

LEWIS UNIONSUITS for MEN

INSIDE INFORMATION

ONCE IN A WHILE YOU'LL MEET A MAN WHO STILL MAINTAINS, "YOU CAN'T GET ANY REAL TAILORING IN A READY TO WEAR SUIT."

THIS STORE IS FOR HIM!

WE'LL SHOW HIM REAL TAILORING IN

FASHION PARK and SOCIETY BRAND Clothes

$35 and More

CUSTOM SERVICE WITHOUT THE ANNOYANCE OF A TRY-ON

Green Merrell Co.
men's wear

"One of Eugene's best stores"

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Employee Reported Ill—Miss Edna Dwyer, of the A. Billy department store, is now confined to her home with illness.

Here from Portland—Emaline Moore, of Portland, is now in the city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barrett.

Mrs. Huston Recovering—Mrs. R. S. Huston, who has been ill for the past month, is reported to be very much improved.

Will Spend Week-End at Oakridge—Ray Wing of the Fifth avenue garage is planning to spend the week-end on a motor trip to Oakridge.

Quarantine Is Removed—The health authorities have removed the quarantine from the Billmire residence at 491 Eighth avenue west.

Returns from Reedsport—Mr. and Mrs. J. Hickox and family returned yesterday from Reedsport, where they spent a vacation lasting ten days.

Goes to Los Angeles—Glenn Morris, of the Eugene Farmers' creamery, has left for Los Angeles to spend a two week vacation visiting friends.

Mother Is Ill—Emmett Sharp, county commissioner, yesterday afternoon was called to Cottage Grove on account of the illness of his mother.

May Start Novelty Store—From Astoria, Mont. writes Mrs. J. G. Bryant that she intends to come to this city and establish a novelty store.

Return East—Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Perry, daughter and son of Springfield, Mass., have returned home after spending five weeks with Mrs. Perry's mother, Mrs. Nick Meier, of Camp Creek.

Four L. Representative Here—M. W. Miller, district field officer of the Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, is in Eugene in connection with business of the organization. The visitor is from the Portland headquarters.

Veteran Discharged from Hospital—Alvin Crosby, an ex-service man of Eugene who has been at the hospital in Tacoma for the past two years undergoing treatment for injuries received while in the army, has been discharged and has returned to his home in this city.

Visits in Country—H. E. Owen, proprietor of the Owen billiard parlors and cigar store, yesterday went out into the country to spend the day with friends.

Attorney Goes to Salem—O. H. Foster, local attorney, yesterday made a trip to Salem attending to some legal business. He was to return to Eugene last night.

Car of Stock to Be Shipped—A car of hogs and sheep is to be shipped Tuesday to the North Portland yards by the Lane County Cooperative Shipping association.

Rail Official Returns from Coast—F. G. Lewis, traveling representative of the Southern Pacific lines, has returned after a business visit of several days at Marshfield.

In from Creswell—Lawrence J. Smith, an ex-service man from Creswell, was in Eugene yesterday and while here visited at the local headquarters of the Red Cross.

Leaving for McCredie Springs—Walter S. Hardie and Frank Teltman, residing on motor route 10, will spend the week end on a camping trip in the vicinity of McCredie springs.

Dr. George on Vacation—Dr. and Mrs. L. E. George, accompanied by their children, today will leave by automobile for coast resort cities. They will also visit in Portland.

Independence Visitor Here—Mrs. Marshall Pengra, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Smith of this city, is spending a few days with her parents here and will leave for her home Sunday.

New Resident from Texas—C. A. Hodges, a brother of L. E. Hodges, member of the Dice grocery store, has arrived here with his family from Tyler, Texas, to make his home in Eugene.

Portland Musician Visiting—Rex Stratton, former University of Oregon student and a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, is now in Eugene visiting with the G. B. Enoch family at the Bachlerdon house. Mr. Stratton is an organist at the Blue Moon in Portland.

Barber Builds Residence—Edward Lindley, of the Lemon O barber shop, is spending his summer vacation building a residence on his farm six miles north of town.

Leaves to Visit Parents—Doris Holderman, a student of the Eugene business college, left yesterday morning to spend the week-end with her parents at Cottage Grove.

