

Tony O'Dell And Chuck Borden In Double Main Event Friday

EUGENE SCRAPPERS WILL APPEAR WITH FAST ACTION BOYS

Eugene fight fans will be treated to a double main event featuring two of the most popular of Eugene scrappers, next Friday evening at the Armory, according to announcement of Herb Owen, local matchmaker. Tony O'Dell will be featured in one of the main events, with Chuck Borden as the heavy attraction in the other. O'Dell, who is employed as high rigger for the Guthrie company at Leaburg, is one of the sweetest punchers to appear on a card here in some time. In his last fight he scored a knockout in the opening round over one of Portland's offerings. This time he will face a negro fighter, Tommy Jeffers, weight 141, from Pe Ell. Wash. Jeffers is the lad who took a decision from Johnny Bray of Chehalis recently. Bray, in turn, had taken a decision from Gentleman Jim Jacobs in a scrap here last winter, and it was one sweet scrap.

Borden will be faced by Bert Jones, weight 148, of Tacoma, Wash., who has been going great guns up the state to the north. Borden has been fighting bigger scrappers than himself for some time, and this match will give him someone of his own weight for a change. Both will weigh in at 148. O'Dell and Jeffers will match at 142.

Both main events will be for six rounds. In addition there will be another six-round battle and two four-round set-tos. The card will be the second of the fall season in Eugene, and will be under the auspices of the Eugene boxing and wrestling commission.

The University of Florida Alligators like their football schedules tough. They will meet Georgia Tech, Georgia and Harvard on successive week-ends this fall.

The University of Pittsburgh basketball team will play 24 games next season.

SEVEN TIMES CHAMP

This is an old stunt for Bill Tilden, who defeated his friend Frank Hunter the other day in the finals of the national singles championship at Forest Hills. Including the cup which Tilden is shown receiving from Samuel Cullum, head of the U. S. L. T. A., Big Bill has won the national singles championships seven times. Left to right in the picture are Tilden, Hunter and Cullum.

SEALS, STARS TIE UP COAST LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press)
Hollywood and San Francisco, two of the most powerful baseball clubs in the Pacific Coast league, playing their chief faith in battery and pitching strength, stood at the head of the league today, in a tie with 51 won and 35 lost as the record for each in the second half of the split season. The Mission Reds, a constant threat to the first place club, lurked in third rank.

The Stars went back into first place by splitting a double header with Los Angeles. They came from behind with a four-run rally in the eighth to capture the opener 6 to 4, but were squelched thoroughly in the nightcap which turned up a 16 to 7 victory for the Angels. Both games were played at Wrigley field, Los Angeles.

Only the fact that the Seals had won three straight up to yesterday from the Mission Reds at Recreation Park, kept that club in the battle for first place against Hollywood.

The Indians dropped another to the Oakland club in the northern camp, the battle ending 5 to 2, and giving the Oaks three victories to one for the Redjacks. Craighead was almost invincible.

Portland took both halves of a doubleheader from Sacramento in the north. The Ducks swam to an easy 10 to 4 victory in the first, and made it 4 to 3 in the afternoon. In both games, the Portlanders came from behind. Sacramento rolled up a four run advantage in the first contest only to lose it in the third inning, while in the night cap, the visitors scored all their runs before the Ducks brook their first runner across the plate.

Two World Famous Stars Are Engaged

PARIS, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The engagement of Rene LaCoste, famous French tennis "musketeer," to Mile Simone Thion de la Chaume, equally famous French golfer, was announced today.

Rene LaCoste generally is regarded as one of the two best tennis players in the world, the other being Henry Cochet, also of France. Mile Thion de la Chaume won the French women's title in 1920 and 1927 and in the latter year the British women's championship as well.

SETTLING THE POINT IN GOLF

Limits of Teeing Ground
If a ball is played from outside the limits of the teeing ground in match play it may be recalled by the opposing side and re-tee'd without penalty. In stroke competition, the ball count that stroke, i.e. a ball within the limits and play his second stroke. The penalty for breach of this rule in stroke competition is disqualification.

Ariel Vilas of Chicago, 15-year-old women's western golf champion, once defeated her mother in a semifinal round of the Arkansas state tournament.

Jane Cannon, University of Wisconsin student, has won the Wisconsin women's state golf title two successive years.

