Lieutenant Colonel George N. Davis spoke to a large congregation at the Salvation Army "crusade" meeting last night on the subject of "Naaman," who, the colonel said, was cleansed of leprosy by plunging seven times in the River Jordan.

Colonel Davis stated that leprosy was a type of sin.

"No successful human cure has ever been discovered for leprosy," he said, "God always deals with this disease through miracles."

The colonel declared deliverance could be found from sin by "plunging into the cool, cleansing waters of Calvary's stream."

"The only way which God has provided whereby men can be healed of the leprosy of unrighteousness,"

Captain Doctor sang "My Sins Went Rolling Away."

Captain L. S. Anthony announced last night that all members of the American Legion, Lane County post No. 3, were invited en masse to attend Colonel Davis' address, "In Flanders Fields," Monday at 8 o'clock.

ARMENIAN GETS NEW SUIT

EUGENE MAN'S CLOTHES SENT BY MISTAKE

Some poor Armenian is soon to receive a brand new suit of clothes from Eugene.

A few days ago a member of one of the sororities at the university borrowed from her brother a suit of clothes that had never been worn, for the purpose of wearing it at a masquerade. When the masquerade was over she hung the clothes up in the closet of her room.

Shortly afterward the drive of old clothing for the Armenians began. Other members of this sorority saw this suit of clothes in the closet and bundling it up, sent it out with a lot of other things gathered together at this house. The mistake was not discovered until too late to hunt up the missing suit of clothes at the local warehouse where these things are collected for shipment.

DRAINAGE TOUR TO BE HELD

TOUR TO START JUNE 1 INCLUDES EUGENE

Various Districts in Valley to Be Visited—Trip Under Auspices of State Association

A tour of the drainage areas of the Willamette valley has been arranged for the annual field meet of the Oregon State Drainage association to be held June 1 to 3. Those wishing to make the trip will meet at Salem at the Marion hotel Thursday morning, June 1.

The large tile plant near the fair grounds will first be inspected, then the drainage district on Lake Labish. There the men will have an opportunity to see a ditching machine of the type built by S. H. Brown, president of the association. A movie camera will be along on the trip so that pictures of the various enterprises can be taken. That afternoon the drainage projects in Lane county will be examined, the party going by way of Albany, Lebanon, Brownsville, Coburg and on to Eugene for the night.

The second day wet areas on the west side will be examined as far north as Corvallis where the party will stop for lunch and to inspect the tiling experiments on the experimental station fields. Later in the afternoon the party will tour Polk county, reaching McMinnville in the evening. Yamhill and Washington counties will be visited Saturday, June 3. The party will reach Wapato Lake, a Washington drainage district number 7, before noon and will dine after lunch in Forest Grove.

A government drainage engineer from the office of rural engineering at Corvallis is a month ahead of the trip and will complete the preliminary designing of the outlet ditches for the principal wet places in the valley. Most of these areas have been largely outlined in connection with the detailed engineering work. It is now planned to have the preliminary map showing all wet areas and outlets needed ready in time for the drainage tour.

Detailed soil surveys of six of the nine valley counties indicate that approximately one-third of the soils in the valley are so wet as to require drainage as the first step in their development. These lands are favorably located as to transportation lines and their productivity can be doubled by drainage. Drainage is the most permanent improvement that can be given these lands and should precede any other investment in soil treatments.

"Keep the first three days in June open and join the caravan," urges W. L. Powers, head of the department of soils at Oregon Agricultural college, and secretary of the state drainage association. "This trip will be highly instructive as it will enable everyone to see all of the important wet areas in the valley."

Eighth Grade Examination

Uniform state eighth grade examination will be given in school districts which have pupils who have fulfilled the conditions and for whom applications for questions have been received on Thursday and Friday, June 8 and 9, 1922. Conditioned pupils in the May examination must work off conditioned subjects at this examination and questions will be sent for them. Pupils who have failed will have to apply for questions if they want to take it again.

COOPER ASPIRES TO BE GOVERNOR

He is writing letters announcing his candidacy for president. B. L. Eddy, Douglas county senator, wrote some letters several months ago looking for support, but no developments along this line have been heard recently.

Herbert Gordon is seeking Herbert Gordon of Multnomah is canvassing the situation; with what success is not known. Dentel Burdick, of Deschutes, Jefferson, Crook, Klamath and Lake, is the only legislator from east of the Cascade mountains who is aspiring for the position of pre-riding officer. Thomas E. Kay of Marion county is another who has launched a candidacy for speaker.

During the next six months all of the aspirants will be scouting for votes and this will be continued after the general election until some one has 31 votes pledged for speaker and some one has 15 votes sewed up for president.
