

MOTHER'S DAY SUNDAY, MAY 14

Of All Things!

"Nobody loves a fat man!"

Now, who in the world ever got up this old saw on these jolly good fellows?

Likely it was some peevish clothier who did not carry any stock of "stouts" to fit these pleasant fellows with the Advanced Waist Lines and Receding Hair Lines.

We must fuss up—we love these fellows—and we have clothes to fit 'em—at regular prices, too.

Whether men are of the bungalow or skyscraper type of architecture, whether you are—

Regular, Tall, High, Wide, Short, Thick or Big

we welcome you and will fit you!

Green Merrell Co.
men's wear
"One of Eugene's best stores"

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Insurance Man Here—Walter P. Papp, special agent of the Aetna Fire Insurance company, was in the city yesterday.

Goes Up Long Tom—George Love, of the army goods store, left yesterday on a fishing trip up the Long Tom river.

Returns from Coos Bay—George F. Morris, of this city, returned yesterday afternoon from a few days' trip to Coos Bay.

Visiting Here from Portland—Miss Faye Berry, of Portland, visited her sister, Mrs. Nellie Schraley, for a few days recently.

Bounty on Bobcats Paid—County Clerk R. R. Bryson yesterday paid to J. F. Stearns, of Mapleton, the bounty on three bobcats.

Term of School Finished—Archie Marsh has just a term of school in district No. 12 near Elmira and was in the city yesterday.

Final for Cutting Corner—A Morgenzen, driver of an auto stage, was fined $5 in police court yesterday for cutting a street corner.

Christians Defeat Methodists at Baseball—The Cubs of the Christian church defeated the Methodist N. N. N. baseball team yesterday afternoon by a score of 8 to 6. The battery for the Cubs was Sanborn and Page and the losing battery was Groshong and Page.

Returns from Drain—L. L. Woods, local piano mechanic, returned yesterday from Drain where he spent several days on business.

Portland Musician Here—F. C. Yager, musician of Portland, was in Eugene yesterday. He intends to play for several dances near Eugene.

University High School Student's Picnic—The senior class of the university high school went on a picnic hike yesterday afternoon.

Returns from Salem—Charles L. Paine, of the Sam Ruth Realty company, returned Thursday night from a business trip to Salem of several days.

Excavating for Creamery Business—The ground has been cleared and the work of excavating has been started for the new creamery on Olive street.

Observe National Hospital Day—National hospital day was observed yesterday by the sending of eight bath robes to the veterans' bureau hospital at Portland. The robes were made by the ladies of the Willakenit grange. National hospital day was observed in commemoration of the 122nd anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale.

Standard Oil Building Ladies' Rest Room—The Standard Oil company is constructing a ladies' rest room at its filling station on Thirteenth avenue and High street.

Here from Elmira—L. M. Peterson, farmer of Elmira, was in Eugene yesterday on business. Mr. Peterson just returned from a visit of several days to Portland.

Mrs. Solof Here on Visit—Mrs. A. Solof, of Salem, was here yesterday on a visit. She is the wife of the owner of the People's cash store on Ninth avenue east.

Circuit Court Case Dismissed—The case of Jonathan J. and Edith G. Keeney against Ernest W. and Clara M. Walker was dismissed yesterday having been settled.

Visiting from Coos County—Mrs. L. J. Belott, of Coos county, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Jones. Mrs. Belott intends to stay here about a week.

Marriage License Issued—A marriage license was issued yesterday by County Clerk R. S. Bryson to R. C. Mortenson, of Corvallis, and Arnel Joy Smith, of Springfield.

D. Y. O. S. Club Meets—The D. Y. O. S. club met at the home of Mrs. John Mueller yesterday afternoon and spent a social time. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

School Demonstration to Be Held—The junior high school will give a demonstration of its work during the past year at the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night beginning at 8 o'clock.

Here from Creswell—J. L. Stratford was in Eugene yesterday on business. Mr. Stratford has a filbert ranch and intends to go into the celery raising business this year.

Kinney in Portland—F. I. Kinney, of the Kinney and Hyde Realty company, expects to return today from a trip to Portland where he has been for the past few days on business.

Santa Clara Goes to Veneta—Santa Clara baseball team will cross bats with the Veneta team Sunday at 2:30 at Veneta. A large crowd of Santa Clara rooters is desired by their home team.

Max Arp Sells Cattle—Max Arp, Lane county breeder of pure-bred cattle, has shipped two blooded bull calves of the Holstein strain to S. H. Finley and F. H. Ankrum of Cheney, Wash.

Postal Employee Sick—Ben Serling, general delivery carrier at the post-office, has been absent from his duties for several days on account of sickness. His place is being taken by A. Neat.

Here from Roseburg—Miss Florence Sinnott, of Roseburg, is a week-end visitor in Eugene at the home of her sister, Miss Mildred Sinnott, of the office of the Siuslaw forest service here.

