

CITY NEWS

Visiting Planes Here—
Three visiting airplanes stopped at the Eugene airport, on Monday, an army plane from March 15, a biplane from March 16, and a biplane from March 17. The biplane from March 16, piloted by Lieut. B. Stenstrom, taking on gas at the airport, was followed by a biplane piloted by Varney, who stopped over-night at the Eugene airport. The biplane from March 17, piloted by Lieut. Heber C. Miller of Portland, stopped with his Boeing airplane at the Eugene airport, on Monday, owing to weather conditions at the Eugene airport where the snow was falling.

Back to Tacoma—
Frank R. Bouck, boys' work secretary at the Eugene Y. M. C. A. will leave for Tacoma, on Monday, to attend the annual conference of the Boys' Work Association, which will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 15, 16, and 17, at the Winthrop hotel, Tacoma. One of the members of the local boys' work committee will probably attend the conference. The Christian emphasis in the work will be discussed at the meeting, said Mr. Bouck.

Value Topic—
Dr. John F. Boyard, dean of school of physical education at the University of Oregon, talked before the Eugene Table Club at the Osburn hotel, Monday night, stressing the need and value of physical exercise. The next meeting of the club will be held April 1, when Dr. E. S. Conklin of the university department of psychology will speak on "When Life Loses Its Zest: A Dangerous Age."

Church Session Held—
St. Mary's Episcopal church celebrated Holy Eucharist Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, followed by an all-day session of the St. Mary's guild. The guild session will close at 4 o'clock according to Rev. F. G. Jennings, rector of the church, for the half-hour service at that time. Holy Eucharist will be celebrated Thursday morning at 7 o'clock the rector announced.

Engineers to Meet—
City engineers and city officials of the Willamette valley cities who are interested in a study of the pollution problem of the Willamette river will meet in Eugene March 21 and 22, according to an announcement from Portland Wednesday. A study of the problem has been made by Commissioner Harbour of Portland and he hopes to collect further data at the meeting.

Invited to Rose Festival—
An invitation to Eugene to participate in the annual rose festival at Portland has been received by the Eugene chamber of commerce. Officers' names in the Radiators, marching club of Eugene, are requested by the Portland and executive committee. The Radiators and a group of Eugene girls entered in the rose parade last year drew much favorable comment from Portlanders.

To Speak at Grove—
O. F. Fletcher, county agricultural agent, will speak at Cottage Grove Wednesday night at a community gathering at 8 o'clock at the chamber of commerce. Mr. Fletcher's topic will be "Control of Insect Pests in Gardens." Prof. A. G. B. Bouquet, of Oregon State college horticultural department, will speak on "Vegetable Gardens."

Will Hold Breakfast—
Missionary societies of all churches will meet for a May breakfast, according to plans made at a meeting of a committee of the Union Missionary society at the home of Mrs. F. S. Beitel Tuesday night. The breakfast will be held at the Baptist church at 9 o'clock, Thursday, May 9. A program will follow the breakfast.

Health Workers at Florence—
Miss Beth Kunkel, executive secretary of the Lane County Public Health association, went to Florence Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Jean Beasley, educational director of the Oregon State Tuberculosis association. Miss Kunkel planned to meet with the Florence health unit and Miss Beasley to speak at the high school.

Sermon Series Outlined—
Rev. Martin P. Simon, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church, will continue his sermon series on Luther's catechism, preaching Sunday, March 17 at 11 a. m. on "The Fourth Commandment." This year marks the 400th anniversary of the Luther catechism.

Handle Rodent Poison—
The firm of Morris and son of Mapleton has been added to the list of merchants supplied with poisoned barley for use in rodent control work, according to County Agent O. S. Fletcher.

To Remodel House—
C. W. Henzler was granted a permit Wednesday to remodel the house at 1100 Third avenue west at a cost of $300 and to build a garage costing $100 at 1120 Third avenue west.

Returns to Canada—
Ray Block has returned to his home at Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, after spending the winter here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Block.

Linn Commissioners Visit—
H. A. Henninger and H. F. Warren, county commissioners from Linn county, were in Eugene Wednesday and called on the Lane county court.

