

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

(Continued from Page Five.)

No. 5 with Mrs. C. J. Smith, 560 Broadway avenue east; No. 9 with Mrs. T. E. Rogers, 719 Fifteenth avenue east; No. 10 with Mrs. J. H. McClellan, 1723 Garden street with Mrs. C. H. Ladd as joint hostess.

Johnson Girl Visits Friend—Kathleen Mallon of Lebanon, is visiting her friend, Miss Dorothy Rodgers over the weekend.

Going South—J. O. Holt, manager of the Eugene Fruit Growers' Exchange, is going to San Francisco and points south on a business trip next week.

Kenneth Tobias Visits Parents—Kenneth Tobias who has been working at Redwood is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Tobias, of Springfield.

McKenzie Bridge School Is Out—The school at McKenzie Bridge is out for the year and Miss Marcha Dahl, who has taught there for the past two years, returned to Eugene yesterday afternoon.

U. of O. Student Called Home—Francis Linklater, a university student, was called to his home in Hillsboro this week by the death of his mother. He will return to his school work Monday.

O. A. C. Students Return—Albert Hauer and Joe Dyer, students at O. A. C., have returned to Corvallis after a short visit at the Phi Delta Theta house, of which fraternity both are members.

Crescent Principal in City—Carroll Pounce, principal of the school at Crescent, was in Eugene yesterday on business and was a visitor at the office of the city school superintendent.

Barton Files Discharge—Chas. C. Barton, of Eugene, filed his honorable discharge papers in the office of the county clerk yesterday. Barton was with the A. E. F. in France and took part in the battle of the Argonne and the Meuse.

Road Editor Here—F. W. Beach, editor and manager of the Pacific Northwest Hotel News and secretary of the state organization, was among the first to sign the register at the Oregon Hotel. Mr. Beach is expecting that his duties as secretary will be rather light at this meeting as this is the "recreation meeting" of the year. This business is all side-tracked until the meeting in December and the hotel men are now out to enjoy life.

Quarry Shot to Be Fired—A three-ton lump of powder shot will be set off Monday on the Eugene-Loraine road on the Mercer-Loraine contract. Mr. Rudolph of the Portland Powder company, of Portland, will be here to have charge of the shooting.

Transacting Business in Portland—John Stark Evans, professor of music at the university school of music, transacted business in Portland yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Evans returned down on Friday and returned Saturday.

Leaves for Portland on Monday—Mrs. Jennie Hurn, of Klamath Falls, who has been a guest at the home of her son, Ralph Hurn, of this city, expects to leave on Monday for Portland where she will visit with friends.

Cook and Slaughter to Fish—Al Cook of the Eugene Gun store and Joe Slaughter, of the Variety, are on a fishing trip on the McKenzie today. They plan to fish at Carey Thompson's place.

Hogues Leave for California—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hogues expect to leave the first of the week for a tour through California, which will last all summer. Mr. Hogues is a traveling salesman for a hardware concern.

Pine Pong Games Scheduled—The boys at the Y. M. C. are practicing Ping Pong now in order to have a game with the university faculty members some time in the near future.

E. B. U. Holds Cleanup Day—Cleanup day at the Eugene Bible university was held Friday. All students of the Bible university joined in clearing off the parking, cutting down weeds and painting.

Collins to Discuss Music—Wilkie Nelson Collins, professor of rhetoric in the university, will leave for Portland tonight, where he will address the Oregon State Federation of Music clubs on the "Cultural Import of Music" at the meeting Monday.

Several Families Move—Walter and Gerald Barnes, who have been occupying the Warren Smith residence, at 841 Nineteenth street, moved yesterday into the E. L. Packard house at 844 Nineteenth street. Professor Packard has moved to the corner of Potter and Twenty-first. The Smith residence will be occupied by the family.

Marries Former Fiance of Virginia Rappe

Miss Josephine Leigh, former "Follies" beauty, has been married in Los Angeles to Henry Lehman, famed film director. Lehman was to have married Virginia Rappe, for whose death Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle was tried for manslaughter.

fully of J. H. McClellan, of the Sound Tire company, who came here from Salem about a month ago.

Community Club Hears Radio Messages—A. J. Myers, of the White Electric company, took the radio receiving set and magnetron which is installed in the electric store to the College Crest Community club house for an entertainment last evening.