Leave for Oregon Coast—Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Spill, of 259 Tenth avenue west, have left by automobile for Tillamook to spend their vacation. They were accompanied by their four children.

Leaving for Newport—A. H. Wilds and family are leaving for Newport to spend their vacation. The party will head westward across the hills in Mr. Wilds' car.

McCredie Visitors Make Hike—R. A. McCully and son and M. L. Pank, who are now on an outing at McCredie springs, yesterday made a trip to Bunch Grass ridge, returning the same day.

Visiting at Evans Home—Miss Marian Day, of McKenzie bridge, is in Eugene visiting with her two little friends, Margaret and Dorothy Evans, at their home near the mill race on Alder street.

Portland Pharmacist Here—Mark Davis, Portland pharmacist, arrived in Eugene yesterday and is now visiting with A. R. Paris, one of the proprietors of the Red Cross Drug store in this city.

A. C. Dixon to Return Monday—A. C. Dixon, manager of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company, who is at Portland on a business visit, will return to the local headquarters of the organization Monday.

Spike Leslie to Coach in Eastern Oregon—Earl "Spike" Leslie, noted University of Oregon football player, next fall will coach the McLoughlin high school team at Milton-Freewater in eastern Oregon.

Go to Diamond Peak—Miss Thema Cramer, of The Dalles; Miss Anna Chapman, of Eugene, and R. A. McCully Wednesday left for Diamond Peak from McCredie springs, returning the same day.

Department Called Out—The fire department was called out shortly before ten o'clock last night by a grass fire on Seventeenth avenue between Olive and Charnelton streets. No damage was done.

North Bend Visitor Here—Mrs. W. H. Hayes of North Bend, who has been visiting at the home of her brother, J. M. Emery, for the past several days will leave for her home on the coast tomorrow.

Hillyard Lot Purchased—Edwin Knapp has purchased a lot on Hillyard street from Edward Bryson and will soon erect a modern bungalow on the site. J. T. Evans of the Berger Realty company made the deal.

Leave on Crater Lake Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Penne of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Anderson of Eugene left Friday morning by motor to visit Crater lake and the caves in Josephine county for several days.

Seattle Visitors Leaves—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Smith of Seattle, who have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Emery, parents of Mrs. Smith, for the past several days have left for their home in the north.

Mahlon H. Day Goes to Portland—Mahlon H. Day expects to leave today for Portland to visit his brother-in-law, Dr. R. J. Marsh, who is ill in a hospital. He will return by way of Corvallis where he will spend a few days on business.

Madame McGraw Goes to Denver—Madame Rose McGraw, of the university school of music, accompanied by her two daughters, Rose and Helga, who recently arrived here from Germany, have left for Denver, Colorado, to spend the summer.

Minneapolis Visitor Leaves—Mrs. Sadie Edwards of Minneapolis, who has been visiting here at the home of Mrs. C. P. Barnard for the past two weeks, has left for Seattle where she will visit her daughter before returning to her home.

Grain Inspector Resigns—James W. Church, chief inspector of the department, conducted by the public health commission, and who has held his present position since 1917, has resigned. Mr. Church's headquarters were in Portland.

Will Build Shop—Mrs. Agnes Adsit has bought the lot at Sixteenth avenue east and Hillyard street from Edward Bryson. Mrs. Adsit will build a five-room bungalow soon. The transaction was made through J. T. Evans of the Berger Realty company.

Student Goes to Farm for Vacation—Edmund G. Cleverdon, a vocational federal aid student, who is taking work at the Eugene business college, is now spending his two week vacation on his farm near the grow road four and one-half miles west of Eugene.

Plans Trip to Lost Lake—A trip to Lost lake and the Three Sisters is being planned by S. C. Veatch of Cottage Grove, who was a local visitor yesterday making arrangements for his trip. Mr. Veatch will not start until next week on the journey to central Oregon.

Insurance Case Is Settled—The case in circuit court of Peter J. Polanuk against the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company of California has been settled by agreement between the parties concerned, according to papers filed yesterday at the office of the county clerk.

Leaving on Vacation—Miss Fern Fletcher, of the Booth-Kelly office here, leaves next week on her annual vacation of two weeks. Miss Betty Frazier of Portland will substitute in the office of the concern during the vacation period of the various members of the staff.