Returns from Portland—J. F. Inman, manager of the Brownsville woolen mills store here, returned last night from a business trip to Portland. Mr. Inman went to Portland Thursday.

Legion Play to Be Given at Eugene Theatre—The play, "Clarence," by Booth Tarkington, will be given at the Eugene theatre, Thursday, May 18, instead of at the armory as first announced.

Member of Latham School Board Here—Mrs. Nora Yearous, member of the Latham school board, was here yesterday on business connected with the proposed new school house in that district.

Y. M. C. A. Man to Speak at Church—George T. Pratt, of the Y. M. C. A., camp of the Booth-Kelly company above Wendling, will speak at Central Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Officers Are Named—Mrs. Otto Gilstrap is vice-president and Mrs. Frank Jenkins secretary of the Paterson Parent-Teacher association. These names were omitted from the list of officers as published.

Bean Campaign Manager Goes to Portland—Lloyd Riches, campaign manager for Louis E. Bean here, went to Portland yesterday where he will meet Mr. Bean, who is coming to Portland from The Dalles.

Oriental Caravan Leaves Today—About 75 members of the local lodge of Orientals will leave by automobile caravan this evening from the Odd Fellows' hall for Corvallis where they hold a parade with the Corvallis lodge at 7:30 and give the degree at 8.

Former Jeweler Here—Linden G. Leavitt was in Eugene yesterday from Newberg where he has been visiting with his parents. Mr. Leavitt returned to Newberg and will be in Eugene again on his way to California.

Monroe Wrestler Here—Ben Howard, wrestler from Monroe, who will appear in Jack Fulton's next card at the armory May 22, came to Eugene yesterday to train. Howard will work out with E. A. Britton at the Y. M. C. A.

Articles Stolen Out of Car—R. R. Gibson, living on motor route A, reported to the police yesterday that while his car was standing on the street here the night before someone stole an army coat, a ladies' coat and a robe.

Here from Heeeta Head—E. C. Mercer, farmer from Heeeta Head, was in Eugene yesterday on business. Heeeta Head is a promontory on the coast west of Eugene. Mr. Mercer has charge of road work in that part of the county.

Former Students Expected—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Simpson, former Oregon students, are expected here today on their way from North Bend to their home in Portland. Mr. Simpson is connected with the Portland fire department.

Here from Yoncalla—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Collier, former Eugene residents, were in the city yesterday from their ranch at Yoncalla. Mrs. Collier was receiving medical attention for her ankle which she broke before leaving Eugene.

Arrives from Los Angeles—Miss Margaret Kross, of Los Angeles, Cal., arrived in Eugene Tuesday evening to make her home with her niece, Mrs. Clyde E. Sells, who is now staying with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sells on the River Road.

Widow Named as Executrix—Mrs. Lida McGowan yesterday was appointed by the probate court executrix of the estate of her husband, Howard S. McGowan, who died at Cottage Grove January 15, 1922, leaving property of the estimated value of $2000. The appraisers are Mrs. M. S. Ayle, H. A. Korf and P. H. Davis. The entire estate was left to the widow.

S. P. Candidate for Queen Visits—Miss Rita Boynton, candidate of the Southern Pacific lines for queen of the jubilee to be held next week by the Portland Elks was visiting here yesterday and attended the dance of the employees of the line held at the armory.

Elmira-Southfield Road Closed—The road between Elmira and Southfield will be closed today and part of next week on account of bridge repairs on that section of road. The road will be open to travel Sunday but will close again Monday until further notice.

Track Meet to Be Held Here—The track squad of the freshmen of the University of Oregon will meet in a triangle track contest with the Chemawa Indians and the Washington high school of Portland, at Hayward field today prior to the baseball game between the Frosh and Hooks.

Here from San Francisco—Mr. and Mrs. Archie Lovelace, of San Francisco, were in Eugene yesterday on their way to Portland. They will return to Eugene Wednesday when Mr. Lovelace intends to go fishing with George N. McLean. Mr. Lovelace is representing an insurance company.

Eliert Bede Passes Through—Eliert Bede, of Cottage Grove, passed through the city yesterday afternoon on his way to attend a meeting of the Jurisprudence committee of the grand lodge, A. F. & A. M. He was accompanied by Mrs. Bede, their daughter Beth, Mrs. H. W. Titus and Miss Elise Price, all of Cottage Grove.

Special Music Sunday—The musical program at the First Unitarian church on Sunday morning at the mothers' day services will include the singing of "Mother Machree," by Robert McNight, and a violin solo by Miss Claire Turley. The pastor, Frank Fay Eddy, will preach upon "The Madonna, Imperishable."

Bicycles Await Claimants—Awaiting claimants at the city hall are seven bicycles that have recently been picked up by the police. Three wheels seemingly abandoned were reported to the police yesterday from the university and these have been added to the collection and are being held until the owners can identify their property.

