

Ask to See the New KAY-VEE its different

ANNOUNCING NEW FALL CLOTHES Tailored at Fashion Park

THIS IS AN ANNOUNCEMENT OF UNUSUAL IMPORTANCE BECAUSE THERE HAS BEEN A DEFINITE CHANGE IN THE STYLES OF MOST THINGS MEN AND YOUNG MEN WEAR.

NOT ONLY NEW MODELS, BUT NEW FABRICS AS WELL. THESE NEW MODELS ARE MORE THAN INTERESTING. THEY ARE EDUCATIONAL IN THIS STORE YOU ARE ALWAYS ASSURED THE MOST COURTEOUS ATTENTION AND HELPFUL INTEREST.

COME NOW WHILE THE ASSORTMENTS ARE COMPLETE.

Green Merrell Co.

men's wear
"One of Eugene's best stores"

CAUGHT IN THE ROUNDS

Visits from Portland—Delbert Day, of Portland, was in Eugene during the past week-end visiting friends.

Spending Week at Belknap—John Haskamp and J. H. Maxwell, who were in Eugene during the past week-end, are spending Sunday at Belknap springs.

Watchmaker on Vacation—Ralph C. O'Brien, who is in the watch-making department of the Coppernoll jewelry store, is now taking his vacation.

First School Opens—Fiddle Creek district No. 170 was the first school to open in Lane county. Miss Mary Moore, university graduate, is the teacher.

Seattle Visitors Leave—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander H. Houston, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Young, left yesterday for their home in Seattle.

Leave for California—Florence and Esther Furset left last night for Sacramento where they will teach in the public schools. They live in West Springfield.

Returns from Vacation—Mrs. Grace Conn, stenographer in the Foster, Potter and Immel law firm, has returned to her position after having a two weeks' vacation.

Visiting at McCredie Springs—C. J. Fallon, proprietor of the Eugene Woolen Mills company, accompanied by Mrs. Fulton, is spending a few days' vacation at McCredie springs.

Returns from Minnesota—Mrs. Wayne Hurd and two children, Jack and Constance, have returned from stores, and the two went out into the woods in quest of the elusive buck. Each hunter bagged a deer before returning to this city.

Discharged from Hospital—Leonard Evans, a mechanic in the Goodpasture Auto company of this city, has been discharged from the Mercy hospital and has returned to his home at Junction City.

Scores for Play Here—Jimmie Porter, formerly of the Oregon Grille orchestra of Portland, is now playing with Oswald's Seven Band, who play in Eugene tomorrow evening.

Ex-Soldier Called to Portland—Ralph Hooker, an ex-soldier, who lives at Lorane, was called to Portland to take a medical examination for injuries sustained while in the service.

Visitors Leave for East—After an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. M. B. Gilmore, Mrs. Lester Farnum, with her small daughter, Mary, left on Saturday for her home in Manchester, Vt.

Visits Parents During Week-End—Veva Bryant, a member of the Lane County Credit association's office staff, spent the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Bryant of Junction City.

Forest Official Returns—A. R. Wilcox, forest examiner of the Siuslaw district, has returned after a visit of a few days with his sister, Miss E. Wilcox, of Portland, who is spending her vacation near Santiam.

Leaving for Newport—Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCulloch are leaving for an outing at Newport where they will occupy Mrs. Martin's cottage, "The Bee Hive" at Sea Crest. They expect to remain about two weeks.

Former Residents Visit—Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Dick, who are week-end guests Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott and daughter of Salem and Mrs. Dr. Caseman and daughter of Tacoma, Wash., all former Eugene residents.

Visit for Week in Portland—Harold Moore, city editor of the Eugene Guard, left yesterday evening for Portland accompanied by his wife and son. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will visit in Portland for the remainder of the week.

Lumber Official Leaves on Vacation—Harry A. Dunbar, secretary-treasurer of the Booth-Kelly lumber company, accompanied by Mrs. Dunbar and little son, Jack, are leaving on a vacation motor trip of two weeks to British Columbia.

Astoria People Return Home—Mr. and Mrs. George Ohler, accompanied by their son and daughter, Wallace and Margaret, have returned to their home in Astoria after spending a week at McCredie springs and at Eugene, where they visited Mrs. M. J. Adkinson, Mrs. Ohler's mother.

