

The Victrola is the standard of musical value

Victrola No. 260 $160 Mahogany or walnut

When purchasing a sound-reproducing instrument consider these important facts:

- 1 Musical performance is the first consideration—and it is evident that the greatest artists would not make records for the Victrola if it did not present their interpretations true to life itself.
- 2 Nowhere else can you find such a collection of music as contained in the Victor Record Catalog—and the Victrola is the one instrument specially made to play Victor Records.
- 3 The Victrola embodies all the worth-while basic and fundamental improvements of the past quarter-century. There isn't a material nor an idea nor a process that enters into talking-machine construction which has not been put to the test in the Victor experimental and research laboratories.

Victrolas $25 to $1500.

BOBBY BARRETT KNOCKED OUT IN SIXTH BY TENDLER

Barrett Tries Vicious Swings But Tandler Too Fast

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—Low Tandler, of Philadelphia, tonight knocked out Bobby Barrett, of Clifton Heights, Pa., in the sixth round of their scheduled eight-round bout at the National League baseball park in the presence of more than 20,000 spectators, one of the biggest crowds that ever saw a boxing match in Philadelphia. The knockout came toward the close of the sixth round. The fighters weighed in at ringside, both tipping the beam at 137½ pounds. Herman Taylor, one of the promoters of the show, was chosen as referee.

In the first round, after a cautious start, Tandler drove into Barrett with a series of swings to the body, interspersed with several sharp jabs into the face. Before the close of the round, Barrett was bleeding from the nose and as the going sounded Tandler had his opponent well on the run.

Barrett tried his vicious swings in the second round but Tandler was too fast for him. Barrett's attempted blows missing his mark on such occasions. Tandler, in the meantime, continued to hammer Barrett all over the body and several times had him staggering.

It was a ripping left-hand swing that caught Barrett full on the solar plexus. He dropped to the mat, writhing with pain, and at the count of ten, when the bell rang, his seconds jumped into the ring to revive him. Many persons in the crowd believed the blow was low but Referee Herman Taylor declared it was not. In order to keep the crowd out of the ring, where Barrett was being given a hasty medical examination, a cordon of police was thrown around the prostrate boxer. After the police had restored order, Barrett was assisted to his dressing room. He was not badly hurt.

From the beginning until the finishing blow, Tandler showed that he was the master. Although both boxers were said to have weighed in at 137½ ringside, Barrett appeared to be lighter and was more immature than his opponent. Barrett repeatedly attempted to get in a knockout with wild left swings, but Tandler was too clever. He hit Tandler a few times but the blows, although seemingly of great power, had no effect. At no stage of the battle did Barrett put up an adequate defense against Tandler's rain of blows. On the other hand, Tandler's defense was almost perfect.

In the first preliminary to the Tandler-Barrett fight, George Chaney of Baltimore, knocked out Albie Nick of New York in the opening round of their scheduled eight-round contest.

In the semi-final, Earl Franco, of Los Angeles, shaded Tib Dronoy, of Lancaster in a clever, clean eight-round bout. Not once during the contest did Referee Kulch have to put his hand on either man or step between them to prevent hitting in the breakaway.

Phil "K. O." Kaplan, Jersey City, gave Joe Jackson, Philadelphia, a severe beating in the second bout and won by a wide margin.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The New York state athletic commission today served notice on Johnny Kilbane, featherweight boxing champion and Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, that unless they sign articles by June 20 agreeing to meet challengers for their titles, the championship claims of both will be declared forfeited, so far as the jurisdiction of the state commission is concerned. The commission stipulated that Kilbane must accept a challenge by Johnny Dundee and that Wilson must fulfill a contract it declares he made some time ago to box Harry Greb, who recently won the light heavyweight title by defeating Gene Tunney.

COYOTE LOSES TO LORANE

HOTLY CONTESTED GAME WAGED ON LAST SUNDAY

(Register Lane County Special)

LOLANE, Ore., June 6.—A fiercely contested ten inning game of baseball played Sunday between the Lorane and Coyote teams on the latter's grounds was won by Lorane. The score was ten to nine, and the deciding play of the game came in Lorane's half of the tenth inning when Davis, the Lorane pitcher, rapped out a three base hit with one man ahead of him. In the Coyote's half of the tenth inning, Davis set the hitters down in order by the strike out route.

The game was more interesting than the score would tend to indicate, as twice Coyote had three men on bases with none out, but was unable to get them across the plate. Lorane to date has won four games and lost none.
