

Eugene's Fashion Shop

The Best Clothes are the Cheapest

Fashion Park and Society Brand Clothes FOR MEN OFFER THE ULTIMATE ECONOMY OF FAR REACHING SATISFACTION AND SERVICE AND THE IMMEDIATE ECONOMY OF FAIR AND HONORABLE PRICES NOW.

CUSTOM TAILORED READY-TO-WEAR

Green Merrell Co.

men's wear

"One of Eugene's best stores"

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Here from Seattle—Mrs. Pearl Nixon, of Seattle, is now in Eugene visiting friends for a few days.

Leave for Newport—A. H. H. and family of motor route 4 leave today for Newport for a week's vacation.

Crescent Lake Trip Planned—R. H. Glick, local optometrist, returned last night from a three-day business trip to Portland.

Return from Newport—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stephenson of this city have returned after a visit of two weeks at Newport.

Back from Newport—Fred Moxley, of the Wade Brothers store, is now back at his position after spending his vacation at Newport.

Returns from Crater Lake—A. J. Haasch, manager of Chambers' hardware store, has returned from Crater lake after taking a week's outing.

Woolen Mill Owner Returns—Emil Koop, proprietor of the Eugene woolen mill, has returned after a business visit of a week at San Francisco.

Goes to Canada—W. C. Ham, manager of the Star Shoe company, left Saturday by automobile for Canada and will return to Eugene in two weeks.

Dr. Crowland Goes to Newport—Dr. R. H. Crowland, member of the psychology faculty of the university, is now taking a week's vacation at Newport.

To Spend Summer in Washington—E. R. "Eddie" Durno Saturday left for Olympia, Wash., where he will remain until the opening of the fall term of the university.

Sparks Goes to Coos Bay—T. T. Sparks, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific, left for Coos Bay Sunday and expects to return to Eugene tomorrow.

Marriage License Granted—A marriage license was granted yesterday at the office of the county clerk to Vern Nixon, of Seattle, and Lela Eleanor Withrow of Eugene.

Enters Lemon O.—Clayton Allum, formerly of the Palace barber shop, has accepted a position with the Lemon O. shop.

Returns from Portland—Miss Thien Standifer of this city has returned after a visit of several days at the home of her mother at Portland.

Will Visit at Oakridge—Herman Burgoyne, proprietor of the Rainbow grill, is planning to spend two weeks on an outing in the vicinity of Oakridge.

Crosswell Man in City—Lawrence Smith, an ex-service man who resides at Crosswell, yesterday was in Eugene attending to some business matters and visiting.

Returns from Cottage Grove—Mrs. Ray Nixon, of the Peoples' Cash store, has returned after spending a vacation at Cottage Grove.

Commissioner Harlow Moving—Commissioner M. H. Harlow is moving to his new home at 371 Seventh avenue west.

Leave for Newport—Mr. and Mrs. W. Baxter and two sons, Edgar and Ted, left for Newport yesterday and will return to Eugene in two weeks.

Plans Visit to Lost Lake—H. W. Strong, 1130 Hilliard street, is planning a camping trip in the vicinity of Lost Lake and expects to be absent for four or five days.

Mrs. Jenkins and Children at Newport—Mrs. Frank Jenkins and children, who have been on an outing, returned yesterday.

Children's Band Will Play—The children's band from the Des Moines, Washington, home will play on Willamette street this evening after a visit of several days at Cottage Grove.

Party Go to Beach—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Nidever, who live at 1192 Lincoln street, left Sunday for Newport to spend a few weeks. They were accompanied by Miss Martha Foster.

Fire Reported in McKenzie Pass—A forest fire three miles beyond McKenzie Bridge to the south of the river has been reported to the offices of the Cascade national forest service here.

Leaves on Vacation—L. R. Sackett, of the Eugene office of the Southern Pacific lines, accompanied by his wife and daughter, has left for Sheridan, Oregon, on his annual vacation of two weeks.

Back from Portland—Robert Burns, of this city, returned from Portland Sunday after having visited friends there. Mr. Burns is a senior in the university.

