

Oregon Meets Washington In Last Conference Game Friday

WEBFOOT FROSH AND HUSKY PUPS TO PLAY PRELIM

University of Oregon will close its 1928-29 conference basketball season Friday night against the champion University of Washington quintet at McArthur court. By a mere coincidence, Washington opened its season against the Webfoots last month.

In Jiggs Jaloff, who is leading scorer in the conference, the average number of points scored per game, and Monty Snider, captain, the Huskies present the best pair of scoring forwards in the northwest. Billy Weinhart, Webfoot coach, has not yet decided who will guard these two leads from up north, but it probably will be McCormick and Bally, who not only are close checking guards, but also can hit the hoop with a certain degree of regularity.

As early in the season, Oregon's main problem is at center. Jean Eberhart, who has started at the post in the last five games, hasn't done so well in the last two and as a result the Webfoot mentor has had to do a considerable amount of shifting.

But that is not the only department that has caused the Webfoot mentor worry. His forwards have not been hitting the baskets as regularly as last year, although competition, admittedly, is much stronger. Gordon Ridings, who led the conference in scoring in 1928, hasn't been as effective this season, and so far has only 77 points for nine games, as compared to more than 100 in 10 games a year ago. As Oregon has lost its last two games by one and two points, it is easy to see what a basket or two might have done in the pinch.

Washington won nine straight games last year, but lost its final contest when it played Oregon. Weinhart will try to duplicate the feat, although the Huskies are stronger than they were a year ago, while the Webfoots do not seem to be as strong. One never can tell what might happen in this game. Oregon, for instance, defeated the Oregon State hoopers twice, and lost two times to Idaho. Yet Oregon State defeated Oregon twice and lost both games at the Astoria.

The Webfoot freshmen and the Husky babes will play the preliminary game, starting at 7 o'clock. Two weeks ago at Seattle the Washington scoundrels edged out a victory, 28 to 8.

At the request of the State Editorial association, which will be in session here this week, the main game between Oregon and Washington will not start until 8:30 o'clock, so the editors may attend. They will be guests of the associated students.

Ridings is leading the Webfoots in scoring, with Milligan and Jean Eberhart tied for second place. The scoring of the Oregon players in conference games follows:

Player	Ft.	Pt.	Pct.
Ridings	31	15	47.7
Milligan	27	9	33.3
J. Eberhart	28	7	25.0
McCormick	17	7	40.9
Bally	10	2	20.0
Epps	6	10	12.2
Horner	6	3	10.0
Edwards	6	12	13.0
Chastain	5	0	0.0
Hughes	2	1	5.0
H. Eberhart	1	1	0.0

WEBFOOT GOLFERS WILL GO TO FINALS

When the Pacific coast conference titular meet opens at Seattle May 10, the University of Oregon will have a strong contingent of golfers present. The Webfoots will enter a two-man team in the conference championships consisting of Don Moe, in all probability, and one other to be selected from a group of good players comprised of Dick Schroeder, George Will, Ike Staples, Bob Hammond, Happy Heikemper, Nelson McCook, Bill Palmer, John and Myron Gray and Francis Andrews.

A four-man team will be sent to Seattle for a dual meet May 4. A meet has been slated with O. S. C. at Eugene, April 20, and it is thought that a return meet will be scheduled in May at Corvallis.

The two leaders in a 72-hole tournament will be named for temporary first places on the Webfoot golf team. The tournament will be held some time within the next two weeks.

SPRINGFIELD HIGH DOWNS U. H. S. QUINT

University high school basketballers last night were defeated for the second time by the Springfield high school quintet, who played one of the best games of the season to score a victory over the campus school team.

Although the University high school five played a valiant game the Springfield team won with the decisive score of 33 to 18.

Two of University's high star players were out of the game, Lake, center and McCully, forward. Coaches of both teams played several substitutes throughout the game.

Springfield was led by Drain, Douglas county champion at Springfield Feb. 27, and Lebban at Springfield March 1. University high school has only one more game slated, with Eugene high school.

The lineup:

Springfield	University
McMurray 33	Oxner 13

BUNGALOW GARAGE DEFEATED BY ACES

After running usury even for more than half the game, the Ford-Sullivan Aces last night pulled ahead and defeated the Bungalow Garage basketball team on the Y. M. C. A. court Wednesday evening.

High point man for the Ford-Sullivan Aces was Libby, with 18 points. With nine field goals and only one personal foul Libby undeniably played the best basketball of the evening.

High point man for the Bungalow garage team was Swanson, with 10 points. Five field goals were responsible for his ten points, only one personal foul being called against him.

In another class a division of Lane county basketball games Wednesday night the Hounds won over the Wendling Wildcats with a score of 51 to 38.

