Don't Neglect Your Eyes

Some People Travel Miles for Relief, While Others Close by Sit Idly and Suffer

Many people come to Eugene from Salem, Roseburg, Albany, Brownsville and other places in the valley to have the correct errors of vision by fitting their eyes with the correct glasses.

In Eugene today there are many who are suffering from eye troubles and need the attention of a specialist, still they neglect to have cared for one of the most important organs of the human body.

While many are spending hours in travel and going to additional expense to reach my office, there are others close by who continue to suffer and do not take the little time that is required, to come here, and get their eyes correctly fitted with glasses.

I am here to give you the same good service and benefits that others travel from a distance to get. I use only the best materials the world produces. My charges are no higher than you would pay elsewhere, and I guarantee absolute satisfaction in every respect.

For over a third of a century I have been correcting eye troubles by fitting eyes with the right glasses. My phone number is 1454. Make an appointment or call at my office.

Mayor Hobson has declared Saturday, May 20, as clean-up day. This is the last official act of Mayor Hobson as mayor of Creswell, as he leaves for Wendling for the summer.

The American Legion held a business meeting at their rooms on Thursday evening.

THESPIANS SCORE IN PLAY

COMEDY DRAMA PRESENTED BY HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS
(Register Lane County Special)

CRESWELL, Ore., May 13. — The seniors of the high school owned the day Friday as they gave two presentations of the comedy three-act drama entitled "Safety First" one in the afternoon at a matinee and the other in the evening. Both shows were well attended, the afternoon being designed to give the children first place. The evening show had a capacity house and the two brought in about $90. The cast of characters has been published and each participant was especially good and the three acts kept the audience in a constant uproar.

The attention given to stage effects was also a feature as the last scene representing a garden was especially artistic and unique. Between acts special numbers were rendered by the girls glee club, a song by a few girls and a duet by Marvin Schepman and Hubert Leabo.

An after-theatre party was held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Tryon on Friday evening at which a luncheon was served. The young ladies participating were Miss Wilma Pratt, Miss Mildred Pratt, Miss Verbles Robbins, Miss Carol Rogers, Miss Opal Weber, Miss Ruth Olson, Miss Lois Everson and Mrs. Ethel Everson.

VOLUNTEERS WORK ROADS

MEMBERS OF SPENCER BUTTE CLUB CLEAR STRETCH
(Register Lane County Special)

SPENCER BUTTE, Ore., May 13. —The various members of the Spencer Butte Progressive Community club met on Saturday, May 6, to work on clearing the right-of-way of the new road they are making through to the Alder street road. There were about 15 men present and made the woods ring with noise of axe and saw.

The ladies met at a convenient place on the road and furnished a fine picnic dinner. It was expected that one of the county agricultural agents would speak at noon on the "Poisoning of the Grey Squirrel Pest," but for some reason he failed to appear. Disappointment was expressed but it is planned to have him come some other time.

MUSICAL EVENT PLEASES

OLD MARKET STREET PRESENTED AT COTTAGE GROVE

Production Under Auspices of Euterpean Club is Directed By Miss Ethel Silsby

(Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., May 11.—The most stupendous of anything ever attempted here in the musical line was "Old Market Street," presented Tuesday and Wednesday nights in the armory by the Euterpean club, under the direction of Miss Esther Silsby. The club membership includes a large number of the city's most finished artists and sweetest voices. All seemed at their best upon these evenings and the costumes and decorations representing various nations added a charm and gave a setting that was particularly pleasing.

The nations represented were the United States, Holland, Spain, Arabia, Hawaii, Scotland, Gypsy and Japan. Booths for each were arranged around the west and south sides of the building and the program was given from these. Aesthetic dancing in the form adapted to the nations represented added much to a most elaborate program.

Mrs. Leah Perkins Wyatt, of Salem, a former pupil of Miss Silsby, gave a vocal number, "The Shiek," which was heartily encored. She was in the Arabian booth.

Mrs. E. E. Arthur directed the dancing and was highly complimented for the unusual success of this part of the program. Miss Elsie Price acted as accompanist in her usual pleasing and artistic manner.

The entire production was, without question, the most finished and most elaborate production ever given here, being far superior to many chautauqua programs. Miss Silsby, the director, added materially to laurels already won in promoting the artistic life of the community.

The net proceeds go to the military club.

CHARLES W. SEARS DIES

MEMBER OF PIONEER FAMILY IS SUMMONED
(Register Lane County Special)

COTTAGE GROVE, Ore., May 11.—Charles W. Sears, member of a pioneer family, died Tuesday at the age of 64 years, following a paralytic stroke. Funeral arrangements have been postponed pending the arrival of a son from Florida, who had left for here before his father's death.

Mr. Sears was born here October 28, 1857, and always had made this his home. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jasper Sears, pioneers. He always followed farming and owned a 500-acre ranch. He was married on September 24, 1882, to Amanda Melvina Tope, who survives. Surviving children are Brison and Clarence, of this city; Mrs. L. K. Brumfield, of Marshfield, and Andrew, of Jacksonville, Fla. One brother, Lewis Sears, is the only survivor of six boys of the family. Two sisters survive. They are Mrs. Sarah Jones and Mrs. Amanda Ganger, both of Pendleton.
