NERVOUS AND HALF-SICK WOMEN

These Letters Recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will Interest You

For Your Own Good Please Read Them

Youngstown, Ohio—"Last fall I began to feel mean and my back hurt me and I could hardly do my little bit of housework. I was played out when I would just sweep one room and would have to rest. I would have to put a cushion behind me when I would sit down and at night I could not sleep unless I had something under my back. I had awful cramps every month and was just nearly all in. Finally my husband said to me one day, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine?' and I said, 'I am willing to take anything if I could get well again.' So I took one bottle and a second one and felt better and the neighbors asked me what I was doing and said, 'Surely it must be doing you good all right.' I have just finished my eighth bottle and I cannot express to you how I feel, the way I would like to. If you can use this letter you are welcome to it and if any woman does not believe what I have written to be true, she can write to me and I will describe my condition to her as I have to you."

—Mrs. ELMER HEASLEY, 141 S. Jackson St., Youngstown, Ohio.

"I was very nervous and run-down," writes Mrs. L. E. Wise of 706 Louisiana St., New Orleans, La.

DAILY MARKET REPORT

OREGON JOURNAL MARKET SERVICE
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.—While considerable strength is shown in the general egg market situation here, no further changes were shown in selling values for the day.
Buying prices were again increased, indicating the general shortage of first-class offerings.
Bids for current receipts have been advanced to 30c a dozen for Portland delivery with henies at 25c a dozen. On the basis of recent buying prices, the point strongly to higher selling values, although 37c continued the extreme top for select Tuesday.
General advance of 1c@2c a dozen, however, is shown in the selling price of short bird storage at 25c a dozen. Demand for such offerings is rather favorable, quality being a big factor at the moment.

BUTTER SITUATION FAVORABLE
Market for butter is showing a favorable tone but prices are unchanged generally. State cube extras continued firm around 40c a pound, but that appears the extreme limit. Local interests are not inclined to advance the selling price unless compelled to.

HEAT SENDS LEMON PRICE UP
Extremely high prices have been forced by the California lemon interests, who have taken full advantage of the hot weather by advancing their quotations 50c a case. Sales along the coast generally at $9.50@10.00.

HEAT AFFECTS VEAL DEMAND
Because of the extremely hot weather of the last two days, only a very limited demand is showing for country-killed calves. Receipts have been light and this has been an aid. Hog supplies are limited.

DRIED PRUNE MARKET SLOW
Very little demand is showing in the market for dried prunes. Foreign interest is practically nil, due to the complicated and unfavorable political situation. Domestic buying is of the most limited character for many years.

POTATO DEMAND IS AT LOW EBB
With Walla Walla freely offering potatoes around $1.00 to $1.05 per cental, Portland delivery, and with quality extremely good, there is practically no movement of local stock. Idaho stock had not been giving satisfaction here of late.

BRIEF NOTES PRODUCE TRADE
Cooking fats down 1c a pound.
Worden grapes moving slow around 8c a pound bulk.
Celery market congested; sales around 50c to 55c a dozen.
Chicken market is about steady.
