the Skyline trail to Lava lake, Big Calf, passed Odell lake, Craven lake, spending one night at Diamond lake, and on to Crater lake. They then went up the The Palisades California highway to Bend and Redmond and on to Portland, returning to Eugene from there. "Excellent roads, a wonderful scenic route," reported Mr. Iddings in a visit at the Guard office Saturday. It is well worth one's time to take the trip, he said.

Services Given—... Subject for the pre-millennial campaign services being held for Sunday will be: "The Pre-Tribulation," "Demons Like Locusts," "Power Like Scorpions," "No Harm to the Things Which Sustain Life," "Hurt Only Those Who Have the Seal of God on Their Foreheads," "Should Not Kill Them But Should Torment Them Five Months," "Their King the Angel of the Abyss—Abaddon or Apollyon," "Men Shall Seek Death and Shall in No Wise Find It," "The Four Angels at the River Euphrates," "Two Hundred Millions of Fallen Angels, Following Them," "Fire, Brimstone," "Third Part of Mankind Killed." (Rev. 9th.)

Recital to be Given—... At the violin recital to be given in the Unitarian church Sunday evening by Harmon Gehl of St. Lawrence University, Mr. Whit-smith, minister of the church, will give a fifteen minute address on "Religion and the Public School Teacher." An offering will be taken. The recital will begin at eight o'clock.

Leave for Yellowstone—... Dean and Mrs. John Straub are leaving for Yellowstone national park where they will spend two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Eaton of Iowa will occupy their home until their return.

Strange Bug Found—... A gray and black bug, or beetle more than an inch long, with impregnable looking pincers and legs was found by John Straub on the corner of Willamette and Tenth avenue. He presented it to the Guard, where it remains as yet unidentified.

Back From Bandon—... Mr. and Mrs. G. M. deBroekert have returned from an outing at Bandon, and left Saturday morning to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McAllister of Eugene at their summer home at Blue River.

Mrs. Stam Coming—... Mrs. J. B. Stam and three children of Seattle will arrive Saturday afternoon to spend a week or 10 days visiting Mrs. Stam's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey. A few days will be spent at the coast.

Leave for Panama—... Dr. John Landisburg, his sister, Mrs. Anne Landisburg Beck, John Stark Evans are leaving Thursday, July 26, for San Francisco, Cuba, Jamaica and Mexico. They will motor to California in Mr. Evans' car.

Boys Taken to School—... John L. Marsh, juvenile court officer, went to Salem Friday to take a boy to the state school for feeble minded.

Miss Konkel at Office—... Miss Beth F. Konkel, executive secretary of the Lane County Health association, has returned to her office after her annual vacation. Part of the time was spent at Seattle and Puget Sound points.

Spray Advice Given—... C. E. Stewart, county fruit inspector, is advising orchard owners to spray for the codling moth next week. A spray of one pound of lead arsenic and 50 gallons of water is recommended.

Army Discharge Filed—... The United States service discharge of Fred M. Brown was filed for record Friday at the office of the county clerk.

Mrs. Jack Wright has been ticket seller at Oakridge theater for past three years has given up the position.

Franklin Nelson who has been quite sick with the whooping cough is improving slowly.

Mrs. Ed West is entertaining her father, Mr. Shultz, from near Portland.

Mrs. Albert Fine is reported as being a little better, according to word received by her brother. She is still in very critical condition.

Ed West received word that house on his ranch near Marion, Ore., was burned to the ground. Mr. West went out to see about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McAtee from Eola spent Tuesday with O. McAtee and family.

Edward Meacher left his campfire burning at Taylor Burn on the Cascade forest while he went fishing. Mrs. Crabtree, forest patrolman stationed at Box Canyon discovered the fire and cited Mr. Meacher to appear before the justice court at Bend. Meacher was fined five dollars and fined and warned by the judge to be more careful with his fires in the future. Taylor Burn is an area between Erma Bell lakes and Waldo lake near the summit of the Cascade range. It is reached from Crain Prairie by a rather difficult mountain road, and is a favorite recreational area for people on the east side of the range. A forest fire starting at this point would destroy much of the recreational value of the high country besides the damage to timber and stock range.

18 BABIES ENTER 'MOVIE' CONTEST

Eighteen babies are now registered in the "Better Babies" contest to be run at the Meltdown theater. Five more had been registered by closing time, 10 o'clock Friday evening, bringing the total to 18. The babies are to be filmed for motion pictures the coming week when Don Isham, Hollywood director, will come with his staff and equipment.

The contest is county-wide and the only restriction is that the babies be not over five years of age. Early registration may be made by telephoning the theater. All parents are invited to enter their babies in the contest. The youngest baby entered is Richard Loni Hickenbotham, who is only three and one-half months of age. The list of entries to date is: Olive Jane Dillard, Dorothy Jean Rosenberg, Shubert Seudrich, Richard Loni Hickenbotham, Margaret Jean Dennis, Betty Jean McKillop, Shirley McKillop, Connie Jeanne Stans, Joyce Anne Russell, Teddy Altman, June Cronin, Dorothy Bruhn, Edwin Koupal, Anna Currie, Barbara Jean Briscoe, Glenn Orlo Wilson, Tommie Russell Jr., Patricia Russell.
