

Trotting and Pacing Race Entries for Lane County Fair to Close

MANY HORSES OF NORTHWEST TO BE IN LOCAL EVENTS

Entries to all trotting and pacing races to be staged at the Lane county fair will close Saturday of this week, Aug. 25.

Majority of the race horses in the entire northwest will be racing this week at the big Southwest Washington fair at Centralia-Chehalis, Wash., and Mabel H. Chadwick, secretary of the Lane county fair will send a representative to Centralia to receive entries from the horsemen, and fill the various classes satisfactorily.

There is no shortage of race horses this year. Horses from Canada, Montana, Idaho, Colorado and California are now racing on the north Pacific circuit and the good purses offered here together with the early dates of the Eugene fair will bring a good share of them this way.

Events in the four days of racing, Sept. 5 to 8, will be as follows: Wednesday, Sept. 5—2:20 pace; 2:15 trot; running 4 1/2 furlongs. Thursday, Sept. 6—3:20 trot; 2:15 pace; running 6 furlongs—Eugene derby; running 4 1/2 furlongs. Friday, Sept. 7—Free-for-all trot; special pace; running 5 furlongs; running 4 1/2 furlongs. Saturday, Sept. 8—Free-for-all pace; special trot; running 5 furlongs. Other attractions will be held each day, including rodeo and auto polo.

Wilson Suspended For His Outburst

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Hank Wilson, the Chicago outfielder and National league home run leader, has been suspended for three days "for an outburst against the umpires yesterday," John Heydler, league president, announced today.

Percy Malone, Cub pitcher, drew a $50 fine for using "abusive language from the bench."

Wilson objected to a strike called by Umpire Pflanz yesterday as the Phillies were trimming the Cubs 11 to 6.

NICE POSE, GLENGORMELY!

One of the queerest jumps ever recorded by a camera is this, at the Cathedral Horse Show near Rye, N. Y. Captain Marshall was up on Glengormely when the pony got half way across the double hurdle, hung there and fell back on his haunches. But Glengormely, rearing, was still rarin' to go. He carried on and finished the race.

GIANTS AND CARDS BOTH WIN GAMES

By HERBERT W. BARKER (Associated Press Sports Writer) If John McGraw wins his 11th National league pennant this year, the Boston Braves, themselves assured of finishing no higher than seventh, can take a good share of the credit.

Some of the most important games in the New York Giant's machine came under McGraw's control after an apprenticeship at Boston. Without Larry Benton, Frank Hoan, Joe Genewich, Jim Welsh and Les Mann, it's a bit difficult to believe that McGraw, great manager though he is, could have the Giants into the leadership of a league boasting as many strong aggregations as does the National this year. All five of these regulars or semi-regulars made the trip from Boston to New York during the past year or so.

After Benton had pitched the Giants into first place at St. Louis Sunday Genewich enabled them to remain there yesterday at Cincinnati where he turned back the Reds, 5 to 3.

Nosing out the Brooklyn Dodgers, 2 to 1, the St. Louis Cardinals gained fractionally in the Giants whose lead dwindled to two percentage points despite their victory at Cincinnati. Dazy Vance, who had won seven straight games, was the victim of a ninth inning rally.

The Phils pounded four Cub pitchers for 18 hits and an 11 to 6 victory at Chicago. Four home runs were smashed out, one of them being Hack Wilson's 25th of the year.

The Braves and Pirates battled for nearly three hours before Hornsby's crew beat the Corsairs 14 to 11 in a slugfest in which 36 safe hits were recorded by the scorers, 10 of them going to the Braves, Burleigh Grimes, ace of the Pittsburgh staff, was lashed out of the box in the fifth inning.

In the American league, the idle New York Yankees added another half game to their lead over Philadelphia when the Athletics bowed to the St. Louis Browns, 9 to 2. Howard Ehmke and Joe Bush were batted for 18 hits, manush and O'Rourke getting four apiece. Meanwhile Jack Ogden was setting the A's down with four safeties. The A's now trail the Yankees by five and a half games.

Red Faber granted the Red Sox only six hits and the Chicago White Sox trimmed Boston, 6 to 4. Walter Shibles, 20-year-old recruit first baseman, started on the offense for the White Sox, getting four hits including a triple.

LOWSKI KAYOES GEORGIE SMITH

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Back in the form that made him a terror among the light heavyweights a few months ago, Leo Lomski of Aberdeen, Wash., knocked out Georgie Smith of Newark, N. J., in the fourth round of a 10-round match at Dexter park last night.

NATIONAL GUARD TEAM TO LEAVE

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 21.—(AP)—Fifteen members, including coach, captain and range-officer, will comprise the rifle team of the Oregon national guard which will compete in the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, and which will leave for that place tomorrow, according to orders issued by Adjutant General George A. White.