The lineup:

Ford-Sullivan Aces	Bungalow Garage
Rabenstein, F.	3	1	2	7
Pollear, F.	3	2	0	8

FOOTBALL RULES TO SEE LITTLE CHANGE IN FUTURE YEARS

By GEORGE KIRKSEY (United Press Staff Correspondent) NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Little, if any tinkering will be done with the football rules in the future by the national rules committee, except to prevent undesirable features from creeping into the game, Dana X. Bible, newly-elected Nebraska coach and member of the rules committee, told the United Press Wednesday.

"We have the game now just where where we want it," Bible said. "When the committee, which is rewriting the present rules completes its task the result will be a standard set of rules which will govern the game for some time to come. Only such changes as are necessary to protect the essential and desirable features of the game will be made in the future."

The sub-committee expects to have its work on rewriting the rules in a clearer and simpler fashion done in time for the 1930 guide, Bible said. The members of this committee include E. K. Hall, W. S. Landford, Hill Roper, A. A. Stagg, T. A. D. Jones and H. J. Stegeman of Georgia.

Commenting on the rules changes for 1929, Bible said he believed they would improve the game.

"I have heard some comment against the new rule which causes a fumble to be declared dead at the point of recovery by the defense," he said. "Some seemed to think that this will take something away from the weaker team. I believe that the new rule will help the weaker team because the weaker team is apt to make more fumbles than the stronger team."

Bible foresees more open, offensive play and more handling of the ball under the new fumble rule.

"The new fumble rule is strictly an offensive measure," Bible said. "There will be more wide-open, daring plays than ever before."

Fewer tie games will be played in the future as a result of the new try-for-point after touchdown rule which places the ball on the two-yard line instead of the three-yard line, Bible said.

"Last season the opposing team was pretty sure that the offensive team would try to kick the goal," he said, "and all their players concentrated on blocking the kick. With only one try, I think you'll see more teams trying a plunge, run or pass. There is a new thrust now and I think the result will be more goals scored."

As for the new rule on the "screened" pass, Bible said that no offensive player not eligible to receive a pass would be allowed to go down ahead of the player eligible to receive the ball.

How They Stand On The Alleys

Winning two out of three games the County Court bowlers Wednesday night won from the Service Men in a match on the Eugene alleys.

High single game was rolled by Mercer of the Service Men, with 200. Crowe of the County Court team rolled high total of 611.

Tonight a double header will be played. The Mountain States team will meet Johnson's Furniture team at 8:30 and Wade Bros., and Eugene Hardware teams will play at 10 o'clock.

No match will be played Friday it was announced. The scores for the last night's game:

GEORGE KOSTONAROS THROWS TED THYE

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 21.—(AP)—George Kostonaros, Hollywood, evened matters with Ted Thye, Portland, here Wednesday night in their return wrestling match by taking two out of three falls from the ex-light heavyweight champion. Kostonaros took the first fall in 32 minutes 20 seconds with a series of headlocks. Thye clamped on one of his famous wristlocks to take the second fall in 5 minutes and 20 seconds.

Kostonaros' third and deciding fall came suddenly and unexpectedly and caused much discussion among the spectators. After slapping on one of his sawing headlocks, and bringing his hands up for the double lock, the Greek knocked Thye through the ropes. Just as Thye struck his head through the ropes and while Referee Wiles' back was turned, Kostonaros sprang at him, clamped on a headlock and when they landed on the floor, Thye's shoulders were flat on the canvas. Wiles awarded the fall to Kostonaros over the protest of Thye's second.

The time for the fall was four minutes and 20 seconds. Thye weighed 170½ and Kostonaros 180 3-4.

Nearly Mad With Rheumatic Pains!

"Nearly every day, especially in damp weather, I suffered terribly from shooting pains and sharp twinges in my arms and legs. Nothing gave me any relief, and at times I thought I would die. When I tried 'St. Jacob's Oil' it was with no hope at all. The very first application brought relief, and I have had perfect comfort since."

Used old "St. Jacob's Oil" certainly does relieve the pains and aches of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Neuritis, Lumbago and Neuralgia. This soothing, penetrating oil seems to reach right in through the pores and draw out all the pain and ache. And there is no burning of the skin. Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacob's Oil" at your druggist and try it out on any pain, ache, sprain or swelling.

SOUTHERN RESORTS OFFER GUARANTEES FOR FUTURE FIGHTS

By EDWARD J. NEIL (Associated Press Sports Writer) MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 21.—(AP)—The mantle of luck that seemed to shroud Tex Rickard's shoulders in life apparently has fallen in blanket fashion at his death over the entire Madison Square Garden corporation.