Two Marriage Licenses Granted—A marriage license was granted at the office of the county clerk yesterday to Lloyd Edmund, Eugene, and Clara L. Stephens of Veneta. A license was also granted to John E. Kriens of Monroe and Henrietta A. Hickman of Eugene.

Appraisers Are Appointed—R. B. Wells, John L. Marsh and J. Harold Heytlen have been appointed as appraisers of the estate of Thelma Bayly, and Elizabeth M. Bayly, who have been appointed administrators. The estate consists of $1700 in real property and $200 in personal property.

Red Cross Secretary Visits—Miss Edith Forrest, Red Cross secretary of Albany, spent the week-end in Eugene visiting with Miss Grace Norton, secretary of the Lane county chapter. Miss Forrest has been in Southern Oregon during the past two weeks visiting Crater lake and the caves.

Hurn's Fern Appropriated—Some person who appreciated the artistic properties of a fern potted by Walter Hurn, stole the plant which decorated the front porch of Ralph Hurn. Mr. Hurn neglected to consider the artistic urge and notified the police.

Immel Returns Tonight—Mr. and Mrs. Immel are expected to arrive from the month tomorrow evening on the Shasta limited. Mr. Immel, while in California, attended the National Bar association convention at San Francisco. Lake Tahoe and other scenic points were visited by the Eugene couple before starting on the homeward trip.

Sheriff Still in California—Sheriff Fred Stickle, who has been in California for the past week awaiting the outcome of a hearing in the case of Kathryn Estel Emmens, who is wanted in Lane county on a burglary charge, writes that the woman is out of jail at Los Angeles on a bond of $10,000 and that a decision will be reached today as to whether she will be brought back to Eugene to stand trial.

Many Oregon Cars in British Columbia—Many tourist machines bearing the Oregon state license are now on the roads of British Columbia, according to G. M. Sprague, local insurance agent, who has returned after attending a district meeting of the Mutual Life Insurance agents at Vancouver. Mr. Sprague accompanied by his family made the Canadian trip by motor.

N. F. Macduff Returns from McKenzie—N. F. Macduff, supervisor of the Siuslaw national forest district, has returned after an inspection trip of one week in the upper McKenzie country. A total of 50 miles of new telephone wire is being placed in position in the Cascade reserve, states the supervisor. Finished and cut lumber for the erection of the new look-out station at Horsepasture mountain is also being packed in to the district he states.

Freight Traffic Uninterrupted—I. T. Sparks, district freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific company, announces that he has received many inquiries from merchants of Western Oregon regarding the movement of fall goods from eastern cities by rail, which movement is delayed in many cases at this time. Mr. Sparks states that the shipments from New York, Philadelphia, Boston and other principal eastern cities are now moving without interruption via the Morgan line from New York to Galveston, thence via the Southern Pacific, the time consuming from sixteen to eighteen days.

Good Pasture in Mountains—Stock pasturing on the high ranges near the Three Sisters country have good grass this year, reports R. L. Taylor, forest ranger, who was in McKenzie Bridge yesterday. Mr. Taylor said that the grass was slow in getting started in the late spring, but after the snow melted from the summit district the herbs and grass grew nicely and remained tender for the bands of sheep summering in that area.

Returns from Medford—Mrs. Arthur Hendershott returned yesterday after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Medford. She was accompanied by her brother, Preston Phillips.

Charles H. Croner Brings Down Buck—Charles H. Croner brought down a buck Sunday shortly after the opening of the deer season and reports that the animal is plentiful in the upper McKenzie district this year.

Ford Men Go Hunting—Al May, connected with the Ford plant in Portland, arrived in Eugene yesterday and will go into the brush for a few days with E. C. Simmons, of the local Ford company, in quest of a few bucks.

Whites Back from Long Beach—Herald White, wife and little daughter have returned from Long Beach, where Mrs. White has been sojourning for several weeks. Mr. White motored to the resort the latter part of last week.

F. L. Chambers Returns—Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers have returned after a motor trip of a few days in the north, where they accompanied their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Brocklebank, who will leave for Seattle.

