

RELIGION IS TOPIC OF ADAMS; UNION SERIES WILL END

"An Adequate Religion" was the theme of Rev. John Maxwell Adams, associate pastor of Central Presbyterian church at the union services Sunday evening.

But two more union services will be held in the series sponsored by the Eugene Ministerial union, Dr. S. E. Childers, pastor of the First Christian church will speak Sunday evening Aug. 18 at 7:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church. On Aug. 25 Dr. J. Franklin Haas, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church will speak at the Central Presbyterian church.

Rev. Mr. Adams said in part: "Thousands today are asking, 'Is there a simple, common faith, of all Christendom, a clean and concise statement of an adequate religion?'"

The prophet Micah wrote, 'He hath showed thee, O man, what is good. And what doth the Lord require of thee but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.' This great word must have been in the mind of Jesus himself, when he castigated the Pharisees for leaving undone 'the weightier matters of the law, justice, mercy and faith.'

"The first expression of a true religion is in a life of simple, rugged honesty. In our day the moral code of the great majority seems to be summed up in the hopeful question, 'Can I get by with it?' while the increasing complexity of our social relationships demands more than ever a keen sense of personal honor and social justice."

Above the ideal of rigorous justice is that of mercy. Brutus followed the course of an unswerving justice when he condemned his own sons to death for their disloyalty. Our hearts are stirred by his example, but they are warmed by the love of the father in Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son.

"And walk humbly with thy God! The prophet has outlined an ethical ideal, he now indicates an undergirding attitude essential to its full realization. Men are religious not only because there are the emotions and desires which are satisfied only by faith and worship, but also because religious faith supplies to frail humanity a dynamic power, enabling men to live nobly in justice and love."

"To view life in the light of God and of eternity supplies elements for noble living that are not easily dispensable; an idealistic interpretation of life, victory over the deadening hopelessness of cynicism; a sustaining motive for patient service; a reasonable basis for expecting victory, and resources to make possible triumphant personality."

"Yet all this is inadequate, except as it comes to men through the radiant personality of Jesus. When Micah's definition of an adequate religion became incarnate in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, the world had a Savior. Today, as always, he calls to us, 'Come unto me and learn of me. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'"

"The first expression of a true religion is in a life of simple, rugged honesty. In our day the moral code of the great majority seems to be summed up in the hopeful question, 'Can I get by with it?' while the increasing complexity of our social relationships demands more than ever a keen sense of personal honor and social justice."

Above the ideal of rigorous justice is that of mercy. Brutus followed the course of an unswerving justice when he condemned his own sons to death for their disloyalty. Our hearts are stirred by his example, but they are warmed by the love of the father in Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son.

"And walk humbly with thy God! The prophet has outlined an ethical ideal, he now indicates an undergirding attitude essential to its full realization. Men are religious not only because there are the emotions and desires which are satisfied only by faith and worship, but also because religious faith supplies to frail humanity a dynamic power, enabling men to live nobly in justice and love."

"To view life in the light of God and of eternity supplies elements for noble living that are not easily dispensable; an idealistic interpretation of life, victory over the deadening hopelessness of cynicism; a sustaining motive for patient service; a reasonable basis for expecting victory, and resources to make possible triumphant personality."

"Yet all this is inadequate, except as it comes to men through the radiant personality of Jesus. When Micah's definition of an adequate religion became incarnate in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, the world had a Savior. Today, as always, he calls to us, 'Come unto me and learn of me. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'"

"The first expression of a true religion is in a life of simple, rugged honesty. In our day the moral code of the great majority seems to be summed up in the hopeful question, 'Can I get by with it?' while the increasing complexity of our social relationships demands more than ever a keen sense of personal honor and social justice."

Above the ideal of rigorous justice is that of mercy. Brutus followed the course of an unswerving justice when he condemned his own sons to death for their disloyalty. Our hearts are stirred by his example, but they are warmed by the love of the father in Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son.

"And walk humbly with thy God! The prophet has outlined an ethical ideal, he now indicates an undergirding attitude essential to its full realization. Men are religious not only because there are the emotions and desires which are satisfied only by faith and worship, but also because religious faith supplies to frail humanity a dynamic power, enabling men to live nobly in justice and love."

"To view life in the light of God and of eternity supplies elements for noble living that are not easily dispensable; an idealistic interpretation of life, victory over the deadening hopelessness of cynicism; a sustaining motive for patient service; a reasonable basis for expecting victory, and resources to make possible triumphant personality."