Board of Regents May Elect—The board of regents of the university which was to have met in March and which has not met since January seems likely to be called together within the next two weeks. The usual spring business will be taken care of.

Powder Man to Medford—L. V. Rex, the Giant Powder company representative for all of Oregon, who has headquarters at the E. A. Hall Hardware company, expects to leave Monday for Medford where he will transact business.

McLean's Spend Sunday at Walterville—Mr. and Mrs. George N. McLean are spending today at the home of Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Mary Millican, at Walterville. Mrs. H. E. Leveridge, of Sun Lake, Oreg., Cal., Mrs. McLean's sister, is a guest at the Millican home in Walterville.

Fred Lockley in Town—Genial, bubbling Fred Lockley, of the Portland Journal, dropped in yesterday on one of his many visits to this part of the country, gathering his usual crop of interviews and human interest stories.

Walters Sells Two Lots—F. C. Walters has sold two lots in the Walters and Beffert addition on Fifth avenue west, one to H. Johanson and the other to Charles Warnock. Mr. Warnock expects to erect a residence on his lot very soon.

Two Speeders Fined—John Reed was fined $15 by Police Judge Alta King yesterday for speeding his auto on Thirteenth avenue east and a similar fine was assessed Guy Perry for having exceeded the speed limit with his motorcycle on Franklin boulevard.

Easterner May Purchase Property Here—Louis Wagenhoffer, who has been looking over some property in Denver, Colo., is in the city with a view to making some purchases in this vicinity. Mr. Wagenhoffer states that his home is any hotel where he happens to stop over the country.

Deputy from Mercer Lake Visits—E. E. Mercer, of Mercer lake, north of Florence, was in town yesterday in connection with the case of the State vs. Larsen. Mr. Mercer is deputy sheriff in the Mercer lake country and while in Eugene he visited Sheriff Stickle's office.

Band Gives Concert at Cottage Grove—Twenty-five members of the Oregon State band went to Cottage Grove Friday evening where they gave a concert under the direction of their leader, Albert Perfect. Mrs. Arab Hoyt Smalley, soloist, sang two numbers.

Sigma Nu's Go to Corvallis—The Oregon and O. A. C. chapters of Sigma Nu fraternity met at Corvallis yesterday and played a basketball game after which they had a joint banquet. About 25 fellows went over from here and it is hoped that this event will become an annual affair.

Sunday School Has Program—With the close of a successful membership contest at the Mt. Vernon Union Sunday school, a literary program was given Friday evening. A party of students from the Bible university assisted on the program. Carl Smith was captain of the winning side in the contest.

Students Start Radio Firm—Garrett and Lewis, students in the university, filed papers with the county clerk yesterday for the name of their new business establishment to be known as the Excelsior Radio Manufacturing company. The new firm will undertake the manufacture, sale and installation of radio fixtures and supplies.

New Rhubarb—The first shipment of rhubarb, for the 1922 season was received at the plant of the Eugene Fruit Growers' company yesterday. The rhubarb was grown by George Scott, of Junction City, and was of excellent quality. Ten thousand pounds of the pie plant were put up at the local cannery last season.

Dean Dymont's Brother Hurt—Dean Colin V. Dymont may be called east on account of the very serious condition of his brother, Will Dymont who was kicked in the stomach by a horse. Dean Dymont was to have left Thursday for his brother's home, near Hamilton, Ontario, but received a telegram saying that the injured man was slightly improved.

People Visit from Yellowstone Parks—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parks, who are employed in Yellowstone park when it is open for tourists during the summer are in the city visiting Mrs. Parks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Turner at Sixth and Madison streets. Mr. and Mrs. Parks expect to return to Yellowstone park by June 20.

Baseball Suits Arrive—The uniforms for the Eugene baseball team arrived yesterday and will be distributed among the players for the time today. The suits are very nice appearing ones of gray cloth with blue stripes. The Sox are blue and the caps are of the same material as the uniforms with blue bills. Blue felt letters spelling the word Eugene are sewed across the front of the shirts.

Specialist Here from Portland—Dr. Thomas Ross, a skin specialist of Portland, was in Eugene yesterday and held a clinic in the office of Dr. Day and Hise in the Brown building in the afternoon, which was attended by Eugene and Lane county doctors.