Babe Herman, Brooklyn's Babe Ruth, is one long distance hitter who seldom strikes out.

'BILLY GOAT' BUTTS GIVE WILDCAT GO WITH BOB SAMSON

Wildcat Pete is an accommodating fellow. Friday night at the armory he played Bob Samson's own game, and beat the Pacific coast waterweight champ in 34 minutes with four consecutive butts, an airplane spin and a body slam. Samson was unable to resume the match after the rest period.

Whether the two grapplers thought they were Sonnenbergs or merely had an overdose of goat glands could not be definitely ascertained, anyway the crowd, a good one for the first match of the fall season, was treated to some high-powered "billygoat" tactics. They used "the old bean" from state to finish.

Hobby came to the mat weighing 147 1/2 pounds, and Pete strolled up with 100 pounds of beef. The sun-tanned Californian shook Eugene's hope with a flying tackle soon after the opening. He tried it again and sprang on the canvas. Pete wasn't there.

After a few more hit and miss trials, a few slip-over arm hooks and such, Pete put a leg split on Samson. A few well directed knuckles ran up and down the Wildcat's spinal column and that hold no longer interested Pete. Then followed a series of playful tickles from both contenders.

Samson seemed to improve as time went on and managed to get a double toe hold on the Wildcat. Bobby, squatting on his rival's back, seemed pleased with the world in general. Pete's rubber legs kept him from slapping the mat.

During clear of the toe hold, Pete went into his famous twirlings and contortions that gave him his name and nothing but flying arm sand legs were visible from the sidelines for a moment.

The most painful hold of the evening followed this wild tory at about the 25-minute period, a punishing leg split with Wildcat as the recipient. It had Pete worried, but he wormed out of it.

Pete turned himself into a human battering ram. Three well-placed splashes extracted the wind from Samson. Another half butt and Pete hoisted the Californian to his shoulders and started an airplane spin. It lasted a couple of rounds, and Pete, seeing that the rest period was already cut, raised his burden from his shoulders and slammed him to the mat.

Samson was carried from the ring. During a rest period trainers and doctors worked on Samson, whose muscles in his left shoulder were distorted from the fall from the high altitude. He was unable to return to the mat, and the second fall was forfeited.

Both men were quite evenly matched with Samson having a slight edge on Pete in strength. All things considered, it was a good, fast, hot fight.

Earl Ware and Del Avery, both of Eugene, went 10 minutes of a scheduled bout. Ware, a professional grappler, was taking the bout. This was their first appearance as professional grapplers. An arm stretch took the fall.

FAR WEST FOOTBALL STARTS SATURDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Opening football skirmishes widely separated sections of the west will sound the season's call to far western football of the great American college sport.

First games of 1929 will feature three coast conference eleven's against opponents of lesser rating. Stanford's gridiron strength will be tested by the west coast army service team. Oregon State tries out its play on Willamette while Montana goes into action against the Anaconda Anodes, a club team.

Stanford's Cardinals appear to have the toughest assignment of the day, despite the imposing array of gridiron splendor assembled by Coach "Pop" Warner. The service squad, experienced and weighty, includes in its personnel, Lieutenant Louis Hammack, guard on the West Point Army team last season. The Cardinals have had but one week of practice.

Whitman college's Cheney Normal club, Walla Walla, Wash., in the only other game of any consequence along the coast.

League President All For Athletics
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The Athletics look like a real baseball outfit and the American league is not worrying over the probable outcome of the world series argument with the Chicago Cubs, declared E. S. Barnard, American league president, who dropped off here to see Connie Mack's manager, Ben Shibe. He saw quite a few Mack rookies in action, but said he knew what the regulars could do.

"The Athletics made it a runaway race," Barnard said. "They have played such great ball we don't see how any other club can defeat them in a series."
"I look for the A's to beat the Cubs. Both are great ball clubs, but naturally I am backing my own league representatives. I think Mack has the best team in the business right now, and I believe I can safely say it will be the victor in the series."

ANLAUF NOTES
Two Carloads Of Ties Are Shipped During This Week

ANLAUF, Sept. 21.—(Special)—Vernon Handsaker was taken to the Pacific Christian hospital in Eugene Monday and was operated on for appendicitis.