Rev. Day's Return—Rev. H. W. Davis, student pastor of the University of California, Berkeley, was to have left last night after attending the funeral of his 15-year-old daughter, Katherine, who recently died here. Rev. Davis was formerly pastor of the local Baptist church.

Employment Report Given—The weekly report given out yesterday by Frank Armitage of the United States employment bureau shows that men were placed as follows: Farm hands, seven; berry pickers, 12; carpenters, four; painters, three; common laborers, 22; skilled workmen, 24; teamsters, 12; section hands, four; engineers, two; firemen, four. Women were placed as follows: Berry pickers, nine; domestics, three; waitresses, four; laundresses, two; cooks, four.

Student Leaves for The Dalles—Marion Lay, university student who has been attending the campus session since the termination of the regular term, today leaves for her home in The Dalles. Miss Lay, a sophomore, is a major in the school of journalism.

Local People in Grants Pass—The auto camp column in the Grants Pass Courier bears the information that Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mink stopped in that city Wednesday night on their way to Eugene. The column writer said that many of the tourists stopped several days at that camp.

Frank Harritt to Leave on Trip—Frank Harritt, of the McMorran and Washburne company, accompanied by Mrs. Harritt, is leaving on his annual vacation of two weeks and plans a motor tour that will include stops at Seaside and also a trip into British Columbia as far north as Vancouver.

Youngster Falls Through Window—Donald Adams, a six-year-old youngster, was severely lacerated about the chin and forehead yesterday evening about eight o'clock, when he faintly fell in the Mack Auto Supply house, and fell through a plate glass window. He is now being treated at the Eugene hospital.

Student Goes to Alaska—John C. White, a student in the university summer session, has left for Seattle, Wash., where he will catch a fishing boat headed for Alaskan waters. Mr. White, who lives in Portland and is a former student of Reed college, will remain in Alaska during the fishing season.

Truck Driver Arrested—For speeding 22 miles an hour on the River road in violation of the 12-mile per hour limit for trucks, L. G. Gring, driver for a Portland-Eugene truck transportation company was arrested yesterday and will appear in justice court this morning to answer the charge.

Returning from Hospital—Robert Kizer, an ex-service man who has been at the government rehabilitation hospital in Tacoma for several months receiving medical treatment for injuries sustained while in the service, has recently been discharged and will soon return to his home in Springfield.

McKenzie Detours Are Poor—The detours now in use on the McKenzie river highway are in bad condition for motor traffic, according to drivers who have been making the up-river trip during the past few days. Light weight cars have some hard going at several points on the trip, is the report.

Forest Officials Here—R. S. Chapler, from the Portland headquarters of the national forest service, and J. Ebele, of the office of the state department of forestry at Salem, were in Eugene yesterday in connection with local forest officials concerning the timber fire situation in this section of the state.

Hatchet Injures Miner—J. Holtbrook, of Oakridge, had his hand badly cut yesterday when a hatchet fell on him while he was climbing up a ladder in a mine. It is understood that the hatchet fell from the hands of another man who was on the ladder above him. He was taken to the Eugene hospital for treatment.

Returned from Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. E. Charlet returned last night from Seattle where they attended the annual furniture buyers' week. While there Mr. Charlet bought a carload of furniture. Their two daughters, Sarah and Eva, accompanied them on the trip. They have been visiting their grandparents for the last month.

Ford Returns from South—Hugh Ford has returned from Roseburg, where he has been on business for several days. It was reported that Mr. Ford is to be drafted into service to perform the duties of a policeman at the grocers' and butchers' and Lane county merchants' picnic to be held at Cottage Grove on August 2.

To Attend Family Reunion—Mrs. S. S. Bowers, 1042 Olive street, left Friday for Minnerville to attend the family reunion of the Sawyer family. D. which she is a member, to be held Saturday. Five generations are expected to be present. The first members of the family crossed the plains in 1847. There are about fifty members living.

Old Sign Taken Down—"Willis P. Morse, 1892"—this large cornice sign which has been on the Morse building on Ninth avenue and Oak street for many years, yesterday was taken down. The structure, owned by D. W. Crites, is now having an addition built on to the rear and the removal of the sign is part of the general renovation.

