

CAMPUS STUDENTS, FACULTY WELCOMED BACK; TOWN SOCIETY ACTIVE

Events are Given For Coming Week

By MARIAN LOWRY
EUGENE waves the yellow and green in welcome to hundreds of students who are descending on the campus this week-end in preparation for the opening of the University of Oregon on September 30. "Rushing" and registration occupy the coming week with classes the following week.

Faculty folk, among them many new ones, are being welcomed back after interesting vacations that have scattered them over the world. Town society has been active the past week but enters an even busier schedule next week. Amusement club, one of the larger dancing groups in the city, has its opening dance as guest night on Tuesday at the Eugene hotel. Hostesses of the new week include Mrs. Kenneth W. Moore, who is entertaining at bridge on Monday; Mrs. Pauline Van Deane, a luncheon hostess for Tuesday; and Mrs. Fred Hrusby, also a luncheon hostess on Tuesday. Another activity of interest to many is the women's annual fall handicap tournament at the Eugene Golf and Country club which goes into its second rounds next week.

IN PORTLAND
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Morris and family are spending the week-end in Portland.

HOME FROM VISIT
Mrs. James K. King returned this week from La Grande where she had been making an extensive visit.

AT PENDLETON
Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. McCready are expected home this week-end from Pendleton where they have been for the Round-up.

HOME FROM TRIP
Mrs. Clara Fitch and daughter, Miss Janet Fitch, arrived home this week from their trip abroad. Miss Mary Fitch remained in Paris for a time longer and Miss Eleanor Fitch is staying in the east to continue school. Mrs. Fitch and three daughters have been away a year.

D. A. R. MEETING
Members of the Oregon Lewis and Clark chapter, daughters of the American Revolution, began an interesting year on Tuesday of this week when they held their first meeting as a luncheon gathering at the Osburn hotel as a special observance of Constitution day. Dean Charles E. Carpenter of the university school of law gave an address on "Democracy and Our Constitution." At the business meeting it was voted to have a coffee and rummage sale on October 19. The ways and means committee will be in charge and funds are to be used in aiding the international house on the campus. Mrs. W. B. Milner was chairman of the committee of hostesses for the day. On October 11 the group will meet at the home of Mrs. A. F. Sather at which time the general hospital work will be discussed. Mrs. R. T. Burnett, chairman; Mrs. J. K. Pratt, Mrs. Fred Wentworth, Mrs. A. H. Cook, and Mrs. Ralph O. Crow will be hostesses.

CAMPUS GIRLS HONORED
As one means of getting all university women students acquainted and to do away with the home-sickness that follows the first week at college, members of Phi Delta Upsilon, senior-junior women's honorary service society, are giving a series of teas on the evening of Sunday, September 20, at six o'clock. They will be given in the following places: in the sun room in the Gerlinger building; in the men's lounge in the Gerlinger building; in the women's lounge at the Gerlinger building; in the dining room at the home of Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly; at the home of Mrs. C. L. Schwering; and at the home of Miss Evelyn Kjosness.

PARTY IN FAREWELL
To honor Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Woodin, who have been back in Eugene for a few days preceding their departure for Manila, Philippines Islands, a group of friends gave a no-host dinner and dancing party at Chicken Inn on Tuesday evening. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Woodin, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Abeglien, Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Atwater, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bland, Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Donnell, Miss Nellie B. Moore and Miss Willietta Moore assisted the hostess.

BACK FROM TACOMA
Mr. and Mrs. John Stark Evans returned Friday evening from a trip to Tacoma.

GUESTS FROM PORTLAND
Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gannett have as guests at their home, Mrs. Gannett's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur P. Held, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stoeckle, also of Portland.

PHI BETA MEETING
Associate members of Phi Beta, national professional drama society for women, are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. John Jay Rogers the coming week for their regular meeting.

AM OF P. E. O.
At the home of Mrs. F. S. Appelmann members of Chapter AM, P. E. O. Sisterhood will meet next Wednesday afternoon, September 25, at two-thirty o'clock for their first meeting of the fall. Mrs. C. W. Buckley is to be assistant hostess.

MRS. FITCH HONORED
Mr. and Mrs. Deane Walker entertained informally at their home Friday evening for Mrs. Clara Fitch who is being welcomed home after a year away.

Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee who is being welcomed as a newcomer to Eugene. Dr. and Mrs. Woodmansee have taken up their residence at 618 Lincoln street. They come from Silverton, Oregon.

Mrs. Walter O. Swan, is to leave Sunday for her home in Chicago, going by way of San Francisco, Los Angeles, and to Denver.

DINNER FRIDAY
Dinner hosts on Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bryson who entertained with an informal family gathering to honor Mrs. Walter Page Covell (Lyle Bryson) who is visiting here from New York city as guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bryson.

H OF P. E. O.
Members of Chapter H of P. E. O. Sisterhood are to meet at the home of Mrs. A. E. Caswell on Monday evening, September 23, at eight o'clock. Miss Hazel Fishwood will be assistant hostess.

DINNER FOR VISITOR
Mr. and Mrs. David Auld are to entertain at dinner Sunday at their home for Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bryson and family and Mrs. Walter Page Covell (Lyle Bryson), who is visiting here from New York city.

MISS BUCK HONORED
Mrs. A. E. Roberts entertained informally at her home on Friday afternoon to honor Miss Eloise Buck who is leaving soon for Ashland to teach.

PARTY FOR VISITOR
Mrs. Mary Moore Hansen, who is visiting here from Riverside, California, was honor guest for a party given by her mother, Mrs. N. R. Moore, on Wednesday afternoon. A group of twenty-five was asked, the guests including former associates of Mrs. Hansen on the staff of the University of Oregon library. Miss Nellie B. Moore and Miss Willietta Moore assisted the hostess.

QUESTS FROM PORTLAND
Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Gannett have as guests at their home, Mrs. Gannett's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur P. Held, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stoeckle, also of Portland.

PHI BETA MEETING
Associate members of Phi Beta, national professional drama society for women, are to be entertained at the home of Mrs. John Jay Rogers the coming week for their regular meeting.

AM OF P. E. O.
At the home of Mrs. F. S. Appelmann members of Chapter AM, P. E. O. Sisterhood will meet next Wednesday afternoon, September 25, at two-thirty o'clock for their first meeting of the fall. Mrs. C. W. Buckley is to be assistant hostess.

MRS. FITCH HONORED
Mr. and Mrs. Deane Walker entertained informally at their home Friday evening for Mrs. Clara Fitch who is being welcomed home after a year away.

Mrs. Osburn is Hostess on Thursday

Mrs. W. F. Osburn was hostess Thursday afternoon for one of the loveliest parties of the week, entertaining at the Osburn hotel at bridge and tea. Guests for ten tables of cards were asked and a dozen others invited for tea. The party was given in the attractive Japanese tearoom at the hotel. Gladioli, roses, and michelmas daisies were used for an added touch of decoration.

Mrs. A. H. McDonald and Mrs. Harry T. Holden assisted the hostess. Mrs. Seth Laraway, Mrs. Walter O. Swan and Mrs. J. M. Shelley won honors at cards.

The invited guest list for the afternoon was: Mrs. David M. Graham, Mrs. J. M. Shelley, Mrs. Frank L. Chambers, Mrs. S. D. Allen, Mrs. J. H. McKinley, Mrs. Nelson F. Macduff, Mrs. W. H. Dale, Mrs. Herbert Rooms, Mrs. Blaine H. Hovey, Mrs. O. R. Gullion, Mrs. E. O. Immel, Miss Don Wright, Mrs. Addie Osburn, Mrs. George C. Heiter, Mrs. James Seavey, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Seth Laraway, Mrs. W. F. Laraway, Mrs. Herbert Olson, Mrs. Arthur W. Morris, Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers, Mrs. Alton F. Baker, Mrs. E. C. Moody, Mrs. Joseph H. Koke, Mrs. Harry T. Holden, Mrs. John Jay Rogers, Mrs. C. A. Jordan, Mrs. Lucy Abrams, Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. Walter O. Swan, Mrs. B. F. Butler of Chicago, Mrs. William M. Tugman, Mrs. J. W. Woodruff, Mrs. Lillian Senton, Mrs. David Auld, Mrs. Pauline Van Deane, Mrs. Lettie Mowrey, Mrs. Otto Gilstrap, Mrs. E. J. Frasier, Miss Amy Dunn, Mrs. George DeBar, Mrs. Ralph Martin, Mrs. Frederick K. Davis, Mrs. H. A. Booth, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. Carl G. Washburne, Mrs. J. W. Shumate, Mrs. Sigvald Skavlan, Mrs. Paul R. Kelly, Mrs. George Wilhelm, Mrs. Ivan Swenson, Mrs. Claude D. Rorer, Mrs. Harmon Anderson, Mrs. Timothy Cloran, Mrs. Idaho Campbell, Mrs. G. A. Ross, Mrs. E. O. Potter, Mrs. Albert H. Tiffin, Mrs. W. H. Seidel, Miss Inez Applegate, Miss Celeste Campbell, Miss Marian Lowry, Miss Grace Knopp, Miss Margaret Skavlan.

