

NEW WEEK'S ENTERTAINING TO BE INFORMAL; VISITORS TO BE HONORED

But Few Events Listed On Calendar

By MARIAN LOWRY

NEXT week brings no elaborate social affairs as the warm weather and absence of many from the city are no incentives for much in the way of entertaining.

A number of visitors will be coming and going and several events are being planned to welcome them. Among the events for the week will be Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon and Mrs. F. L. Stetson on Wednesday and Mrs. Lillian Seaton and Mrs. O. Potter who will entertain Thursday.

The big event of the summer season for the university students and faculty members will be the annual frolic and stunt night on Friday, July 19, on the lawn of the campus. A lawn supper will be served at 8 o'clock to which townpeople are invited. Another event of interest to the campus women will be the open meeting planned for Monday evening, July 15, by the members of Phi Lambda Theta, national honorary education society for women. The meeting will be at seven-thirty o'clock in Johnson hall for all university women. Several interesting talks by visiting summer faculty women being listed.

Other events of the week will be impromptu as occasion for entertaining arises.