Washington Street House Bought—W. T. Sherman has bought the house located at 531 Washington street from Mrs. Irene Crosby. The new owner is making a few alterations in the residence. Kinney and Hyde, local realtors, made the sale.

Sherman Buys House—The residence located at 597 Tyler street, owned by W. F. Landrum, has been purchased by W. T. Sherman. Business details of the transaction were attended to by the Kinney and Hyde Realty company.

Illegal Possession of Liquor Charged—E. W. Charnoff of Springfield, who was arrested Saturday on a charge of illegal possession of liquor appeared in justice court yesterday and pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. The case will be tried August 24.

Former Football Star in City—Jack Latourette, University of Oregon football player who won fame which is not yet forgotten when he was a member of the 1922-23 team, was in Eugene last night. Mr. Latourette, accompanied by his wife, is on his way to Crater lake from Portland.

Callaway Visits in Eugene—Gwen Callaway, university student, has returned to Eugene from Bandon where he has been employed since the termination of his school year. Callaway, a junior in the school of business administration, last spring was elected vice president of the university student association for the year 1922-23.

Leaving for Chehalis for Opening of School—W. J. Moore, son of E. J. Moore, superintendent of county schools, has left for Chehalis, Wash., where he will resume his teaching position at the opening of the schools next Monday during the past summer. Mr. Moore has been employed at the office of the city engineer here.

Eugene Men Elected by Veterans—Eugene men, N. Dorris and R. W. Crafts, were named as an executive committee for the state of Oregon at the annual election of officers of the 91st division which has closed its sessions. The famous world war division, composed of veterans from Oregon, Washington, California, Montana, Idaho and Nevada, will meet next year at San Francisco.

Here from Burns—Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGee, of Burns, are visiting in Eugene with Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jenkins and Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Templeton. Mrs. McGee, Mrs. Templeton and Mrs. Jenkins being sisters. The McGee family are the McKenzie pass, and say that when the work now under way is finished it will be possible to leave Burns in the morning and be in Eugene the same evening.

Building Permits Granted—A permit for the erection of a two-apartment building at 738-742 Jefferson street at an estimated cost of $4000 has been granted to E. H. Barger by the city building inspector. Other permits issued yesterday were one for the construction of a garage at 1853 Kincaid street by A. M. Miner at a cost of $200 and one to W. J. Tuck to erect a garage at Second avenue west and Madison at a cost of $100.

Visitors to Return to San Jose—J. J. Caswell and wife and daughter, Mrs. G. B. Campbell, and the latter's little daughter and Miss Anna Hunter, all of San Jose, California, who have been visiting here for the past two weeks at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Caswell, of 1960 University street, expect to leave Wednesday on their return trip home. They will be accompanied by Miss Cora Caswell who has made her home in Eugene for the past several years.

Little Damage Suffered by Siuslaw—All forest fires in the territory under the jurisdiction of the Western Lane Fire Patrol association have been extinguished by the recent rains, reports E. G. Muir, president of the association. Members of the fire patrol are now busy repairing telephone lines in the vicinity of Nelson creek. Trails are also being built in that country. The region visited by the association has suffered very little damage as yet this year, said Mr. Muir, who does not believe that all danger from fires is now past. The big forest fires in October, 1918 are still vivid in Mr. Muir's memory.

Tourist Bureau Requests Pictures—Pictures and information concerning the Eugene municipal auto camp are requested by the Northwest tourist bureau, according to a communication received at the chamber of commerce from Herbert Cuthbert, secretary of the bureau from the Seattle headquarters. The data showing the nearly 4000 cars have camped at the local camp with a total number of visitors of approximately 16,000 since the opening of the camp in April 15 has been forwarded and pictures will be sent later. The tourist bureau is contemplating the publication of a publicity booklet and Eugene will be represented in the book.

Local Vets Attend Seattle Convention—The Veterans of Foreign Wars in their convention at Seattle had a wild and glorious time, reports Major W. G. White, who returned from Seattle, the rendezvous of the overseas veterans, last Sunday. Major White and H. G. Campbell were the only two men from Eugene who attended the conference of veterans. Major White had hoped that a Western man would lead the organization for the

W

Attractive Curtain and Drapery Materials at Low Prices

Those appreciating the unusual in interior decoration will find the colonial tapestry effects and cretonnes particularly adaptable to the working out of original ideas, including numberless styles of pillow tops, lamp shades, book racks, service trays, bags, screens, utility boxes, draperies, window seat cushions and table runners, combined with ribbons of gold or bronze gumpas and galloons, in colors to harmonize with the other decorations.