National Guard to Go to Range—In preparation for the annual summer camp of the national guard units the local companies will have their first outdoor rifle practice of the season next Sunday on the range south of the city. Whether there will be target firing at the Camp Lewis range during the summer camp has not yet been determined.

Oriental to Go to Corvallis Today—About 75 Orientals are expected to make the trip to Corvallis this evening at 5 o'clock to cooperate with the Corvallis lodge in giving the degree to a number of candidates. The party will meet at the Odd Fellows hall and will be under the leadership of E. K. Wheeler, noble grand of the Spencer Butte lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Osburn Visit Holy Land—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Osburn, of this city, who are on an European trip of several months, have visited the Holy Land and the many sacred points of interest in Palestine, according to word received from them by D. L. Cartmell. Mr. and Mrs. Osburn expect to visit Egypt before returning to the United States some time next month.

High School Students Elect—Students of the Eugene high school at the annual election of student body officers for the coming year, have named the staff as follows: Edward Taylor, president; Grace McDermott, vice-president; Alma Koepf, secretary; Mark Sanderson, treasurer; Gerald Snyder, basketball manager; Harold Crocker, manager of dramatics; John Scott, manager of the glee club; Carroll Groshong, manager of debate; Belden Babb, Eugene High School News manager; Leo Rapp, editor of the News.

Take Elderly People to Church in Autos—On Sunday morning at the Methodist church Dr. J. M. Walters will preach on "A Modern Madonna." The Epworth League second chapter is planning to bring the elderly people in automobiles to this service as guests of honor. As there has been a great deal of discussion throughout the country because of the efforts of the parent-teacher associations, Dr. Walters will speak at the 8 o'clock hour of "The Individual, the Home and the State" Sunday, May 21, has been denounced by the Methodist church of this city as non-communally of its members.

Colonization of Jews Lost Cause—A letter just received by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Rolfs from Mrs. W. F. Osburn dated at Jerusalem, April 18, is in part as follows: "Visited Jericho yesterday. Saw the Dead sea and washed my hands in the Jordan. 'Holite' note Country stars, and uninviting. Much superstition among the people. Moslems the least. To observers all Christ's mission seems to have been in vain. Colonization of Jews a lost cause. Arabs and Christians alike oppose it. War will result if immigration continues. Jewish colonies, very prosperous, are making the desert bloom like the rose. Natives do the work; America sends the money. Vain dream of Jewish nation."

PERSONAL MENTION

William Holliston was in the city from Creswell yesterday.

I. M. Hill, of Harburg, was in Eugene yesterday on business.

Mrs. G. W. Kelsey, of Pleasant Hill, was in Eugene yesterday for medical treatment.

Herbert Tandy, farmer of Elmira, was in Eugene yesterday receiving medical attention.

C. E. Gibson, who has a ranch on the Irving road, was in the city yesterday on business.

C. M. Richardson, of Leaburg, was in the city yesterday and was registered at the Sineed.

W. M. Kelsey, stockraiser and ranchman of Lost Valley, was in the city yesterday transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Reid and son, Lawrence, and Annabel Reid were Wednesday evening guests of Mrs. Chas. Baker, on River avenue.

DIED

JESSEN—At her home, 341 Fourth avenue west, at 6:30 o'clock May 11, 1922, Mrs. Mette Jessen. Besides her husband, Marcus Jessen, she leaves three sons and one daughter; Mrs. Mary Lucke, of Eugene; H. P. Jessen, of North Dakota; Charles A. Jessen, of Waterville, and L. H. Jessen, of Eugene. The funeral is to be held from the Branstetter chapel Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. H. Iversen, of the Danish Lutheran church, will have charge of the service. Interment is to be in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

BORN

SLACK—To Mr. and Mrs. Paul Slack, at the home of Mrs. Slack's mother Mrs. Fred Yockey, 125 Jefferson street, May 12, 1922, a son, weight nine and one half pounds.

Violins bought, sold and repaired. Eugene Music Shop, 8 East 9th St.

Warner's Rust-Proof Corsets

Specially Designed For Summer Wear

You will know these corsets by name—they're the product of the leading corset manufacturer. The new spring models are designed for maximum comfort—are lighter and give more freedom. Women of fashion everywhere are relying with confidence upon Warner's to fill their every want for corset comfort. Warner's corsets at $1.50 to $5.00.

WARNER'S CORSELETTES

Corselettes (girdle and brassiere combined) have all the suppleness required for sports wear, and give a graceful support.

Priced at $1.50 to $5.50

LARGE'S

865 WILLAMETTE STREET 865

REX

"The Home of the Super-Wurlitzer"

Playing 1 to 11 p. m. Today

WALLACE REID

IN "The World's Champion" with Lois Wilson Kid McCoy

Also Playing "Ham" Hamilton in "Rolling Stones" A Rex Comedy

Coffee Talks!

Ves-

Hills Bros. Red Can COFFEE

Speaks for itself!

The Original vacuum packed coffee

COPYRIGHT 1922