Degree of Honor to Have District Convention

Members of the Degree of Honor lodge are looking forward to the coming 28th, their district meeting will be held in Eugene. Sessions will be held in the local Modern Woodmen of America hall.

Seventy-five visitors from Albany, Salem, Junction City, Cottage Grove, and Bend are expected for the event. The meeting will also be occasion for visitations from a number of other lodges and states including, Lois A. Geier, national regional director, from Battle Ground, Wash.; Dora Bowers of Albany, state president; Eva Traver, Portland, state vice-president; Rodia Starr, Eugene, state past president.

The meetings open with a luncheon upon for delegates. Business session starts at one-thirty o'clock with election of district officers.

In the evening at six-thirty o'clock a banquet will be served by the Eugene lodge in the modern hall. Mrs. L. A. McNeil of Eugene is president for the convention.

Matrons' Guild to Have Luncheon Wednesday

Next Wednesday, September 25, brings an interesting event for members of Matrons' Guild auxiliary of Central Presbyterian church when they have the first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. C. O. Willson on Emerald Heights, Springfield.

The social committee of the guild, Mrs. Frances Leighty, Mrs. M. R. Tatt, Mrs. V. L. Brooks, Mrs. C. P. Burrell, Mrs. W. E. Stafford, are in charge for the meeting.

During the afternoon a musical program will be given by Mrs. Edna Pearson and Mrs. E. E. Wyatt.

Mrs. E. D. Curtis is president of the guild; Mrs. J. Ray Chapman, vice-president; Mrs. N. C. Nelson, secretary; Mrs. J. O. Holt, treasurer; Mrs. M. C. Harris, assistant treasurer.

Rainbow Order to Give Benefit Oct. 12

The Rainbow Order for Girls is to give a benefit card party and tea on the afternoon of Saturday, October 12, at the Masonic temple, according to announcement this week-end. Both bridge and five hundred will be played.

The next regular meeting of the group is to be held next Friday evening, September 27, at 7:30 o'clock in the Masonic temple.

A rummage sale is also being planned by the order, the date to be announced. Bernice Ingalls and Mary Garrison have charge.

Mrs. Van Deine to Entertain on Tuesday

Mrs. Pauline Van Deine will be among hostesses at a coming party on Tuesday, September 24, at her home at 1610 Mill street for a luncheon party. A group of twelve has been invited.

Mrs. Moore to be Hostess Monday Afternoon

Mrs. Kenneth W. Moore is to entertain on Monday afternoon at her home with a coming party to compliment Mrs. Mary Moore Hansen who is visiting here from Riverside, California.

Party on Birthday

Mrs. C. K. DeNeffe planned a birthday party for the pleasure of her daughter, Jean Marie DeNeffe, Saturday afternoon on the occasion of the latter's ninth anniversary. A group of sixteen was invited for this delightful affair. They went to the afternoon show at the theater, followed by a birthday luncheon.

Two Honored

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Clubb Jr. entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening to honor Miss Virginia Clubb of San Francisco, sister of Mr. Clubb, to honor Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Harold Wells, Mrs. Della Borin, Mrs. Clinton Chezen, Mrs. S. S. George, Mrs. Wallace N. Wheeler, Mrs. W. W. McCormack. In addition to cards, hospital sewing will be done.