Visitors Going to Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Travis will return to Portland this morning after visiting friends and relatives here during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Zumwalt Leave—E. W. Zumwalt, nominee for county commissioner on the Democratic ticket, and Mrs. Zumwalt, leave Thursday morning for a three weeks' visit in the vicinity of Sunset, Washington.

Returns from Oakridge—C. S. Dillon, of the Lane County Credit association, has returned from his two weeks' vacation spent at Oakridge and is now back in the office of L. M. Travis.

Return from Portland—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Elkins and Professor and Mrs. G. E. Finney returned Saturday evening from Portland after having spent a few days in that city on business.

Willamette Pass Trip Planned—Mrs. A. Hyne has been granted a camp fire permit from the office of the Cascade forest. Mrs. Hyne expects to leave Thursday on a trip of ten days to the upper Willamette points.

Dr. Howard Leaves for Vacation—Dr. John P. Howard, head of the school of physical education at the university, accompanied by Mrs. Howard, left for Canon bench for a period of recreation at the place where land and ocean meet.

Returns from Southern Oregon Trip—Warren Kays, student at the University of Oregon, has returned after a motor trip of a week through Southern Oregon, visiting at Roseburg, Medford and Ashland. He was accompanied by Edwin Lyman of Portland.

University Student Visiting Here—Irving McCoy, former university student and now manager of the Multnomah Fuel company, is in Eugene visiting friends.

Home Is Quarantined—Owing to a case of smallpox, the Snyder home, 347 Washington street, has been placed under quarantine by order of the health authorities.

School Official Here—M. J. Wearin, clerk of county school district No. 5, of Waterville, was a local visitor yesterday at the office of the county superintendent of schools.

Play to Be Presented—The Thurston local drama club will put on a play at Trout Saturday evening. The proceeds go to the church and Sunday school at both places.

Auto Reported Stolen—John T. Evans, 995 Alder street, has reported to the police the loss of his Ford sedan from in front of his home Saturday night. The car bears license number 10804.

Former Student Here from Baker—Fred R. Packwood, former university student and member of the law school when enrolled here, was in the city Sunday from Baker, visiting friends. He is a member of the Delta Tau fraternity.

Mining Claims Are Filed—Mining claims on three sites in the Bohemia district at the office of the county clerk of Lane county were filed yesterday. Charles Burgers, R. J. Ward and Grover L. Newlun were the applicants.

Portland Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur La Due of Portland were local visitors over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Trevelyan of this city. Mr. La Due is connected with the Portland street railway company.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Harris at Summer Home—Dr. M. C. Harris, accompanied by Mrs. Harris, is enjoying his annual vacation at his summer home near Oakridge. The doctor will not return to his office until September 5.

Taking Annual Outing—Alice Cresney, of Cresney's Book store, is now taking her two week's vacation. Miss Cresney is at present enjoying her vacation at the Whitten summer home, Yontonco, on the Willamette.

Building Permit Granted—A building permit for the construction of a bungalow was issued yesterday by the municipal building inspector to Glen A. Elkins. The house will be constructed at 1841 Olive at an estimated cost of $3500.

Visits on Way to Crater Lake—On his way to Crater lake, Walter H. Holt, manager of the retail department of the Brownsville Woolen mills, yesterday noon dropped in to see the manager of the Eugene unit of the string of stores.

Leave for McCredie Springs—Sergeant Thomas Sullivan, stationed with the University of Oregon R. O. T. C., has taken a camping trip to McCredie Springs. Sergeant and Mrs. Sullivan will camp near McCredie springs.

Returns from Corvallis Convention—Miss Grace Hobbie, after attending the home economics convention at Corvallis, came home Saturday night. Today, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emma Hobbie, and Mrs. Swafford, she motored to Portland.

