Vacation Food Service for You

Now that vacation time is directly on us and you are naturally making your plans for the summer outing, let us relieve you of all food worries. If you are having your outing at any place that may be reached by stage lines from Eugene just leave your orders with us and we will see that our groceries and prepared foods even are delivered to you carefully packed. A large number of people are already planning to take advantage of this service and we hope you will be on the list.

Home-Grown Strawberries Are In

The strawberry season locally has been unusually late, but the luscious red Oregon berries have at last started to ripen and we will be able to supply you with berries locally grown in any quantity soon. We suggest that you look over your canned fruit and start making plans for your strawberry canning.

Speaking of Canning

Since we have mentioned canning strawberries we are reminded to also suggest that you examine the stock of empty jars, caps, rubbers, clamps and all other canning equipment. We are prepared to furnish you with all necessary canning supplies.

Picnicking This Sunday?

Don't bother fussing around preparing a lot of food for your picnic Sunday—our prepared food department is here for that purpose. Call us up and let's work out that picnic lunch together. We're doing it all the time and might be able to help you. Tell us what you have in mind serving and how many people in the party, and let us do the worrying.

Don't Forget the Bakery

One of the many departments of our big food department store, although not the least by any means, is our bakery. We make all sorts of cakes and pastries, including a number of novelties—bear paws, butterhorns, strawberry tarts, etc.—a pastry for every taste. When ordering bread ask for the "bread in the butterfly wrapper."

Spring Vegetables Abundant

Green peas, spinach, asparagus, lettuce, cucumbers, radishes, new potatoes—doesn't such a list make you hungry for vegetables? Gooseberries are in, too—why not a gooseberry pie tonight?