Lieutenant-Colonel Fred M. West and Captain Langdon H. Spooner, both of Portland, will be captain and coach of the team respectively, and Captain John R. White of Grants Pass will be range officer.

The shooting members of the team will be the following: First Lieutenant Adolphus A. Schwarz, Master Sergeant Dlee W. Griffith, Jacob Joss, Cecil R. Neal, Theodore M. Marks, Edwin W. Ashbar, Roy H. Fulton, William M. Ashbar, Walter H. Rucker, Edward J. Hardt, and First Sergeant John D. Rouse and Larry C. Genter.

All the shooting members are from Portland except Genter, who is from Grants Pass.

The expenses of the trip will be paid by the government.

Harrisburg Wins By Score of 18-17

HARRISBURG, Aug. 21.—(Special)—The ball game here between Harrisburg and Wendling was a new version of the comedy of errors, with a statistical report of 18 to 17 for the local aggregation.

One side would tie the score and then the other, the game running even to the finish. Wendling claims 18 hits and Harrisburg 15. The spectators got their money's worth, as there were laughs in every inning.

Two Women and Boy Seek Beds in Jail

Two women and a 16-year-old boy applied for places to rest their heads at the city police station Sunday night.

Miss Kallee Burgett, a hitch-hiker from Des Moines, Ia., was the first to be given a bed in the women's detention room at the city hall. A woman giving the name of Mrs. Belair of Portland, sought a bed also, and was placed in the detention room. Later in the night John Pezley, 16, of Newark, N. J., sought a bed and was given one in the jail corridor. All were released Monday morning.

SCOTT IS ADDED TO GIANT LINEUP

CINCINNATI, Aug. 21.—(AP)—John McGraw today announced the re-purchase by the New York Giants of the veteran right-hander, Ed Scott, from the Toledo club of the American association for Bill Walker and an unannounced challenger from Denver last fall. Scott always was a good "money pitcher," and McGraw desired his experience as an aid to the Giants in their attack drive, he said.

Scott's official baseball age is 34, though he is sometimes suspected of being older.

"POOCH" DONOVAN DIES

NATICK, Mass., Aug. 21.—(AP)—William F. "Pooch" Donovan, noted Harvard athletic trainer, a sprint star in his youth, and internationally known as an authority in many sports, died at his home here early today. He was 92 years old. Donovan was stricken at the Olympic games at Amsterdam and on the advice of physicians returned in advance of the team.

HOOVER STORY

republican standard bearer visited the kitchen where he once helped his widowed mother with the chores and then stepped out onto the back porch which overlooked a small garden in the rear and near which is a cistern and pump furnishing the water supply in dry weather. Some distance away Hoover saw the well from which as a boy he drew water.

Hoover wore a double-breasted suit of his favorite color, navy blue. Mrs. Hoover had on a white dress with a black crepe-de-chine coat with a cape collar and a small black hat. Mrs. Carran, who rode with the Hoovers from the station, also was in black with a black bonnet. Mrs. Scollers had on a black and white figured summer dress.

Senator Smith W. Brookhart called at the Scollers home to greet the candidate to whom he has pledged support. A number of Iowa congressmen as well as party leaders also were on hand.

Thanks Hostess As the Hoovers left the home after breakfast, Mr. Hoover thanked his hostess with a deep bow as he shook hands with her.

"It was a very delightful breakfast," said Mrs. Hoover. From the fireplace the party motored to the cemetery on the hill where Hoover's father and his mother are buried. When the caravan was a block away, all cars were halted save that in which the family rode. The party remained for a short time beside the graves.

Leaving the cemetery they passed behind the old brick high school building and there had a view for the first time of the mammoth tent beneath which tonight he will deliver the second prepared address of the campaign in which he will elaborate upon his farm relief views.

Continuing on past his birthplace Hoover drove along the Waspi-No-Noc creek enroute to the old swimming hole where he and his playmates delighted to paddle in mud and water.

PENNSYLVANIA OIL AT ITS BEST

The Finest Motor Insurance You Can Buy!

PENNSYLVANIA OIL is recognized by lubrication authorities as the finest oil in the world. It has lubricating qualities not found in any other oil—the qualities that keep a car running smoothly, silently month after month without repairs.

Richlube Motor Oil is Pennsylvania oil at its best—premium Pennsylvania crude refined by a special process that produces the highest possible lubricating qualities—that enables it to withstand the most intense heat in the motor without "breaking down."

The test of any oil is its condition after 500 miles use. Drain the average oil and you'll find it thin, watery, with all its lubricating power gone. Drain Richlube after 1000 miles and you'll find it "live," smooth, "oily"—still good for many miles.

Start using Richlube today! You'll notice a world of difference in the way your car runs—smooth, silent power—fewer repairs. Richlube is the finest motor insurance that you can buy!