James Hill Here from Boise—James Hill, a former resident of Eugene and at one time representative to the legislature from Lane county, is now in this city from his home in Boise, Idaho. Mr. Hill, who is accompanied by his wife, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Billings Back on Job—Harry Billings, of Cresney's Book store, who has been on vacation for two weeks, returned yesterday morning to his position. Part of Mr. Billings' vacation was spent in Eastern Oregon where he attended the American Legion convention held at The Dalles.

Nisbett Cannot Locate Relatives—On his way from Los Angeles, where he attended the National Dentists' association convention, to his home in Pontiac, Mich., F. W. Nisbett, of the Michigan Refining works, stopped off in Eugene during the week-end. Mr. Nisbett has relatives in the vicinity of Eugene, but while here could not locate them.

Judge Hamilton Will Preside—Judge J. W. Hamilton will preside at the case of Charles M. Stephens against the city of Eugene when it comes to trial, according to papers filed yesterday by the plaintiff and O. H. Foster, representing the city. The case involves an assessment on a sidewalk improvement which the plaintiff declares was illegal.

Leave for Seattle Conference—Hugh Ford and family have left for Seattle, Wash., where Mr. Ford will attend the annual conference of agents of the Imperial Canning company. Each year the representatives of the company are called together for a conference which is in the nature of a school, lasting one week. Mr. Ford and family went north by automobile.

Attempt Made to Tilt Cash Register—During the absence of the clerk from the office of the Griggs hotel early Sunday morning, someone made an attempt to open the locked cash register, according to a report made to the police. On the return of the clerk he was unable to open the drawer and found that a jimmy had been used which had broken the mechanism.

University Library Now Open—Until the beginning of the fall term, the university library will be open on week days from 8:30 a. m. until 5 p. m. The library will not be open Sundays or in the evenings as during the school year. Many Eugene people are making use of the reading room now, and several graduate students have remained on the campus doing research work.

Assumed Business Names Filed—The assumed business name of the Reclaimed Auto Parts company was filed yesterday in the office of the county clerk by Tom W. Rugh. The firm will open quarters in the St. Francis building on Eighth avenue west. The assumed business name of the Garoute Brothers Lumber company was filed by Vernon and R. P. Garoute. The firm will establish a mill near Cottage Grove.

Reports Beach Life Pleasant—After having spent one week at Newport, Albert Wilde, of the As Billy department store, arrived in Eugene yesterday. Mr. Wilde reports that the stretch of ocean beach between Newport and Nye beach is great this year and that during six days of the time he spent at Newport a refreshing sea breeze made life comfortable.

Attending Buyer's Week—Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Griffin and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. New Sunday left for Portland, where Mr. New and Mr. Griffin will attend the annual buyer's week.

Mrs. Cresney Leaves on Vacation—Mrs. J. A. Cresney, wife of the proprietor of Cresney's Book store, is now on a vacation at Yontonco, the Whitten summer home on the Willamette.

Cottage Grove Firm Files Suit—A suit has been filed by the Sinclair Provision company of Cottage Grove against Bartles and Riley to recover $280.75. Wells and Wells represent the plaintiff.

Portland Visitors Return—Mendel Fletcher, local insurance agent, and Joseph Sheahan, proprietor of the Variety grill, spent the week-end on a business trip to Portland. They made the trip by motor.

Back from McCredie Springs—David H. Cresney, of the Peoples' Cash store, has returned after a week's visit at McCredie springs. A. L. Solot, manager of the Peoples' Cash store, has also returned after several days at Salem.

Thurston's Return from Coast Points—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thurston returned to Eugene Sunday after spending a ten-day outing at Columbia and Tillamook beaches. They were accompanied by friends from Portland.

Veneta People Go to McMinnville—Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Pratt, of Veneta, left yesterday for McMinnville, where their two daughters, Wilma and Mildred, will enter McMinnville college. Mr. Pratt, besides being the owner of a creamery is the Veneta notary public.

Visits on Way to Wendling—John R. Pruett, an ex-service man who lives at Albany, passed through Eugene yesterday on his way to Wendling where he has accepted a position doing timber work. He had a consultation with Miss Grace Norton, secretary of the local chapter of the Red Cross, when passing through.