I SAW—
Two small boys flying kites. One became very excited and in his haste got his gymnastic and aviation terms mixed as he cried to the other: "Oh, Jack, look. It has turned a summerloop."
—M. L.

What Did You See?
The visitors went with Commissioner Clinton Hurd to inspect Lane county's gravel plant near Cottage Grove.

Four Tires Stolen—
Ted Baisden reported the theft of four tires from his auto wrecking yard at 1075 Lawrence street Tuesday night.

Change Teachers—
Gertrude Palmer has resigned as teacher at the Chickahominy school because of illness and Mrs. Jeanette Clark has been named as her successor.

Lutheran Aid to Meet—
The Central Lutheran Ladies' Aid society will meet Thursday, March 14 at 2:30 p. m. in the church parlors. Mrs. K. Stalsberg and Mrs. J. Larson will be hostesses.

Get Marriage License—
A marriage license was issued Wednesday to Tom Hetland and Helen Egeland, both of Eugene.

Norkenize Aid to Meet—
The Norkenize ladies aid society will meet Thursday afternoon, March 15, with Mrs. N. Scott Jewett.

Ladies Entertained—
Mrs. R. B. Strawn and Mrs. B. F. Goodpasture entertained the fourth and seventh divisions of the Methodist Ladies' Aid society Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Strawn, 1329 Oak street.

Here From Vida—
Ben Minney, farmer of Vida, was a Eugene visitor on Wednesday.

Here From Linslaw—
L. H. Luce of Linslaw, was in Eugene on Wednesday on a business trip.

In From Elkton—
J. E. Haines, sheepman of Elkton, was a Eugene visitor on Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. Haines.

Back From Trip—
G. S. Hinesdale, vice-president of the United States National and Eugene Loan and Savings banks, returned to Eugene Wednesday from a trip to Portland and Gardiner.

Early Call Answered—
The fire department answered a call at 5 a. m. Wednesday for a fire at the home of Dr. William Kuykendall, 1205 Willamette.

STEVENSON'S
4 BUSY
DRUG STORES

Tickets For The Brotherhood Of Locomotive Firemen And Enginemen Annual Ball May Be Procured At Our Office

The May Stores Inc.
Formerly Ax Billy Dept. Store

Men's Splendid Welt Sole Oxfords, Tan Or Black—$2.98

Anniversary
EVENT

Continues Unabated In Every Department Of The May Store

—Whether for the man, woman, child or for the home every department is contributing its quota of very specially priced items for this once a year bargain feast. Three days more—Thursday, Friday and Saturday—remain in which to partake of the special values.

Without A Doubt The Greatest House Frock Sensation For Anniversary Selling!

Brand New Arrivals

87c

Bright, Washable Prints!

Saving Is More Pronounced — 2 For $1.70

—Since you'll be needing a half dozen or so really nice wash house frocks for spring and summer wear—why not choose them all at once, and now? Then that problem will be off your mind and you'll be making a saving that you may not be able to make later.

SIZES FROM 16 TO 52

—You'll find among these very specially priced short sleeved (sleeveless too) frocks a thoroughly satisfying variety of patterns and colors. And, such an interesting selection of style—surplus effects, ruffles, peplums, flares, new tight bodices, full skirt style, crisp organdie trims also shawl collar embellishment.

(Second Floor)

Anniversary Event!
Milady's Dainty, Fine Quality Mercerized Fabric Gloves Splendid 98c Sellers, Pair

—They say a woman's claim to careful grooming is revealed by details of her costume. Perhaps no accessory is more important than her gloves.
—This offering of gloves enables one to obtain a beautiful glove at a surprisingly low price of 79c. They are to be had in shades of grey or mode, with effectively embroidered turn back cuffs. All sizes.