Scarcely a month ago the directors of the Garden organization, and even doubtfully Bill Carey, the two-fisted railroad builder who has taken Tex's place at the helm, argued for the feasibility of carrying out Rickard's dream of an outdoor heavy-weight contest in the south while winter gripped arenas in the north. The plan, when originated, seemed feasible to none but Rickard and even he had his doubts.

It is no secret now that Tex, before he died, told the directors of his organization that the battle of the everglades, featuring Young Stribling, the slugger Georgian, and Jack Sharkey, of Boston, must be considered in the light of his own personal experiment. If any profits were made on the affair, the corporation would receive them. Any loss Tex planned to foot himself.

Rickard, seeking to divorce himself slowly from the game that made him wealthy, had invested heavily in ventures here. Tex wanted to spend his latter years in the case of the south—Miami Beach was the choice of his future home. The dog-racing track, the Reulville casino and the rusty steel skeleton of a $1,000,000 recreation pier all are evidence of Rickard's belief in the solvency of the south.

He planned the fight next Wednesday night as a gigantic advertising proposition not only for his investments here but for the corporation as well. Tex once said he was willing to take a loss of $100,000 and consider it well spent.

And now from an entirely unexpected source comes the promise that the Garden corporation unwittingly has stumbled onto a new by-product of boxing, a discovery that may prove one of the most prosperous in the history of the sport instead of a financial failure.

So great has been the advertising that has come to Miami Beach through the battle itself, the influx of newspapermen and prominent visitors that other cities in the south are casting envious eyes at the publicity that has wonned the city even beyond the exciting days of 1925 and 1926. Already Bill Carey has received propositions from cities in California and

Other parts of Florida, but Tampa on the west coast seemed to have outdistanced all the rest.

Carey was amused at an unofficial offer of $500,000 from the rival resort to stage another heavyweight engagement next winter beside the waters of Tampa bay. The money was offered the Garden corporation, he said, merely for the staging of a match in the city without thought of a share in the profits. Although Miami Beach paid nothing for the privilege of staging the Stribling-Stribling match, indications are that the prosperity resulting will bring the society resort into the bidding for any return engagements that the Garden may play in the south.

EUGENE BOXER ON MARSHFIELD CARD

Willard Norton, Eugene welterweight, left Wednesday for Marshfield where he is matched with Frankie Warnke in the main event of a fight card Friday night. Jimmy Lee, Chinese student of the University of Oregon will fight Frankie Monroe of Hood River in the semi-windup of the same card.

Norton has been greatly in demand because of the spectacular showing he has made in the past few weeks, according to Herb Owen, Eugene matchmaker. Since January 1 Norton has won six fights, winning three of them by knockouts. It was this showing, Owen declares, that has made Norton so popular in this vicinity.

Warnke, who Norton will fight in Marshfield, also has a good record to his credit, having recently fought a draw with George Ingersoll of Astoria. This should make the Marshfield card interesting. Owen says the semi-windup, the Lee-Monroe fight, ought to be a good fight, also. Owen states, if advance information from the two fighters proves true.

HOLLYWOOD STARS ROUND INTO SHAPE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Manager Oscar Vitt of the Hollywood Stars, training here, expressed enthusiasm Wednesday over the performance of Bill Rummey, who although out of the game for some time, is driving the ball far and wide. Two of his lefty sways bounced off the top railing of the navy field bleachers, a feat seldom equaled before.

Maloney, a rookie from the Utah-Idaho league, showed to good advantage at second base and Tony Bernardo of the same league pleased the manager by the way he covered the shortstop position. Maloney is likely to get the berth of Johnny Kerr, drafted by the Chicago White Sox.

The first exhibition game of the Stars will be played Saturday against the naval air station nine.

PAOLINO FAVORITE

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Paolino Uzcudun, Basque heavyweight, and "K. O." Christner of Akron, O., have completed training for their 10-round bout in Madison Square Garden Friday night. Betting odds continued to make Paolino a favorite at 7 to 5.

Why Not "Preventive Banking"?

We hear a great deal, these days, about "preventive medicine." It's good sense, too. The idea is that we should not wait until we are sick to take whatever measures are necessary to insure our health, but rather than we should protect ourselves against disease by correct living and preventive treatments.

Let's apply the same principle to our finances. Instead of letting our affairs drift along until we find ourselves dangerously involved—and then applying to our banker for a loan to save our financial lives, let's maintain our economic health by carefully regulating our business at all times, and by building up a reserve to fall back on in case of an emergency.

And let's remember that it's better to consult our banker before we need him than to ask for help when the pinch comes.

Creomulsion

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after cold or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (ads)