Visitor Returns to Iowa—George S. Rugh, brother of Sam Rugh, local realtor, with his daughter, left yesterday for his home in Grand Rapids, Iowa. Mr. Rugh, who has been visiting here for the past two weeks, will drive down to California and swing up through the central part of the country on his way home.

Veneta Parsonage Nearly Completed—The parsonage of the Baptist church is nearly completed, according to W. H. Dorward, who came into Eugene yesterday on the stage and returned to his home that same evening. The carpenters are at present putting on the shingles. Mr. Dorward said that it was a very nice structure. This parsonage is being built near the church.

Spend Vacation at Kitson Springs—Mrs. Mary Morris has returned to Eugene after enjoying herself during the past two weeks at Kitson Springs and yesterday morning resumed her position as head of the stenographic department of the Eugene Business college. Mrs. Morris was accompanied by Miss Tecla Elmore, of the Mountain States Power company, who has also returned to Eugene.

Suit Filed Against Sheriff—A suit has been filed by George W. Holland against Sheriff Fred Stickels in re: a party given by the sheriff at the official at the store of Dawson and Moyer at Crow on August 2. The plaintiff states that he holds a chattel mortgage against the stock and fixtures of the store have a valuation of $1700, and $500 damages is asked in addition. H. E. Slattery represents the plaintiff.

Graduate Enters Lumber Company's Employ—Virgil Delap, university student who was graduated with the class of 1922 from the school of commerce, has left for Chicago where he has accepted a position with a lumber concern. While in the university, Mr. Delap specialized in accountancy work and has itemized the books of the university co-operative store since the end of the school year.

Mrs. Cotner Funeral Sunday—Funeral services for Mrs. Elva C. Cotner, wife of R. J. Cotner, a member of the Eugene Guard mechanical force, were held at the Vench chapel last Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. Sivera of the First Christian church officiating. Many beautiful floral tributes were sent to the chapel by Mrs. Cotner's large group of friends. Interment was made in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Business Places Being Remodeled—The Oregon confectionery shop, located at Alder street near the university campus, yesterday was being renovated by a force of paper hangers. The place was not closed while the interior was being worked over. Adjoining the Oregoniana is the place formerly known as the University Book store, which has recently been purchased by S. R. Stevenson, and is now temporarily closed while the interior is being altered. It will open August 15 as a drug store.

Another Short Story Placed—Ernest Haycox, member of Ye Tabard Inn, national writers' fraternity, and commonly known around the university, where he is a student, as the campus cynic from his Emerald column, has sold another piece of fiction to the Saturday Evening Post. The story, already accepted several of his short stories. Last summer Haycox made a trip to Alaska and obtained considerable material for story plots dealing with the sea. "Storm Riders" is the name of the story just placed.

Lights Match to Look at Gas—The local fire department was called out early Sunday afternoon to extinguish an automobile fire which resulted through the curiosity of Cleo Goheen, who was having the tank of a Ford sedan filled at the Standard oil station at Tenth and Willamette. Mr. Goheen struck a match to see how much gas he had in his tank and before the blaze could be checked the car was scorched considerably. The machine was owned by George Gergoon. The department arrived on the scene in good time, but employees of the station extinguished the fire with chemicals.

Young Fish Distributed—Local sportsmen last Sunday assisted T. J. Craig, state fish distributor, and employees of the McKenzie fish hatchery, in the placing of 48,000 trout in Scott lake at 24,000 in Benson lake. The fish were taken from the hatchery in ten-gallon cans loaded on auto trucks. Scott lake is near the road, but pack horses belonging to H. C. Rooper,

Ladies' and Girls' Knit Bloomers 29c

McMoran & Washburne Store

Royal Society Package Goods 50c

Today $15 Dresses $7.95

Final clearaway of Tub Frocks—Voiles, Tissues, Fine Zephyr Gingham, Checks, Stripes, Figures and plain colors. All this season's styles. Splendid assortment of color combinations, all sizes. About twenty dresses only at prices to close at $7.95.