Former Residents Visit—Charles W. Haynes, of Everett, Washington, former resident of this city, is spending several days here at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Eugene P. Walters, 1590 High street. Mr. Haynes was formerly owner of the Haynes tannery in Eugene and is well known here. He made the trip from his home in the north by motor.

Many Coming from Corvallis—On August 3 many of the delegates and visitors attending the National Economic conference at Corvallis, the agricultural college will come to Eugene to visit the University of Oregon. According to Mrs. Edna P. Dutton, head of Friendly hall on the campus, the visitors will be served a dinner in the hall on Thursday evening.

Aerial Is Completed—Work on the aerial being erected by A. S. Myers, who recently purchased the Worthen and Dixon battery shop at 822 Park, has been completed. Mr. Myers, who intends to broadcast messages and hold radio concerts, will conduct a storage battery show in connection with his radio supply store. Several university students are associated with him in his work.

Hotel Writes for Literature—The Imperial hotel of Portland has requested that the local chamber of commerce send each week 25 copies of the illustrated booklet, "The Heart of Oregon's Outdoors" for the benefit of their guests that may be planning a Lane county visit. The communication states that the Lane county literature is much in demand by the visitors at the hotel.

Federal Aid Men Taking Vacation—A federal aid man who is receiving national training at the Eugene business college, yesterday left on his two week vacation, which will be Crater lake and the Oregon caves. There are nine ex-service men now being trained at the local business college and each is granted a two

Women's Outing 3-Piece Suits

Coat, Skirt and Knicker

$22.50

—3-piece Outing Suits made of gray and tan all-wool tweeds, in sizes 14 to 44. Coat, skirt and knickers. Well made, stylish outing suits at a very low price—$22.50.

English Knicker Suits $19.50

—2-piece Suits, consisting of all-wool tweed coat and knickers at $19.50. Snappy styles, splendid materials, exceptional values, at $19.50.

—Garment Section—2d floor

Men's Palm Beach Suits

$20, $25 and $30 Values

$10.00

—Half price and less for 40 Men's Palm Beach Suits of pure wool mohair, tweed and homespun fabrics. Light as a feather, and just the thing for August hot weather. All sizes, 34 to 40.

—Keep cool in a Palm Beach Suit; they are stylish and serviceable. Some are made by Kuppenheimer.

Dollar Day Monday

—See Saturday Night's Guard and Sunday's Morning Register for page announcement of our biggest and best Dollar Day.

MONDAY—ONE DAY ONLY

McKee & Kuppenheimer

weeks' vacation without having monetary compensation deducted. Another on a vacation is Harry Winther, who is now up at Kiteon springs. He will return to school next Monday.

Mineral Springs Not Aqueous—Stories given out recently concerning the finding of a new mineral springs up at McCredie are a bit misleading.

believes E. A. Britton, manager of the summer resort, who was in Eugene yesterday evening. Mr. Britton says that the now-famous "Ironwood springs" at the resort are in reality a pair of bed springs mounted on a wooden frame. The manager of the resort reported that many of the tourists now at the springs have made

Register Classified Ads give good results.

Missing Husbands

? ? ?

(Continued on Page 6, Column 2)

A Timely Sale of 29 Tub Frocks

Ginghams
Voiles
Linene

$4.95

Any dress in this wonderful assortment would be worth nearly twice the price of $4.95. Plain and fancy styles made of the very finest quality materials.

LARGE'S
865 Willamette Street

Saturday Specials

at

The Groceteria

Phone 257

48 East 9th St.

Eight pounds New Large Potatoes	25c
Fresh Green Beans, per lb.	5c
Two pounds Hothouse Tomatoes	25c
One package Shredded Wheat Biscuits	11c
One package Mother's Oats, with premium	30c
Nine-pound sack Steel Cut Oats	50c
Nine-pound sack Farina	50c
New Comb Honey, per frame	22c
One pound Groceteria Butter	44c
WATERMELONS, PER LB.	14c

We have with us today Mrs. Misz, who is demonstrating Heinz' goods, and is making special prices on all their products in quantities. With every four cans of their large size tin of Baked Beans at $1.10 she will give you absolutely free one can extra.

The Groceteria

48 East 9th Street
Phone 257