

HARDWARE DEFEATED IN BARBER-DENTIST CLASH

Postoffice Remains In Tie By Winning Game

Standing of the Teams

Team	W.	L.	Dot.
Postoffice	6	1	.857
Barber-Dentists	6	1	.857
Hardware	5	3	.625
Garagemen	5	3	.625
Butchers-Confectioners	4	3	.571
Builders	3	3	.500
Plumbers	2	4	.333
Shoe-Fuelmen	2	5	.286
Bankers	2	6	.250
Standard Oil	1	5	.147

As the result of the two games played in the Twilight League last night the race has narrowed down to a dual affair between the Postoffice team and the Barber-Dentists. In a brilliant and speedy game staged on the fair grounds yesterday evening the Postoffice men nosed out the Shoe-Fuelmen by one lone tally, the final score being 2 to 0. Ward drifted the leather across the pan for the winners and Bellar directed the Shoe-Fuelmen battery.

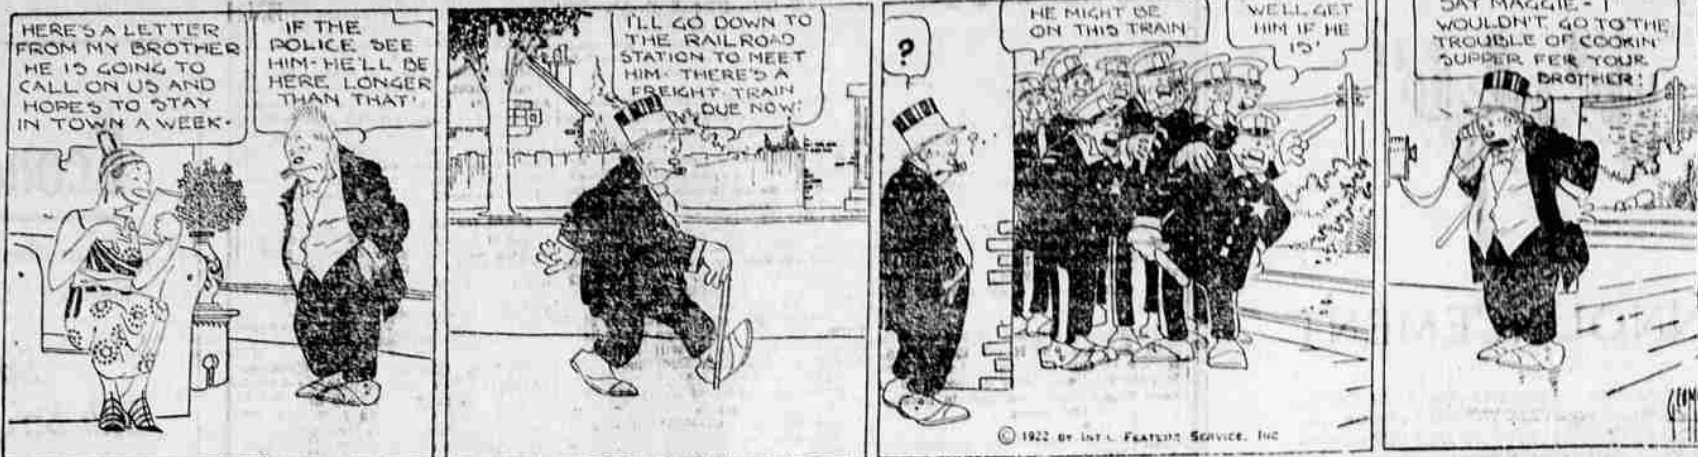

The Hardware men died hard in the game played on the university diamond, but the score rolled up on them by the Barber-Dentists appears to be a hand on the wall writing a prophetic message that the men who remove whiskers and teeth are out to capture the hunting for their warrior. Five to one was the final count—a count which ruined the title hopes of the Hardware men, former league leaders. Hurn and Robertson served as the battery for the defeated team, while Whitstone and Yockey are members of the winning combination. Liebertson made the lone tally for the Hardware team, and the scores for the winners were annexed by Pharis, Moore and Wintler, Pharis and Moore both brought in two of the tallies for their team.

Large crowds witnessed both games last night. This evening the Plumbers meet the Garagemen at the university, and the Bankers will tangle with the Butchers at the fair grounds. It is likely that the one big event left for next week will be a game between the Postoffice team and the Barber-Dentists for league honors.

FULTON PLANS FAST CARD FOR ARMORY GO MONDAY

Several Notables Signed Up By Fight Promoter

One of the main features of the big bout to be held in the armory next Monday night, July 24, is the mixed go between Carl Miller, and Nick Zvolin. Jack Fulton, local promoter, says that there has been considerable argument concerning the relative merits of a boxer and a wrestler when placed in the same ring and permitted to fight in their own way, and on Monday night a practical demonstration of a mixed bout will be held that fans may judge for themselves. Miller will enter the ring as a boxer while Zvolin will try to best his opponent by the holds and twists of a wrestler.

The main event on Monday's program is the wrestling match between Ted Tye, champion wrestler of the Pacific Coast, and Doc Furness, of Chicago. Furness is now in Tucson and has been training strenuously for some time. Fulton has taken him to several of the near-by towns to let the fans look him over and judge for themselves. Furness is a medical student, is the wrestling partner of Johnny Myers, champion lightweight title holder of the world.

Fulton is now arranging a couple of preliminary events for the night of July 24, and he hopes to bring in a few fast lads to give the fight fans of Eugene a real exhibition. He announced last night that he would bring set Strone, of Junction City, to appear on the preliminary card.

THOUGHT HE HAD TITLE WON

SHOT OUT OF ROUNDS COST JOHN BLACK CHAMPIONSHIP

OAKLAND, Cal., July 20.—John Black, veteran professional of the Clearmont club, at home here today after the national open golf championship at Chicago, said he really thought he had the champion ship under his hat up to the 11st hole.

"It seemed everyone else did, too," he said, "but that shot out of bounds from the first tee cost me the big prize. But Gene Sarazen is a fine wagger and deserved to win."

Black says the new champion is a great golfer. A times his short game borders on the phenomenal, according to Black, and his tee shots are well up to the average.

SEEKS BRITTON-SHADE GO

FITZSIMMONS TO STAGE CARD SATURDAY, AUGUST 5

CHICAGO, July 20.—Floyd Fitzsimmons, promoter of the Benny Leonard-Rocky Kinsas boxing contest at Michigan City, Ind., July 4, today opened negotiations for a championship match between Jack Britton, the welterweight title holder, and Dave Shade, the California welterweight.

Fitzsimmons plans to stage the contest in his new arena on the afternoon of August 5, on which days the Elks of Indiana will hold their state convention in Michigan City. He intended staging a contest between Leonard and Ever Hammer of Chicago on that date but failed to receive a favorable reply from the lightweight champion.

Fitzsimmons will meet Jack Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearney, in Detroit Saturday, to close a labor day contest for the heavyweight champion. Bill Brennan will probably be the opponent selected.

Paul Leahy Is Suspended
MONTREAL, Que., July 20.—Paul Leahy, amateur heavyweight champion of the province of Quebec, who has been appearing in exhibition matches with Jack Dempsey, was suspended today by the amateur union of Canada and may lose his amateur standing. Tex McErwin, the tawna professional, will join the Dempsey sparring squad.