Birthday Dinner

On Thursday evening, Mrs. Fred E. Smith entertained with an attractively appointed dinner party, giving the affair in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mr. Smith. Bridge was the evening's diversion. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. David M. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. John Jay Rogers, and the hosts.

Girls Entertained

Mrs. Henry D. Sheldon and Mrs. Kenneth Shumaker, patronesses of the Girls' Oregon club, entertained members of the group at an informal party at the home of Mrs. Sheldon on Tuesday evening. About twenty were present for this delightful affair. Mrs. Euel M. Pallett is also a patroness of the club.

Left—Mrs. Glenn W. Potts (Luella Andre) whose marriage was an event of September 11 in Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. Potts are to make their home in Eugene. Both are graduates of the University of Oregon, where Mr. Potts is affiliated with Sigma Pi Tau fraternity and Mrs. Potts a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Right—Miss Charlotte June Carl, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Carl, who last week announced her engagement to Edward Maurice Winter of Portland. Miss Carl and Mr. Winter both graduated from the University of Oregon the past June. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta and he is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta. No date has been announced for the wedding.

Mrs. Brown Gives Luncheon for Sixteen

Mrs. Percy W. Brown was hostess for a luncheon party at her home on Thursday.

Covers for sixteen were placed about the table beautifully set with dahlias for the centerpiece. Bridge was the afternoon's diversion. Mrs. Ernest R. Gilstrap assisted the hostess.

Committee Group is Entertained on Tuesday

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Barrett entertained at their home on Tuesday evening for members of the committee to have charge of the first dance of the Amusement club which is to take on September 24. Plans were talked for the new year in the club after which there was an informal program of music. A supper was served the table being attractively set with autumn flowers and leaves. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Meisel, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Nathanson, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Getting, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ellis, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Barrett. The officers of the club are Nathan Barrett, president; Paul D. Green, vice-president; and Louis Meisel, secretary.

Supper Will Honor Two Saturday Evening

Dean and Mrs. Eric W. Allen and Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller are entertaining informally at supper Saturday evening to honor Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly and Mrs. Clara Fitch, both of whom are being welcomed home after a year abroad. One course of the supper will be at the Allen home and the other at the Miller home.

New Chaperon

Miss Blanche White is being welcomed in university and town social circles as the new chaperon at the Delta Delta Delta sorority house on the campus. She comes from Wisconsin.

Community Club

The College Crest Community club will begin its new year on next Thursday evening, September 28, when members will assemble for a covered dish supper at six-thirty o'clock in the clubhouse of the group. The officers and trustees of the club

Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Beardsley Hostesses

Mrs. E. K. Wheeler and Mrs. G. S. Beardsley were hostesses at the home of the former on Wednesday afternoon for one of the mid-week charming events, inviting a group of thirty for needlework.

At the tea hour Mrs. J. W. Woodruff and Miss Jean Beardsley assisted the hostesses.

Supper Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton E. Spencer are to be hosts for a supper on Sunday evening at their home for the faculty of the university law school. Invited are Dean Charles E. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Rosson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Howard, Orlando Hollis.

Dakota Visitor Honored at Party

Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp and Miss M. Ethel Taylor entertained at the home of the former on Thursday evening to honor Mrs. Marie Grant Drew who is visiting here from South Dakota as guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grant.

Guests for the party included members of the Queen Esther circle, which was a former social group in the First Congregational church, and of which Mrs. Drew was a member. The circle was organized by Mrs. A. M. Spangler, wife of the former pastor of the church.

Pythian Sisters to Give Benefit on Oct. 26

A benefit bridge tea is announced for October 26 by the Pythian Sisters lodge. The affair will be given in the Knights of Pythias hall from two to five o'clock in the afternoon. A cooked food sale will be held in connection with the party.

Mrs. L. C. DeBurch is general chairman and will be assisted by Mrs. George Keegan, Mrs. F. L. Poindexter, Mrs. B. H. Will, Mrs. Darvina E. Moran, and Mrs. George W. Blair as the general committee. Mrs. Blair is in charge of the tickets.

C. A. R. Will Hold First Meeting Oct. 12

The first meeting of the fall for the Leonora Skinner society, Children of the American Revolution comes on Saturday, October 12, when the group will observe Columbus day. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. S. Conklin. Mrs. E. H. Hall is director for the society this year.