79c

The SALE EXTRAORDINARY of Monarch ELECTRIC
ELECTRIC RANGES
FEATURING A FREE COOKING SCHOOL
And First Showing Of
This Amazing $129.50 Electric Range

LILLIAN IRMA SAYLES

opens our sale with a three-day cooking school and demonstration of Monarch Electric Ranges. Miss Sayles is a nationally famous home economist and a most interesting speaker. This school and demonstration will astonish you. Miss Sayles moves so gracefully—so much at ease—that you wonder where the work of cooking has gone. You learn how to cook a whole dinner in the oven with new recipes, new methods and new labor savers. This school is for you! ABSOLUTELY FREE! Held at 2 o'clock Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 14, 15 and 16, in Laraway's Hall, 972 Willamette.

If You Ever Cooked For a Hungry Man

—you'll appreciate these points that make Monarch Electric Ranges truly royal. Did you ever expect a range to take so much responsibility? Read this!

The Oven—
—heat control is automatic, so it gets no hotter or cooler than you decide.
—has two heat units, one at the top for roasting, broiling and toasting; one covered element at the bottom for general baking. Both units turned on give you double speed, but one is ample.

Cooking Plates—
—have big, fast-heating radiant type elements; each with a separate fuse and three-heat switches.
—are fitted with Paramount heat block under the element, forcing the heat upward to do full cooking duty.

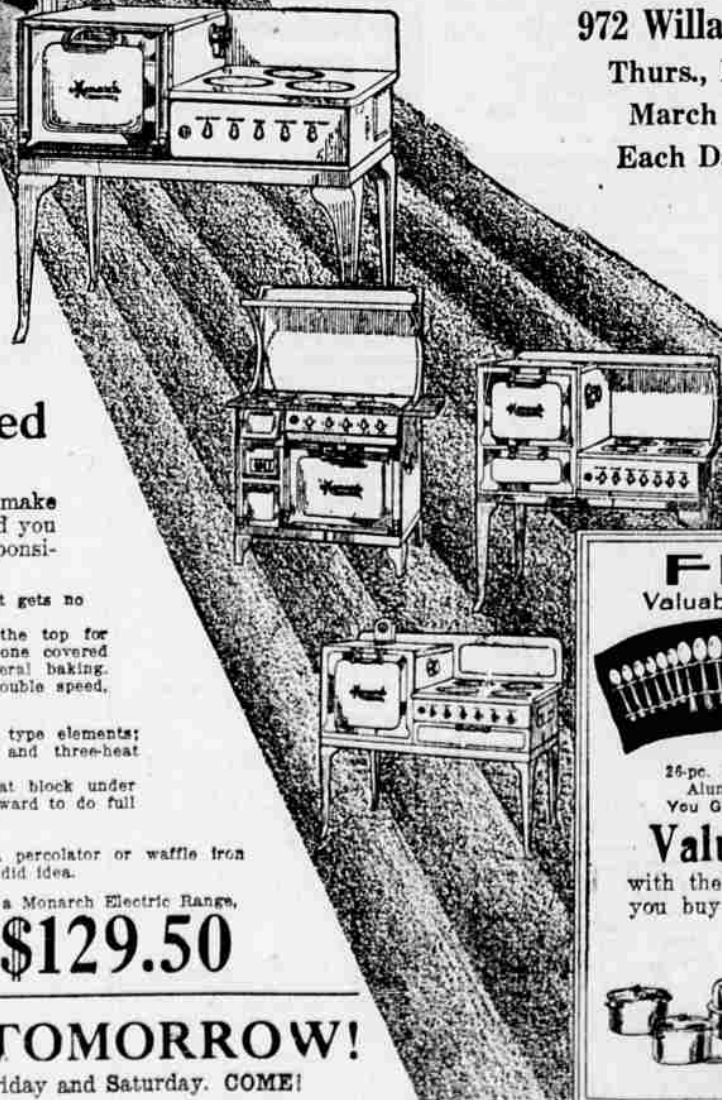

Extra Outlet—lets you plug in a percolator or waffle iron if you wish. A splendid idea.

The Price—only $129.50

SALE BEGINS TOMORROW!

Cooking School: Thursday, Friday and Saturday. COME!

CLARKE ELECTRIC CO., 832 Olive St.

FREE
Valuable Premiums/

25-pc. Set of Silverware Aluminum Oven Set You Get Both Premiums

Value $27.00

with the Monarch Electric you buy during this sale.

