Creswell

CRESWELL, Aug. 30—(Special) A special program was put on for the business session of Honor Lodge Wednesday night. The lodge was in charge of the committee headed by Mrs. M. A. Horn, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. M. T. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schwenker, Mrs. W. S. Averill of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Francis Horn, saxophone, and reading, Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll and Mrs. O. E. Parsons were on the refreshment committee. A given signal all the members were requested to form in line and march in regular military style. They were taken across the street to Olson's ice cream parlors and served with ice cream and wafers. The council of Religious Education will hold a meeting at the Methodist church in Eugene next Sunday afternoon. All those interested are welcome. Mrs. Dan Driscoll and Mrs. O. E. Parsons were up from Eugene Wednesday evening and attended the session of the Rebekah lodge. A good crowd attended the sale of livestock and farm implements at the ranch occupied by Mrs. Cora Ferguson Tuesday. J. K. Greer of Eugene was auctioneer and L. E. Zinkler representing the Creswell Fruit-growers bank was clerk. The Misses Irma and Edith Shere made a trip to Portland Tuesday to make arrangements for house apartments during the coming school year. Miss Myrtle Groahong, also a teacher in the Portland schools will make her home with them after the first of January. Mrs. J. H. Gilmore suffered a stroke of paralysis about 4 o'clock Wednesday and is reported by the attending physician, Dr. Radabaugh of Goshen, to be in a serious condition. Her son, Howard Chamberlain arrived from the south Wednesday evening. Mrs. Joanna Moutaux and son T. J. Moutaux and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gattucio have moved on to the place known as the Evergreen farm two miles north of town. Mr. Gattucio is in the fruit distributing business and brings different varieties from the Dillard community each day. A jolly number of members of the Presbyterian Sunday School spent Thursday at the municipal park at Eugene. A bountiful basket dinner was served from conveniently arranged tables on the side of the butte under the trees and games and stunts were enjoyed during the afternoon. The youngsters especially appreciated the play ground apparatus. More than sixty attended the picnic. Mr. Henderson of Springfield who has been the carrier for the Eugene Guard on this route left Thursday for Salem where he will take up the electric business. Mr. Logan takes his place on the route. Mrs. H. S. Gerlach and Mrs. M. L. Brown of Eugene were dinner guests of Mrs. Clarence Campbell Wednesday. Mrs. Gerlach is Mrs. Campbell's mother and Mrs. Brown is a sister. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Brown's birthday anniversary. R. Pirle and son R. J. Pirle of Springfield were in town Wednesday looking over the proposition the Grange has for moving the hall and making repairs and put in a bid for the same. Ray Huff injured his hand at the Beaver State Tile plant Wednesday and had to lay off work for a few days. His brother from Monroe is taking his place. J. A. Hauge and son of Portland were callers Thursday morning at the C. I. Kent home. Mr. Hauge was at one time a resident of Mrs. Kent's home in Wisconsin and has known her since childhood. He is now in the home building business in Portland was a photographer for years and a pleasant hour was spent looking over photos he had finished more than twenty years ago in Wisconsin. The visitors were on their return from a business trip to Marshfield. Household goods for Albert Gillette and family arrived from Shedd Tuesday. Mr. Gillette is the new superintendent of the Creswell schools and he and family will occupy the Kirby residence. The Presbyterian Ladies Aid will hold a food sale on Saturday, starting at 10 a. m. in Olson's store. All members are asked to contribute. Fear of death shortens the average span of life, according to a French scientist. An unnamed Dayton, Ohio, group is considering establishment of a commercial airport near Miami, Fla., for student instruction. A large tract of land has been obtained for the purpose. The Vatican in Rome has 11,000 chambers and apartments.

EARL DOUGLAS TO ARRIVE ON SUNDAY

Earl Douglas, Salem, who will take over the position of physical education director of the Y. M. C. A. Sept. 1, will arrive in Eugene Sunday, according to Henry Howard, general secretary. Mr. Douglas is a graduate of Willamette university in pre-medical, and was a physical education major at the University of Washington in post graduate work. For the past two years he has been athletic coach at Leslie junior high school at Salem, and this year he was director of the

Farm Market Gains In New England

BOSTON.—(AP)—A farm marketing program sponsored by the New England council is now effective in every New England state. Passage of enabling legislation by the New Hampshire legislature and the signature of Governor Tobey introduced the program to the sixth state in this region. It provides for establishment of grades and standards of farm produce in each state and the use of special labels, including the "New England Quality Label."