—$1.50 and $1.75 two-clasp Kayser Silk Gloves, all sizes and colors, special—$1.00

—50c Baby Stork Pants, one of the best waterproof pants made, special—
25c Pair

Special Lot
—50c to 85c in yard-wide Cretomes, 39c yard. About ten patterns, big range of color combinations, suitable for window hangings, summer furniture coverings, etc.

39c Yd.

Curtain Scrim 13c Yd.
—36-inch band and hemstitched, in ecru, cream and white. Saturday special, 13c yd.

Straws by the Stack For Less
—19c-50c and half price. This includes all men's and boys' straws.

Wo's Coats and Suits $10.00

—Only about 25 garments in this lot, consisting of the season's best styles and most fashionable materials and colors. It's a final clearaway of seasonable Coats and Suits. Same and similar garments selling up to $40.00. Remember, the lot is small—if you are interested come early

$49.50 and $55.00 Firespun Silk Krepe Sport Suits $29.95

48-Inch Jap Lunch Cloths $1.00
—This is a very low price for this quality cloth in 48-inch size, and there is a splendid assortment of patterns from which to choose.

New Patterns in Pendleton Robes and Blankets

Select Yours Now
$9.00 and $13.50
New Low Prices

Men's Union Suits 85c Or 2 for $1.50
—Summer weight, all styles, all sizes. This is a big special.

—$1.50 and $1.75 Hole-proof sub-standard Silk Stockings in black, brown, gray, beaver and white, all sizes—
$1.00 Pair

—Dresser Scarfs worth up to $1.75, embroidered and lace trimmed
$1.00 Each

Bungalow Aprons $1.00
—Made of percales and gingham. Light and dark colors. Several good styles and a large range of patterns to choose from.

—2d floor

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. W. H. Parls yesterday was in Eugene for a short time from Mabel. A. C. Dutton is now in Eugene from Roseburg visiting his daughter, Mrs. Emmett Sharp.

Miss Florence Peterson and Miss Violet Butler, of Reedsport, have returned home after enjoying an outing on the McKenzie.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
MRS. A. G. GROSCHONG AND MRS. Gertrude Ball will be joint hostesses to the fourth division of the M. E. Aid society, Tuesday afternoon, at 1238 Lincoln street.

DEGREE OF HONOR LADIES AND their families will hold a picnic

Wednesday evening, August 9, at Hansen's auto park. The public is invited and visitors are asked to bring well-filled baskets. The picnic supper will be served at 6:30 p. m.

DIED
OMAN—At his home in Springfield, August 7, 1922, Bert Oman, aged 43 years. He is survived by a wife, a mother, who lives in Seattle, a brother, who resides in Portland, and other relatives who are in Marshfield. Funeral arrangements will be announced later from the Walker chapel in Springfield.

Quick results—Register Classified Ads. Insure with Henry Tromp, 33 W. 9th st.

UNIFORMITY

Every gallon like every other gallon. Every drop capable of vaporizing rapidly and uniformly in the carburetor, and being consumed completely in the cylinder at the jump of the spark.

That's "Red Crown."

That's quality in gasoline.

Use "Red Crown" and nothing else, and your car will develop the maximum power that its makers designed it to give.

Fill at the Red Crown sign—at Service Stations, garages, or other dealers.

The Gasoline of Quality

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

100% power

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Legion Men to Hear Reports—At the monthly meeting of Lane County post of the American Legion, to be held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce next Thursday night, delegates to the National convention will make a report of the annual state convocation to their fellow members. It is understood that some of the local men who went up to Wasco county metropolis for the purpose of enjoying a good time will also be called upon for impromptu reports. Harry Billings is scheduled to tell of his personal activities during the big time; Ben Dorris will be called upon to explain why the "48s" is primarily a neutral organization and Harold Wells will deliver a few side lights on the convention.

El Sidelo CIGAR

El Sidelo Havana and Connecticut tobaccos are running exceptionally fragrant and uniform. Its workmanship has never been finer than now.

Lily 2 for 25c