"Yet all this is inadequate, except as it comes to men through the radiant personality of Jesus. When Micah's definition of an adequate religion became incarnate in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, the world had a Savior. Today, as always, he calls to us, 'Come unto me and learn of me. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'"

"The first expression of a true religion is in a life of simple, rugged honesty. In our day the moral code of the great majority seems to be summed up in the hopeful question, 'Can I get by with it?' while the increasing complexity of our social relationships demands more than ever a keen sense of personal honor and social justice."

Above the ideal of rigorous justice is that of mercy. Brutus followed the course of an unswerving justice when he condemned his own sons to death for their disloyalty. Our hearts are stirred by his example, but they are warmed by the love of the father in Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son.

"And walk humbly with thy God! The prophet has outlined an ethical ideal, he now indicates an undergirding attitude essential to its full realization. Men are religious not only because there are the emotions and desires which are satisfied only by faith and worship, but also because religious faith supplies to frail humanity a dynamic power, enabling men to live nobly in justice and love."

"To view life in the light of God and of eternity supplies elements for noble living that are not easily dispensable; an idealistic interpretation of life, victory over the deadening hopelessness of cynicism; a sustaining motive for patient service; a reasonable basis for expecting victory, and resources to make possible triumphant personality."

"Yet all this is inadequate, except as it comes to men through the radiant personality of Jesus. When Micah's definition of an adequate religion became incarnate in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, the world had a Savior. Today, as always, he calls to us, 'Come unto me and learn of me. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'"

"The first expression of a true religion is in a life of simple, rugged honesty. In our day the moral code of the great majority seems to be summed up in the hopeful question, 'Can I get by with it?' while the increasing complexity of our social relationships demands more than ever a keen sense of personal honor and social justice."

Above the ideal of rigorous justice is that of mercy. Brutus followed the course of an unswerving justice when he condemned his own sons to death for their disloyalty. Our hearts are stirred by his example, but they are warmed by the love of the father in Jesus' parable of the Prodigal Son.

"And walk humbly with thy God! The prophet has outlined an ethical ideal, he now indicates an undergirding attitude essential to its full realization. Men are religious not only because there are the emotions and desires which are satisfied only by faith and worship, but also because religious faith supplies to frail humanity a dynamic power, enabling men to live nobly in justice and love."

"To view life in the light of God and of eternity supplies elements for noble living that are not easily dispensable; an idealistic interpretation of life, victory over the deadening hopelessness of cynicism; a sustaining motive for patient service; a reasonable basis for expecting victory, and resources to make possible triumphant personality."

"Yet all this is inadequate, except as it comes to men through the radiant personality of Jesus. When Micah's definition of an adequate religion became incarnate in the person of Jesus of Nazareth, the world had a Savior. Today, as always, he calls to us, 'Come unto me and learn of me. Take my yoke upon you and learn of me. Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.'"

"The first expression of a true religion is in a life of simple, rugged honesty. In our day the moral code of the great majority seems to be summed up in the hopeful question, 'Can I get by with it?' while the increasing complexity of our social relationships demands more than ever a keen sense of personal honor and social justice."

DOUGLAS AND LANE COURTS PLAN ROAD

The London-Shoestring road, which is projected to become a direct route from Cottage Grove to Yoncalla or Oakland in Douglas county, was under discussion at a meeting of representatives of the Douglas county court, the Lane county court, and the state market road department Tuesday.

P. M. Morse, county surveyor, J. H. Scott, state market road engineer, and Ethan A. Collier, assistant state market road engineer, left Eugene Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and were to meet members of the Douglas court at London Hill.

Lane county has practically completed the grading on its part of the road. The work will be completed within a month, members of the court say. The Douglas county court has secured the right of way for its section of the road.

Representatives of both county courts will confer in an effort to get the building program completed as soon as possible. The Lane men will urge action on the Douglas section so that the road may be put through to Yoncalla soon.

AT WALTERVILLE

Ned Morris, of Walterville, is suffering from blood poisoning.

WALTERVILLE, Aug. 13.—(Special)—Miss Etta Smeed of Eugene, for Rev. and Mrs. Wood. A program of music and readings was given.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Patchen, daughter Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henderson and family, and Miss Edna Harlan motored over to the McKenzie pass and as far as Sisters Sunday, where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and the beautiful scenery.

M. R. Ryan, J. W. Beasley, Mrs. Nellie Ryan and children were Cottage Grove shoppers Monday morning.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Claire La Grand, Aug. 12, a daughter.

H. A. Cool and family left Monday morning on a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Ruby Miller returned from Coos county Saturday evening.

ELMIRA EVENTS

Local People Spend Saturday At Jasper With Picnic Dinner

ELMIRA, Aug. 13.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bennett and children Willetta, Harry and Rayola spent Saturday afternoon at Jasper. S. L. Bennett was in Eugene on business Friday.

