

Test an Eagle Shirt Measure for Measure

—Here's straight from the shoulder reasoning—We claim that an Eagle Shirt is longer, fuller, more skillfully cut and tailored than most shirts; that the stitching is finer, the buttons better, the seams more securely sewn.

We invite your critical comparison—measure for measure.

Then for further good measure we add Eagle Shirts are guaranteed.

In good fabric and in good style—Eagle Shirt prices start at $2.00

Program Announced

Subjects for a series of talks to be given over the Corvallis radio station, KQAC, under the sponsorship of the literature department of the State Federation of Women's Clubs have been announced to Eugene clubs affiliated with the federation. On Friday of this week, Prof. Leo J. Fairbanks of O. S. C. will give a talk as will Mrs. E. P. Mossman of La Grande. Next Monday evening at 7:50 o'clock a talk will be given on Japan by the young people through the sponsorship of the Portland library. On January 2 and 9, talks on China will be given by Mrs. Ruth Fargo of Salem of the state federation literature department.

Offices Leased

The Peterson and McCully real estate firm has taken an eight-year lease on the Central Offices on Broadway west, owned by the McMoran and Washburne company. A number of other firms have offices in the Central Offices, but the real estate company will occupy the larger part of the space shortly before the first of January. The present office of the firm at 632 Willamette street will be retained also for a time.

Sluslaw Chamber to Meet

The Sluslaw chamber of commerce will give a noon luncheon and vaudeville Saturday, Dec. 15, at Kyle hall, Florence, for chamber members and family. Each family will take a covered dish and sandwiches sufficient for its needs, also cups, forks and spoons. Luncheon will be at 11:30 a. m., with program following, according to J. C. Ponsler, secretary. This is the first annual chamber "jamboree."

Farm is Sold

A farm of 382 acres belonging to the Haynes estate, situated seven miles north of Corvallis, has been sold to J. H. Dery of Eugene, involving approximately $20,000 cash. Peterson and McCully, real estate company of Eugene, made the deal.

MR. Holt Away

J. O. Holt, manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers' association, left Wednesday morning for Roseburg to attend the meeting of the State Horticultural society. He will be back Friday.

Meeting is Cancelled

The December meeting of the Frances Willard Parent-Teacher association has been cancelled. The next meeting will be held in January.

Close Goodpasture Road

William J. James, superintending construction of the road to Goodpasture Island, obtained an order closing the road to traffic from the county court Thursday. Trucks hauling wood over the new graded road have cut it up until it is almost impassible, said Mr. James. The road will remain closed until it can be graveled.

Better After Operation

Mrs. E. C. Howe is reported to be getting along nicely at the Pacific Christian hospital where she underwent a major operation.

Warrant Call Large

School warrants amounting to $42,000 have been called for Monday by Mrs. E. A. Lundy, city school clerk. The call, said Mrs. Lundy is the largest in the history of the city.

est one made since she has been in office, and takes care of all outstanding warrants up to October 1. It leaves the total of outstanding warrants at $38,000, the lowest it has been for some time.

Fine Suspended

Louis Miller was fined $25 as a result of a complaint that he kept a dog which disturbed the neighbors with its barking. The fine was suspended by Judge Gilmore when Miller said that the dog had been taken out of town.

Club Plans Meeting

The Eugene RKO club is to have a Christmas party Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the chamber of commerce rooms. A Christmas tree will be a feature of the meeting. A program is also planned. Mrs. A. B. Dotson is chairman for the evening.

Auxiliary Plans Meet

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles is to meet Friday evening for a Christmas entertainment. Each member is asked to bring something for the Christmas grab bag. Mrs. George E. Wood is chairman for the evening.

JINGLE STORY

with Naomi's last line:

If there are presents you must buy.

It doesn't pay to stall.

You'd better get real busy now.

If you want any peace at all.

And, when you think about it, this is a pretty good idea. For last minute rushes bring on wrinkles and unpleasant thoughts.

Doris Newton of Drain, Ore., had what we thought an original line.

"And make your Christmas haul," and so she is given first honorable mention.

Honorable mention also goes to the following:

"Or some friend will get none at all."—Doris Edwards, 2134 Fairmount, Condon school.

"Just look at the calendar on the wall."—Anna Trapp, Eugene motor route B, Riverside school.

"Or you may be like a Ford and not go at all."—Billy Curington, Elmira, Ore. (Ouch! page Henry himself!)

"Or you'll get squeezed out tall."—Elma Gray, Eugene motor route B, Goshen, Ore.

"Or the children will bawl."—Elva Edwards, 2134 Fairmount boulevard, Condon school.

"In The Guard see bargains for all."—Adelaide Marsh, Nodi, Ore.

"Or you won't get any at all."—Ruby Wray, 363 Sixteenth avenue east, Patterson school.

"And don't try to fail."—Frank Miers, 1663 Lawrence street, Frances Willard school.

"Or Jim won't get a ball," or "Or there won't be none left at all."—Emma Wilson, motor route B, Willamette school.

"Or they won't be yours at all."—Ernest Robertson, Junction City, box 104.

"And buy a tie for Paul."—Hazel Dick, 750 Sixth avenue west, Geary school.

"And buy 'em presents all."—Robert Fulgarden, Eugene motor route A, River road school.

"Before someone gets them all."—Vilbur Hinkle, 837 Lincoln street, Washington school.

"Than not get any at all."—Ruth Hook, Springfield, Lincoln school.

"So, you'll get them all."—Carl Hufaker, 1822 Kincaid street, Edison school.

"Go out and purchase them all."—David Sigismund, Sutherlin, Ore.

"So Santa won't have a chance to call."—Ida Thiel, Cottage Grove, Central school.

"To get the best of all."—Mary Elizabeth Schiefer, 36 Fourteenth avenue east, St. Mary's school.

"Or be late when Saint Nick calls."—Mary Plueard, Cottage Grove.

"And buy just presents great and small."—Lola Newton, Drain, Ore.

"And get one for all."—Dorothy Callaway, 1628 Lawrence street, Frances Willard school.

"Or somebody will get them all."—Marguerite Plueard, 628 Birch avenue, Cottage Grove.

"Or you won't buy any at all."—Elton Duncan, Nodi, Ore.

"If you want any at all."—Patrick Plueard, 628 Birch street, Cottage Grove.

"And buy your presents all."—Floyd Tull, Marcola, Ore.

"And use the Shop-o-scene for all."—Dorothea Freese, Springfield, Ore. Lincoln school.

"And buy them one and all."—Robert Lockett, Fourth avenue west, Eugene.

"And do your shopping pronto."—Lela Edith Cole, Jasper, Ore.

Honorable mention in the number 14 jingle also goes to Billy Curington of Elmira, Billy McNeill of Eugene and Ernest Wayne Robertson of Junction City.

David Link Chosen Clerk 31st Time

David Link was reelected for the 31st time as clerk of Eugene camp, Modern Woodmen of America, at Wednesday evening's meeting.

Other officers chosen were: R. A. Denney, consul; J. E. Forest, advisers; Loy Rowing, banker; O. E. Palmer, escort; H. W. Granger, watchman; Joe M. Monroe, secretary; Dr. L. E. McDougall, Dr. I. R. Fox, Dr. H. H. Fields and Dr. B. F. Scieffe, physicians; W. H. Marham, trustee.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 26, since the regular meeting date would fall on Christmas eve.
