"I Wouldn't Worry So Much Now if I Had Saved More of My Money" That's what many a man says when he is overtaken by illness or misfortune. And very often, adversity will open a man's eyes to the foolish, reckless, thoughtless waste of money and opportunity. He will then determine that if he ever gets on his feet again, he will have things in order, expenses cut down, and enough money saved to take care of illness, unemployment or any other adversity that may beset him.

PLAYS GOLF FOR 11 HOURS

SPOKANE MAN SETS RECORD FOR ENDURANCE

(Correspondence of the Associated Press) SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 9.—All Spokane records for endurance golf playing were shattered on the Downriver links here recently. It is believed, by Arthur Vel Guth, a local road contractor, who played 81 holes in one day, spending 11 1/2 hours in continuous play.

At the finish, Mr. Vel Guth was apparently as fresh as when he started. His caddy, Bobbly Willard, one of the huskiest lads at the municipal field, and his only companion, was almost in a state of collapse. It is estimated that during his nine times around the course, Mr. Vel Guth traveled approximately 30 miles. If the area his clubs inscribed in their many swings were added together and flattened out, it is estimated the accumulated distance would extend the length of nine city blocks.

VALUABLE DIAMOND RING IS FOUND BY USE OF MAP

GEM LOCATED IN GROUND ON VACANT LOT AT BELLINGHAM

Man Giving Home as New York Tells Police He Can Obtain Drawing from Old Man in Spokane

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Aug. 12.—Following the directions given on a map taken from a stranger here giving the name of Douglas Gould, 52nd and Broadway, New York, police today uncovered a valuable diamond ring a few inches under the surface of the earth in a vacant lot near the heart of the business district. Gould claimed he obtained the map from an old man in the lobby of a hotel in Spokane. Gould was seen poking around in the lot and police investigation resulted in him turning over the map to the authorities. In a short time after obtaining the map the police uncovered the ring.

According to the story Gould told the police, he came from New York last April. His meeting with the old man was by chance, he claimed. He said he understood the map was given to the old man by one of three young men now in Walla Walla prison, sent from Seattle after they had figured in the murder of a policeman there.

Creighton Dodge, leader of the boys, was slain in the pistol fight at Bellingham when the policeman was killed. Records here in the sheriff's office and police station fail to show the theft of a diamond ring. About two months ago, according to the police, two men were seen in the vacant lot as if looking for something. They were told then to leave. One was seen to pick up something and put it in his pocket. The map was drawn perfectly in pencil and pictured the streets and alleys perfectly.

FRUIT MEN APPREHENSIVE

FEAR RAIL STRIKE WILL CAUSE GREAT DAMAGE

WENATCHEE, Wash., Aug. 12.—A mass meeting of fruit growers, business and professional men and laborers has been called for Monday in Wenatchee to call attention to the damage which it is feared will be done to the $25,000,000 fruit crop of North Central Washington unless immediate steps are taken to settle the railroad strike. The commercial club has sent telegrams to Yakima, Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle civic organizations suggesting that they also take steps to help in bringing the strike to an end.

Hard Luck

The young man arrived at the party and made his way to the hostess, greeting her and apologizing for his lateness. "Awfully glad to see you, Mr. Bones," said the hostess. "So good of you to come. But where is your brother?" "He was unable to come. You see, we were so busy just now that it was impossible for both of us to get away, and so we tumbled up to see which of us should come."