Colonial drapery fabrics are appropriately and artistically designed for every type of room, therefore by its use, rooms of no special architectural merit may be made most inviting.

To make your home more beautiful, cheery and attractive our stock of Mount Vernon curtain materials, including bungalow nets, in all the newest and harmonious effects; made-o-nets, plain nets, allover nets and panelled, reveal not only to certain rooms, but to the individual people who are to live in those rooms. For inexpensive draperies the Mount Vernon line of novelty curtaining is unsurpassable, made up in voiles, scrims and marisettes. These are good looking and make up into breezy light curtains.

Drapery Fabrics 19c to $4.50

McMoran & Washburne Store

Safe Milk for INFANTS and INVALIDS

ASK FOR Horlick's
the Original
Avoid Imitations
and Substitutes

For Infants, Invalids and Growing Children | Rich milk, malted grain extract in Powder
The Original Food-Drink For All Ages | No Cooking - Nourishing - Digestible

Horlick's Malted Milk

First degree work will occupy the members of the Spencer butte lodge, No. 9, I. O. O. F., in their regular meeting at the local temple tonight. The Irving lodge this evening sends in two candidates for the degree work.

Western Oregon Man in City—N. Howland, of Pendleton, a retired farmer, was in Eugene yesterday looking after business interests. Mr. Howland owns a farm near Goshen. He reports that most of the wheat land in Eastern Oregon this year with bear good crops despite the dry spell.

Landers Has Excellent Fruit Crop—Apple trees in the orchard of F. S. Landers, who lives near Creswell, are so heavily loaded with fruit that the overhanging branches of the trees have to be propped up with timber supports. Mr. Landers expects a large crop this year. He was in Eugene yesterday on business.

Take Vacations on Motorcycles—Mr. and Mrs. Yale Smith and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brickey have returned from Southern Oregon where they visited the various places of interest on motorcycles and side-bars. The vacationists were on the road one week and they report that they had a fine time.

Idaho Man Buys Home Here—The residence at 1233 Emerald street, owned by Mrs. A. E. Whittrick, now of Albany, Cal., has been purchased by James V. Ware, who is coming to Eugene with his wife and two children from Idaho. Mr. Ware will enter the University of Oregon this fall. The sale was made by LeRoy Woods, of the Kinney and Hyde Realty company.

Prize Herd to Be Brought by Truck—The prize herd of Jersey cows that will be displayed at the Lane county fair by Owen Thompson of Triangle lake will be brought to the local fair grounds from a point on the low pass road, where they will be driven from the Thompson ranch. The herd will be taken about for about nine miles to reach the point where the trucks will be loaded, according to Ira B. Whitney, county agricultural agent, who has received a communication from the ranch owner.

Makes Journey to Get Bride—When on a trip to the Pacific coast by auto from his home in Gresham, S. D., Allan C. Miller combined business with pleasure. Mr. Miller came to the distant west all by his lonesome and after stopping in Eugene for a few brief hours he left for his home state with a permanent traveling companion—his wife, who until last Tuesday afternoon was Miss Jeanne Ladd. Mrs. Miller is also a resident of South Dakota, but was in the Pacific states visiting, and the two young people made Eugene their rendezvous as a starting place for their matrimonial journey.

(Continued on Page 4, Column 2)

Your Birthright—A Beautiful Complexion

You had it to begin with. It is a precious inheritance. If you've lost it, you can restore and keep it with KIRK'S

JAP ROSE

The soap that is a little bit better than any you have ever used. Note the delicate after-tingle it gives. That tells the story.

Now 10¢

JAMES S. KIRK & CO.,
Chicago

JAP ROSE

"I Like College Ice Cream"

Should think he would! College Ice Cream is made from the purest food products by expert ice-cream makers.

JUST PHONE

1480

Eugene Fruit Growers Ass'n.

Phone 1480 East 9th and Ferry
"The home of College ice cream"