Pamphlet Sent Across Sea—"Prophecies of Eugene's Future," a pamphlet issued by the Sam Hugh Realty company, has been sent upon request to Miss E. B. Denham, who lives on the Isle of St. Helena, in the south Atlantic ocean. Miss Denham lives on a farm said to have belonged to Napoleon, who was exiled to that island.

Married by County Judge—The office of the county clerk issued the following marriage license yesterday: Wallace W. Dunn, Corvallis to Mary E. Roberts, Eugene; Morton L. Brewster, Pleasant Hill, to Lillian Markham, Pleasant Hill, and Thomas L. Coy, Cushman, to Phoebe E. Few, Cushman. The last named couple were married by the county judge yesterday.

Mills Are Busy—Sixty-five ships cleared from Coos Bay loaded with lumber during the month of April, according to Charles Anderson, secretary of the North Bend chamber of commerce, who is attending the hotel men's convention in Eugene. This lumber is shipped to California, New York, the Orient, and to England. All the mills in the bay district are running to full capacity, says Mr. Anderson.

Former Student Visits City—Vernon Moteschenbacher, '14 of the University of Oregon, is in town for two days visiting friends and attending to business interests. Mr. Moteschenbacher is manager of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company in Portland. Until about three years ago his home was in Klamath Falls, from where he registered when in the university.

Improvements at Post Office—Bids will be opened on May 15 by J. H. Ruttle, superintendent of construction at the Eugene post office, for alterations to be made by local contractors at the building. The working space is to be improved by moving the mailers in the basement to a more suitable location. New lights will be put on all the working cases on the first floor and in the basement.

Student Has Story Accepted—Ernest Haycox, member of the Oregon Daily Emerald staff, has had a story accepted by "Sea Stories," an eastern magazine. The story was bought by this magazine after it had been sent out 15 different times, according to Mr. Haycox. "The check received," said he, "was of course, satisfactory. But the feeling of having got into print was better than a dozen checks."

Colonel May Passes Through—Colonel John L. May, trainmaster of the Northern division of the S. P., came from the Marshfield branch yesterday, inspecting the yards here. He left in the evening for Albany, where he "ride" the Barnes circus train to its next stop. "Some official of the company has to ride all special trains of that sort," said Col. May, "in order to see that things go smoothly."

Here from Cottage Grove—Mr. and Mrs. Eva E. Warner of Cottage Grove, visited last Thursday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Warner. Mr. Warner returned to Cottage Grove, where he is manager of Gray's Cash and Carry grocery. He expects to return to Eugene to see the performance of "Ragged Robin" tomorrow night. They are both graduates of the University of Oregon. Mrs. Warner was formerly Joy Jenkins, of this city.

Visiting the Laraways—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laraway and Mrs. W. F. Cooper of Hood River, Oreg., will arrive tonight to visit for several days with their sons and brothers Seth and Ralph Laraway. Mr. Laraway will also attend the jewellers' convention which will be held here Monday and Tuesday of this week. He is in the jewelry business at Hood River, and also has a number of apple orchards in that vicinity.

New Rates—Beginning May 25 the Southern Pacific will inaugurate a new schedule of rates to eastern points, according to A. J. Gillette, local agent. These rates will be down nearly to the level of pre-war fares. Commencing yesterday, new special round trip rates were put into effect between here and San Francisco. Liberal stop-over allowances have been provided for. Many inquiries have been made lately concerning summer travel, says Mr. Gillette.

Gophers and Moles to Be Fought—Announcement comes from the office of the county agricultural agent that a campaign of extermination is to be begun against moles and gophers. Meetings to demonstrate the methods of procedure will be held next Monday at Creswell, Tuesday at Goodpasture Island, and Wednesday at Pleasant Hill. Albert Swain, who is working