Mrs. McDonald Mrs. Rogers Entertain

Mrs. Arthur A. Rogers and Mrs. A. H. McDonald entertained on Wednesday for one of the week's social affairs when they entertained a trio of visitors at a beautifully appointed luncheon given in the Japanese tearoom of the Osburn hotel.

Shaking honors for the affair were Mrs. Walter Page Covell (Lyle Bryson), a visitor from New York city; Mrs. Deane H. Dickson (Lyle Bryson), who was here for a visit before her departure for the South Seas; and Mrs. Howard Moore who has been spending the summer here from Honolulu and who is soon for Georgia.

An elaborate centerpiece of pink and lavender asters formed the table decoration, and lovely blue delphinium and sinias were used in connection with the affair.

The guest list numbered Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Howard Moore, Mrs. E. R. Bryson, Mrs. Claude D. Rorer, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, Mrs. F. H. Snodgrass, Mrs. G. E. Luman, Mrs. Frank L. Chamber, Mrs. George H. Starr, Miss Ella Hendricks, Mrs. Jessie M. Honestyman, Mrs. F. A. Arnold Bennett Hall, Mrs. Addie Osburn, Mrs. Murray Warner, Mrs. Alton F. Baker, Mrs. George Dale, Mrs. Wilson H. Jewett, Mrs. J. K. Pratt, Mrs. Bruce Brundage, Mrs. Grover Cord, Miss Emily L. Sigward, Mrs. James H. Baker, Mrs. L. E. Sigward, Mrs. David R. Evans, Mrs. James K. King, Mrs. L. L. Hays, Mrs. David M. Graham, Mrs. Charles Jay Rogers, Mrs. Ivan Ware, Mrs. Amy Dunn, Mrs. H. A. Dunbar, Mrs. J. H. Holden, Mrs. Perry J. Edwards, Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. W. F. Osburn, Mrs. W. W. Callison, and the two hostesses.

A. A. U. W. to Honor Past Presidents At Tea

Past presidents of the local branch of the American Association of University Women are to be honored guests for the opening meeting of the group on Saturday, September 28, when a tea will be given in Alumni hall of the Gerlinger building.

Miss Mabelle Hair, Mrs. George Rebec, Miss Florence Alden, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, Mrs. Arthur Miner, and Mrs. John B. Bell are to be the honor guests.

Hours for the tea will be from three to five o'clock. Each member is to take a guest for the affair. Mrs. C. L. Schwering, Mrs. William Tugman, and Mrs. Wallace Pratt are the social committee, in charge of the tea. Mrs. D. D. Davis is president of the A. A. U. W. this year. The group meets on the fourth Saturday of every month during the club year.

Amaranth Social

Williamette Court, Order of the Amaranth has its social meeting on Monday evening, September 23, at eight o'clock in the Masonic temple. Mrs. A. D. Stokfoose and J. J. Galloway are to have charge of the evening.

Laraway Offers Two Good Pianos at $295

— and such good pianos! Two great makes—Kimball or Gulbransen—with full metal plates, copper-brass strings, quick repeating actions, good quality hammers, natural hardwood backs, white maple case linings, continuous fall board hinges, brass trimmings, three pedals. Beautiful cases in art finishes and finest woods.

Without a piano, your children will never really know music. See us today! Let us show you how easily you can own a good, new piano, one that your children will love and that you will take pride in. You can have all the time you need in which to pay.

Laraway Music House
KIMBALL AND GULBRANSEN PIANOS

KEEP COOL

Do your Letterwriting, Report Writing, Etc., in a nice cool spot with a Portable Typewriter.

All Makes $60.00. We also rent them.

Come in and See the New Attractive Colors

All Typewriters Guaranteed to Give Satisfaction.

OFFICE MACHINERY & SUPPLY COMPANY

1047 Willamette St. Guard Bldg.

L & R Beauty Shoppe

Specializing in Natural Croquisole Permanent Waves and Rejuvenes Facials for removing wrinkles and lines quickly.

Phone 1734 957 Willamette

Madame Shaffer

Wishes to announce to her many friends and patrons that she has returned from California and has opened her beauty parlor again. She will be pleased to meet all her old patrons as well as many new ones. 969 High St. Phone 1968.