W. W. Inman, who has been quite ill, is reported to be a little improved. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver and family are spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Widman are the parents of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Clifford Hudson is spending a few days with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Draper and son of Camas, Wash., are spending a few days with their relatives.

SIGMAN-FELL—INSURANCE

SIGMAN-FELL—INSURANCE

DOUGLAS AND LANE COURTS PLAN ROAD

The London-Shoestring road, which is projected to become a direct route from Cottage Grove to Yoncalla or Oakland in Douglas county, was under discussion at a meeting of representatives of the Douglas county court, the Lane county court, and the state market road department Tuesday.

P. M. Morse, county surveyor, J. H. Scott, state market road engineer, and Ethan A. Collier, assistant state market road engineer, left Eugene Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock and were to meet members of the Douglas court at London Hill.

Lane county has practically completed the grading on its part of the road. The work will be completed within a month, members of the court say. The Douglas county court has secured the right of way for its section of the road.

Representatives of both county courts will confer in an effort to get the building program completed as soon as possible. The Lane men will urge action on the Douglas section so that the road may be put through to Yoncalla soon.

AT WALTERVILLE

Ned Morris, of Walterville, is suffering from blood poisoning.

WALTERVILLE, Aug. 13.—(Special)—Miss Etta Smeed of Eugene, for Rev. and Mrs. Wood. A program of music and readings was given.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Patchen, daughter Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henderson and family, and Miss Edna Harlan motored over to the McKenzie pass and as far as Sisters Sunday, where they enjoyed a picnic dinner and the beautiful scenery.

M. R. Ryan, J. W. Beasley, Mrs. Nellie Ryan and children were Cottage Grove shoppers Monday morning.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Claire La Grand, Aug. 12, a daughter.

H. A. Cool and family left Monday morning on a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Ruby Miller returned from Coos county Saturday evening.

ELMIRA EVENTS

Local People Spend Saturday At Jasper With Picnic Dinner

ELMIRA, Aug. 13.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bennett and children Willetta, Harry and Rayola spent Saturday afternoon at Jasper. S. L. Bennett was in Eugene on business Friday.

W. W. Inman, who has been quite ill, is reported to be a little improved. Mr. and Mrs. Weaver and family are spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Widman are the parents of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur are the proud parents of a baby boy.

Clifford Hudson is spending a few days with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Draper and son of Camas, Wash., are spending a few days with their relatives.

SIGMAN-FELL—INSURANCE

SIGMAN-FELL—INSURANCE

Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE, Aug. 13.—(Special)—G. T. Stephens from Illinois, N. Y., has bought the Floyd Shipman ranch east of town and will make it his home. The Shipman brothers will go to Marshfield where they have employment.

Ess N. E. Glass family returned Sunday night from a trip to Crater lake and southern Oregon.

The Frank A. Hoekman family, from Greenwood, Wis., who went to Lakeview recently, returned Monday. They are now touring Oregon and left for Brownsville Monday evening.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE, Aug. 13.—(Special)—G. T. Stephens from Illinois, N. Y., has bought the Floyd Shipman ranch east of town and will make it his home. The Shipman brothers will go to Marshfield where they have employment.

Ess N. E. Glass family returned Sunday night from a trip to Crater lake and southern Oregon.

The Frank A. Hoekman family, from Greenwood, Wis., who went to Lakeview recently, returned Monday. They are now touring Oregon and left for Brownsville Monday evening.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE, Aug. 13.—(Special)—G. T. Stephens from Illinois, N. Y., has bought the Floyd Shipman ranch east of town and will make it his home. The Shipman brothers will go to Marshfield where they have employment.

Ess N. E. Glass family returned Sunday night from a trip to Crater lake and southern Oregon.

The Frank A. Hoekman family, from Greenwood, Wis., who went to Lakeview recently, returned Monday. They are now touring Oregon and left for Brownsville Monday evening.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Spray with Mrs. Spray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Howard of Eugene, went to Bend Sunday through the McKenzie pass for a picnic.

Phil Hohl of Roseburg visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl, returning home Monday.

Another fire was reported out Silk creek way. The air is full of smoke and many trees are burned.

The C. E. Unprey, A. A. Richmond, and Nelson Durham families were in Winchester, by Sunday.

Walter Garoutte from Bandon is visiting his cousin, Lawrence Kelly, this week.

Cottage Grove

COTTAGE GROVE, Aug. 13.—(Special)—G. T. Stephens from Illinois, N. Y., has bought the Floyd Shipman ranch east of town and will make it his home. The Shipman brothers will go to Marshfield where they have employment.

Ess N. E. Glass family returned Sunday night from a trip to Crater lake and southern Oregon.