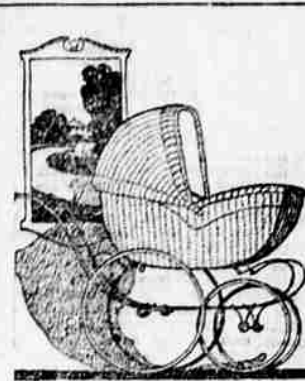

Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets Save Steps

This Popular Kitchen Cabinet Is on Sale at Applegate's Now

Priced from $45.00 to $90.00

Easy Payments

See Them This Week

Heywood Reed

Baby Carriages and Carts

Carriages $28.50 to $75.00

Carts $9.00 to $30.00

New 1922 Spring Models

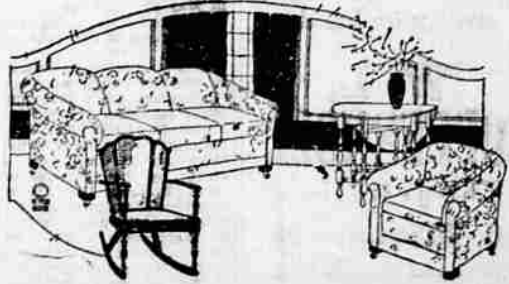

Springtime Furniture

We urge you to come in and see how the spirit of the season is reflected in the freshness and newness of the furniture, rugs, etc., that crowd our two large floors. You will be pleased with the very moderate price this year as compared with last. Keep in mind also in considering the purchase of home furnishings that your credit is always good at APPLGATE'S. Terms if you wish.

Your Credit Is Good at Applegate's

Just Delivered to Us

OVERSTUFFED chairs, rockers and davenport. Delightful combinations of comfort and beauty; all are the very newest in material and design.

Wedgewood Stoves and Ranges

The new combination wood, coal and gas range in gray enamel is an exceptional buy at $140.00. Other ranges as low as $70.00. We suggest that you prepare for next winter now by taking advantage of the spring and summer prices on Wedgewood heaters.

Applegate Furniture Co.

Eugene Theatre Bldg.

Phone 919

MEN!

You will buy clothes of quality in this store for less money. Men's and young men's all-wool brown, navy blue and tweeds—

$20, $25 & $30

Walk a block and save dollars on your clothes and shoes.

THE HUB

97 West 8th Ave. Corner Olive

Says What He Thinks-- Does What He Says

Elbert Bede

(Editor Cottage Grove Sentinel)

For the Legislature

(Paid Adv.)

Baker and Button

The Kodak Shop

CORNER 10TH & WILLAMETTE

Developing

Roll Films 10c

Packs 15c

Printing

Vest Pockets, 1 5-8x2 1-2.3c

120-2 1/4x3 1/4 3c

116-2 1/4x4 1/4 4c

130-3 7-8x4 7-8 4c

122 Post Cards 5c

ALBUMS FRAMES

DEVELOPING PRINTING ENLARGING PICTURE TINTING AND FRAMING

MORMON TANGLES INVOLVE CHILDREN

Marion Ruth and Georgia Gilchrist.

The question of whether Marion Ruth and Georgia Gilchrist, pictured here, shall be brought up as Mormons, in compliance with the wishes of an aunt and uncle, will be decided before Judge Frost, of Boston. Mrs. Charlotte White Burr, of the Boston Sunday school, seeks to retain permanent guardianship over the children, while the aunt and uncle are suing to have them entrusted to the care of Mrs. Florence H. Jepperson, Utah Mormon.

The Idea Where Did You Get It?

That a bank was only a place to deposit your money, a safety deposit box for your bonds, mortgages and insurance policies.

Modernize your ideas about banking relations by opening an account with this bank, where 8000 men and women have preceded you, daily profiting by consulting it about their financial and investment problems.

Our knowledge of Real Estate values, bond and mortgage investments will always be at your service.

UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK

The Bank of Service

EUGENE LOAN AND SAVINGS BANK

The Bank of Savings

Straw Hats

It will soon be straw-hat time. Wonderful values in Ladies', Men's and Children's Straw Hats—15c and up.

Dishes

Beautiful dishes in open stock patterns. Our prices are right. Come in and visit our Crockery dept.

Hosiery

New lot Ladies' and Gents' Hose, first quality cotton, 15c the pair.

For Housecleaning

Mops, Polish, Curtain Material, Curtains, Brooms, and everything to make this task more pleasant.

Millinery

We have for your selection a complete line of Ladies' and Children's Hats. Flowers, braids and shapes will also be found in large variety.

Glasses

First quality barrel glasses 10c

Ladies' Underwear

Just drop in and see for yourself what a complete line we have and what a great saving we will offer you in underwear.

Oregon Maid Hair Nets 10c

There are none better made—none made better

Hill's Economy Store