The forest fire in this vicinity are pretty well under control and the atmosphere is clearing up. Nights are foggy and quite cold.

Lyman Adams, from Cottage Grove was in Anlauf a few days ago and bought a lot of pling from Ben Nerial.

The Anlauf Lumber company shipped a carload of ties Wednesday and another one on Thursday. They had a break-down this Wednesday forenoon but were running again Thursday afternoon.

Seven Lettermen Return To St. Mary's Grid Team

With seven lettermen which includes almost all the backfield and both tackles, Coach Dan Moran, of St. Mary's school in Eugene, has little to worry about for the coming grid season.

Even at that, all of St. Mary's school artists are not back at school yet, and Coach Moran will have a good addition to his squad, which is expected to number at least 25 next week.

Last year's veterans back on the job are Millard Wilhelm, center; Geo. Getty, half; Henry Nury, fullback; Henry Pape, guard; Bob O'Reilly, tackle; Frank Grenier, tackle and Joe Berger, quarter.

Another hope of Coach Moran is a 160-pound man who is expected to arrive from Washington soon. From all reports this new addition will help St. Mary's chances considerably. Besides all the lettermen back, St. Mary's grid squad is almost entirely made up of last year's super-varsity men, who are out after their letter this season with renewed vigor.

No definite schedule has been drawn up for this grid team as yet, although approximately six games will be played by them this season. They meet various high schools in the surrounding country.

Although the squad has not started practicing in earnest yet, next week will see daily workouts on its field on south Willamette.

Coach Moran will use Pacific university style of play. Pacific puts out a light fast team, the same kind that St. Mary's will have this year. The coach is a graduate of Pacific, '29, and played quarter in the Oregon game last year. He also played four years of high school football at Forest

PROBABLE LINEUP OF WEBFOOTS FOR PACIFIC CONTEST

(By FRANK G. GORRIE)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The University of Oregon football team has many weaknesses, but the one which stands out most of all is its lack of reserve strength.

John J. McEwan, like all other coaches, is endeavoring to build a championship machine and barring injuries may accomplish the trick this year.

Coach McEwan will be able to send an all-experienced eleven on the field of battle but will be hard pressed for capable substitutes in cases of an emergency, especially at the guard and tackle positions.

The probable lineup against Pacific University next Saturday in Eugene will be: Stadelman, center; Lillie and Shields, guards; Colbert and Christensen, tackles; Archer and Wood, ends; Kitzmiller, quarterback; Moeller, fullback and Mason and Donohue, halfbacks. Charles Williams, a negro veteran, may get the call over Donohue if he recovers sufficiently from a tonal operation. All have had varsity experience except Moeller, who was out of school last year but who is considered an "ace in the hole" by McEwan.

Other than this powerful combination, the Oregon coach has little to draw from. Eric Forste, a freshman last year, could relieve Stadelman but he is a bit green. St. West and Ted Parke are the second string guards but they lack experience. West is a sophomore and Parke a member of last year's second squad. The tackle reserves are Marion Hall and Irvin Schulz. Hall is a letterman and Schulz a graduate from the freshman squad. Jack Erdley, a 180-pound first-year youth, is pressing Wood hard for his position and may land before the season is over. Erdley was a freshman last year and is developing fast. McEwan has a lot of other candidates for the end jobs but not a lot of class.

Variety of Plays Baffle Opponents

Mixing them up is a sound way to attack in football. By that I mean the quarterback keeps the opposition guessing as to what play or type of play is coming next. After you find that words best then you can how to that line. Even better is to mix 'em up with a certain play. Stanford has one such for today's opening game with West Coast Army. It's a mighty troublesome affair to stop. It starts as a run and winds up with a pass and you can't tell which it will be.

The ball is snapped to No. 3, who starts around his own right end with three backs and the two guards as interferences. Note that each man has a special duty and that none are assigned to take the opposing left end, although his territory is to be attacked. The idea here is to remove this vulnerable man without wasting an interference on him. That gives you extra men to take out the other defensive players.

The defensive left end will come tearing at No. 3. Just as he is going to knock him for a roll of goals, No. 3 lobs a little pass to No. 2, ahead of him. And No. 2 is off for a run off tackle with his two guards to clear a path for him.
